Secondary Coach
Curley Hallman

Defensive Coordinator
Mike Dubose

Offensive Coordinator
Woody McCorvey

Receivers Coach
Dabo Swinney

If there is one constant in college athletics, it is change. Players come, complete their eligibility and depart. Ditto for coaches.

The 1996 season will mark another change as 27 lettermen depart and two new faces appear on the Tide's coaching roster.

The popular Mike Dubose assumed the defensive coordinator moniker, while former LSU head coach and Northport native Curley Hallman takes over the secondary spot. The shuffle continued on the offensive side, with assistant head coach Woody McCorvey assuming the role of offensive coordinator and Dabo Swinney, former Alabama receiver and a restricted earnings coach the past two years, moving into a fulltime spot as receiver coach.

Dubose, a stickler for mental and physical conditioning, should continue to direct one of the top defensive units in the country. Hallman, whose LSU teams were among the Southeastern Conference's best in defense, will blend his expertise with Dubose and linebacker coach Jeff Rouzie.

McCorvey is expected to lead an attack that will again be ground oriented, but will also include an air attack that features a down-field passing game as opposed to last year's short passing assault.

For the first time in Gene Stallings' seven-year career at Alabama, the Tide will return more than 15 starters from the previous season. Stallings will be looking at 17 returning starters, eight on offense and nine on defense, when he corrals his troops for the start of fall practice in August. Included in those offensive numbers will be four-fifths of the offensive line, quarterback, tailback and fullback. Work must be done at the receiver position, but the talent and depth is there. The defense will be anchored by the return of four starters in the secondary, while a total of nine starters return, the most in Stallings' tenure. Replacements must be found at left tackle and middle linebacker, but there is ample experience and talent to fill those slots. Michael Proctor, the Tide's placekicker the past four years, is gone, but four of five specialists return.

Overall, a total of 59 lettermen return, 26 on offense and 28 on defense, from a squad that went 8-3-0 last season. That group will be bolstered by 16 scholarship seniors.

Simple and Aggressive

OFFENSIVE LINE

Offensive line coaches Jim Fuller and Danny Pearman will be looking at an offensive line that although returns intact from 1995, could see some new faces as starters. This returning talent is one aspect around which the 1996 squad will be built. Following spring practice, left guard Will Friend (6-2, 271, Jr.), center John Causey (6-1, 273, Sr.),

DiMario (6-4, 285, Sr.) will all

starting assignments from last season.

Joel Holliday (6-3, 312, Jr.), who was a starter at left tackle last season, did not emerge from spring practice holding down a starting spot. Instead, redshirt freshman

Chris Samuels (6-6, 290, Fr.) will head into fall practice as the starter. Causey, White and DiMario were starters in every game last season, and combined to play 2,695 snaps. Friend was a starter in four games, including the final two against Mississippi

State and Auburn. Plenty of back-up talent is available with letterman Sage Spree (6-4, 285, So.) and Holliday looking for playing time behind Samuels at left tackle. Brenon Meadows (6-3, 280, Jr.) will back-up Friend, while Michael Ray (6-5, 291, Jr.) will be looking for playing time at the pivot position. At right guard, redshirt frosh Mookie Moore (6-6, 290, Jr.), Jeremy Pennington (6-2, 272, Sr.), and squaddmen Chris Sign (6-2, 262, So.) and Josh Swords (6-3, 285, So.) will be available behind White. Redshirt freshman Jason McDonald (6-6, 296) and junior Chris Jordan (6-4, 293) will lineup behind DiMario at right tackle.

RECEIVERS

In an area decimated by graduation, first-year receiver coach Dabo Swinney will not greet a returning starting wideout, although a number of players with experience will be available. At split end, Michael Vaughn (6-1, 199, So.) and Calvin Hall (6-4, 200, So.) should be the top two going into fall workouts, while Michael Feagin (5-9, 179, So.) and redshirt freshman Shamari Buchanan (6-2, 214) will be looking for playing time, too. At flanker, Marcell West (6-0, 190, Sr.) and Chad Goss (5-11, 175, Jr.) emerged one-two out of spring practice and should remain that way through fall practice. West is the leading returning receiver after catching 11 passes for 108 yards last year, while Goss had one reception for 49 yards. Hall suffered a broken foot and played sparingly in just five games, but should be in top form following an excellent spring. At tight end, Patrick Hape (6-4, 257, Sr.) and Rod Rutledge (6-4, 260, Jr.) both return with experience and could be the best tight end duo in the SEC. Hape started five games, mostly at the rover position, but caught four passes for 48 yards, while Rutledge earned three starting assignments, and had one reception for eight yards. Both were devastating blockers.

Patrick Hape

Marcell West

RUNNING BACKS

A running game that steadily improved last season will return intact for runningback coach Ivy Williams. Curtis Alexander (6-1, 202, Jr.) and

Dennis Riddle (6-0, 195, Jr.) were locked in a battle at runningback coming out of spring and Alexander had the slight edge. Alexander saw action in five games last year, rushing for 75 yards. But don't rule out Riddle, who was an 11-game starter and rushed for 969 yards and eight TDs a year ago. He averaged 4.1 yards per carry and also caught 23 passes for 150 yards and one TD. Two others, Brian Steger (6-3, 210, Sr.) and Montoya Madden (5-9, 205, So.) also return with experience, while redshirt freshman Shaun Alexander (6-1, 195) showed in the spring why he was the Kentucky Prep Player of the Year in 1994. Steger played in eight games, rushing for 218 yards and one TD, while Madden had 44 yards rushing in 11 games. Junior Ed Scissum (6-0, 232, Jr.) returns quicker and heavier for an encore performance at fullback in 1996. Scissum will have little experienced back-up, with Trevis Smith (6-1, 222, So.) logging just 89 plays in 11 games last year.

Dennis Riddle

QUARTERBACKS

Spring practice was a time of competitive jousting for a pair of talented quarterbacks who were shooting for a starting nod this fall. Freddie Kitchens (6-2, 222, Jr.) and Warren Foust (6-3, 207, So.) locked horns and Kitchens emerged as the Tide's starting quarterback. He started just two games last year, Mississippi State and Auburn, but he hit 63 of 127 passes for 811 yards and three TDs for the season. He suffered five interceptions on the season. Kitchens played 329 snaps, the bulk of those coming in the final three games of the season. His best game came against Auburn in the season finale when he hit 19 of 43 for 302 yards and one TD. He did not suffer an interception in that game. A pair of lettermen, John David Phillips (6-3, 208, So.) and Lance Tucker (6-0, 182, Jr.) will be on hand for quarterback tutor Woody McCorvey, and both will be looking for playing time behind Kitchens and Foust. Foust played in two games last year, while Phillips spent the season running the scout team as a redshirt after playing defensive back as a true freshman in 1994. Tucker is the Tide's holder on PATs and field goals and logged most of his playing time in that capacity.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The popular Mike Dubose loses only one starter from last year's defensive line, but five players who made significant contributions are also gone from that team. Shannon Brown is the missing starter, but Kendrick Burton, Vann Bodden,

Matt Parker and Elverett Brown have all graduated. On the positive side, left end Chris Hood (6-3, 273, So.), left tackle Kelvin Moore (6-3, 258, Sr.) and right end Darrell Blackburn (6-3, 234, Sr.) return to starting assignments. Moore, who can play either end or tackle, started four games and came out of spring No. 1 at that position. Right tackle Ozell Powell (6-5, 295, Sr.) should be the other starter after getting 15 tackles in 315 plays last year. Also on hand will be right tackle Eric Kerley (6-1, 298, Jr.) and at left tackle, junior college All-America Michael Myers (6-3, 270, Jr.) who enrolled at Alabama in December. Myers had 63 tackles, eight sacks and five caused fumbles last fall and is expected to make an immediate impact. Hood, who turned in 20 tackles, two stops behind the line and three sacks, started three games last year, including starts in two of the final three games. Kerley was a four-game starter and accounted for 17 tackles and two stops behind the line. An eight-game starter last season, Blackburn had 22 tackles and led the Tide with 10 sacks and 19 quarterback pressures.

Darrell

Lettermen Edgar Walker (6-4, 250, Jr.) and Anthony Dowdell (6-1, 251, Sr.) played sparingly last season and will be looking for bigger contributions this fall, while redshirt freshman Reggie Grimes (6-4, 271) moved from fullback to defensive tackle in the spring. Walk-on Chris Warren (6-3, 251, Sr.) played in one game last year. Redshirt freshmen Shawn Alexander (6-2, 286) and Clint Waggoner (6-4, 235) could offer spot duty. Waggoner earned a perfect 4.0 grade point average in his first semester at Alabama last fall.

LINEBACKERS

This talented group lost only one starter from last season, middle linebacker John Walters, and coach Jeff Rouzie will be looking at a gifted and deep linebacking corps. The ring-leaders will be weakside linebacker Dwayne Rudd (6-2, 245, Jr.), the Tide's leading tackler a year ago; strongside linebacker Ralph Staten (6-3, 208, Sr.), the No. 3 tackler last year and middle linebacker Fernando Davis (6-3, 255, Sr.). Combined, Alabama's linebackers accounted for 304 tackles last year, or 40 percent of the total stops. Leading the charge, and the chase for the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker, will be Rudd. He had a stellar season in '95, with 91 stops, three tackles behind the line and five quarterback sacks. He forced four fumbles, recovered two others and had a pair of pass break-ups while playing 621 snaps. There will be plenty of backup talent, too, with a total of eight other linebackers who have earned varsity letters. Two others will be looking for their first monogram. Paul Pickett (6-2, 221, Jr.) and John Tanks (6-4, 229, Sr.) will get plenty of repetitions. Pickett did not play last season while recovering from back surgery, but he did start a pair of games as a redshirt freshman in 1994.

Tanks played a total of 260 snaps last year, turning in six tackles. Tyrell Buckner (6-0, 252, Sr.) and Davis went head-to-head in the spring and Davis edged his senior companion out of a starting slot. Chris Edwards (6-2, 236, So.) and Granison Wagstaff (6-2, 238, So.) will be looking for playing time, while squadman Franz Odom (6-1, 236, So.) could figure in the mix. Buckner played in every game last year, getting 17 tackles, two behind the line and two sacks. Davis, who started against LSU and played 323 snaps during the season, had 25 tackles, one stop behind the line and one fumble recovery. Edwards, a redshirt freshman in '95, played in eight games, had three tackles and blocked a punt against North Carolina State. Wagstaff saw spot duty in four games while Odom played in two games. Lamont Floyd (6-2, 234, Sr.), who turned in 24 stops, including one behind the line last year, should be the back-up to Rudd. Depth will be provided by Steve Harris (6-1, 246, So.), who had four tackles in seven games last year and Tito Smith (6-3, 224, So.) who spent last season recovering from a knee injury.

Dwayne Rudd

SECONDARY

First-year Tide coach Curley Hallman had to be pleased when he looked over his roster for 1996...all four starters from a year ago return, including All-SEC safety Kevin Jackson (6-2, 206, Sr.). Flanking Jackson will be Fernando Bryant (6-0, 170, So.) at left corner, Cedric Samuel (5-9, 183, Sr.) at free safety and Deshea Townsend (5-10, 180, Jr.) at right corner. The foursome accounted for 11 interceptions and two TDs last year, with Samuel strutting his stuff with an interception for a TD against Vanderbilt and a fumble return for a TD against Georgia. Jackson, the SEC's leading returning interceptor, had 62 tackles last year, three stops behind the line and a pair of pass break-ups. He was selected Sports Illustrated's National Player of the Week after snaring three interceptions against Georgia. Bryant, an All-SEC Freshman team selection last year, had 39 tackles, one behind the line and three pass break-ups, while Samuel turned in 54 tackles, one behind the line and one quarterback sack. Townsend, with five career interceptions, had 25 tackles, three behind the line and five pass break-ups a year ago. Providing back-up at left corner are Owen Winston (6-0, 185, So.), Tracy High (5-9, 177, Sr.) and Marlon Reyes (5-10, 184, Sr.). The trio combined for 11 tackles. Behind Jackson at strong safety will be Andre Short (5-11, 205, Jr.) who had 24 tackles, two stops behind the line and one sack. At free safety, sophomores Kelvin Sigler (6-1, 180, So.) and Steve Stanley (6-3, 199, So.) had six and three tackles respectively and Jeremy Pruitt (6-0, 186, Sr.) had seven tackles. Available at right corner will be red-shirt freshman Thomas Hill (5-10, 180).

THE KICKERS

Hallman will take over the bulk of the special team duties in 1996 and will be looking to make particular improvement in the area of kick coverage. Absent for the first time in four years will be place-kicker Michael Proctor, but Hayden Stockton (6-0, 195, Sr.) and William Watts (6-2, 210, Sr.) return respectively to their punting and kickoff duties. Additionally, snappers Chester Lewis (6-4, 252, Sr.) and Jackson Cook (6-0, 260, Sr.) return. Watts has yet to kick a field goal or extra point, although his leg is plenty lively and strong. Several walk-on candidates could earn the kicking duties, among them Brian Cunningham (5-11, 178, So.) and Ryan Pflugner (5-11, 165, Fr.), who was an honorable mention all-state kicker in Florida.

HEAD COACH GENE STALLINGS....

ON THE OFFENSE..."All I know is last year we didn't score enough points. I'm not going to go into goals and so forth, but if we're going to be a good offensive football team, we have to score more points.

I'm not gonna vary a whole lot, we aren't going to throw it 90 times a game, but I'll change some things. Philosophy is sometimes hard to change, methods are not"

ON LEADERSHIP AT QUARTERBACK..."I would say Freddie (Kitchens) has to have the advantage because he has played more. He's got that air about him because he has been in some big games. You have to realize that most of the time last year, we put Freddie in the game when we were in trouble to start with. Like against Tennessee, all of a sudden you have to rely on your arm and that is not necessarily good. The fact that Freddie has played, been around, that's big. The team is a little more comfortable with him. Warren will have to prove himself. But as a football coach, I can see that Warren has the ability."

ON POSSIBLE OFFENSIVE SETS..."We're basically an "I" football team. That's not to say we won't do various things at times, but we're basically an "I" team. I wouldn't come to the game expecting see 100 percent "I" formations. On third down, we'll tend to put in three or four wide receivers."

ON THE ROVER BACK..."Ed Scissum has really improved, but we have not seen the end of the rover back. One thing it does is get two of our better players on the field at the same time (Patrick Hape and Rod Rutledge). If you were to say 'give me the best 11 players on the field' you would have to include Hape and Rutledge. It also gives us greater ability to audible, depending on what the defense gives us."

ON THE DEFENSE..."It looks like we're going to be a little more aggressive. The style of attack will be a little different, but defensively, I can see us being a pretty good football team. We've got some depth and experience at places we haven't had in the past."

ON THE NEW COACHES..."I'm very pleased with the contributions of our new coaches, Curley Hallman and Dabo Swinney. Curley has been around for a long time and you expect him to do a good job and he certainly has. I'm very pleased with the way Mike Dubose is coordinating the defense. Dabo came to us as a walk-on player, then a graduate assistant and now a fulltime coach and I'm very pleased with his contributions. Woody has made an impact on the offense and I'm looking for good things from him."

ON THE QUARTERBACK SITUATION..."They made some progress in the spring. I am not 100 percent happy with the way we are reading defenses and doing some things, but we have definitely made some progress. Woody (McCorvey) has done an excellent job with our quarterbacks. They bring different things to the table. Warren Foust has a great ability to get out of trouble and run. When he's in the game, you might see a different attack than when Freddie is at quarterback. Freddie is doing a better job of reading defenses and getting the ball to the right receivers. We just have to make better decisions that what we have in the past, we can't throw as many interceptions, in practice or in the game. Warren has definitely been throwing the football better and his style has improved."

ALEXANDER

After an injury-plagued 1995 season, Curtis worked extremely hard in the off season, had an excellent spring and is now ready to make a run at extended playing time in 1996. He moved into the No. 1 spot at runningback following spring practice. He should get plenty of competition from Dennis Riddle, giving the Tide a potent 1-2 combination at that position. 1995 (Sophomore): Injuries took their toll, as Curtis played in only six games, rushing for 75 yards on 22 carries. He participated in 62 plays, with a season-high 17 against LSU, but his season-best came against Mississippi State when he carried eight times for 42 yards.

1994 (Freshman): Playing in three games, Alexander rushed for 75 yards on 19 carries. He had a season-high 57 yards on 12 carries against Tennessee-Chattanooga. He scored his first collegiate touchdown on a two-yard run against Vanderbilt.

1993 (Redshirted) Prep: A Superprep All-America, he was rated the seventh-best running back in the country and the fourth-best player in the South while starring for Whitehaven High School. He was the Gatorade Circle of Champions Tennessee Player of the Year as he led the state in rushing with 2,379 yards and 31 touchdowns on 242 carries. He had a state single-game rushing record with 479 yards in a 65-6 win over Southside and another game with 396 yards. As a junior, he rushed for 1,473 yards and 11 TD's. Personal: The son of James and Betty Alexander, Curtis' hobbies include swimming and riding motorcycles. Born 6-11-74. He is a public relations major.

BLACKBURN

Primed for an outstanding senior season, Darrell returns as the Tide's leading sack-man. He is very quick off the corner, and although playing underweight for a defensive end, Darrell turned in 10 quarterback sacks last year. With 15 career sacks, he needs just two to move into the top-six and seven to move in the top three in that career category. 1995 (Junior): Darrell played in every game, starting in eight. He had 389 plays, including a season-high 53 against Arkansas. He had a team-leading 19 quarterback pressures as he made steady progress from an illness that kept him out of spring practice. 1994 (Sophomore): Playing in all 13 games, Darrell had starts against Arkansas, Southern Mississippi, Auburn and Florida in the SEC championship game. He had a total of 23 tackles, three stops behind the line for seven yards, three quarterback sacks for 24 yards and 12 quarterback pressures. He caused one fumble and blocked a field goal against Southern Mississippi, the second blocked field goal of his career. 1993 (Freshman) Darrell played in every game on special teams and saw defensive action in eight games. He had 12 tackles. His big play came against Miss. State when he blocked a field goal attempt and Lemanski Hall returned it 60 yards for a TD. 1992 (Redshirted) Prep: Darrell was a first-team, Class 6A All-State player, who led his team in tackles with 105. He had five fumble recoveries, five caused fumbles, two interceptions and 16 sacks playing under Mike Shipp at Butler High School. Darrell also played tight end, primarily in a blocking role, but did manage to catch three passes for a team that made it to the semis in the 6A playoffs. Personal: The son of Betty Blackburn, Darrell lists earning a scholarship to play at Alabama and participating in the Alabama-Mississippi High School All-Star game as two of his career highlights. Born 3-29-73. He is majoring in criminal justice.

The stage was set during spring practice as Tyrell and Fernando Davis fought for the starting middle linebacker slot left vacant by John Walters. Davis came out on top, but Buckner will still see plenty of action, giving the Tide a pair of seasoned veterans at that position.

1995 (Junior): Playing in all 11 games last year, Tyrell turned in 17 tackles, two stops behind the line for five yards and a pair of sacks for nine yards. He played a total of 176 snaps with a season-high 40 against North Carolina State. He had a career-high six tackles and two quarterback sacks in that game. RIDDLE*1995 SEC "Player of the Week" vs. LSU

After rushing for almost 1,000 yards last season, Dennis was engaged in a fierce battle at the tailback slot with Curtis Alexander. Although Alexander was listed at No. 1 coming out of spring training, Riddle is expected to be in the hunt for a starting spot when fall drills begin. 1995 (Sophomore): Leading the team with 969 yards rushing and eight TDs, Dennis was the Tide's workhorse in backfield carrying the ball 236 times. He averaged 4.1 yards per carry and added another 150 yards and one TD receiving. He started every game, playing a total of 554 snaps. He closed the season with a rush, getting 174 yards vs. LSU, 181 against Mississippi State and 86 against Auburn. He scored three TDs in that three-game stretch. 1994 (Freshman) A Tuscaloosa native, Riddle has made an immediate impact in the Tide's backfield. Through 12 games, he had 37 carries for a total of 143 yards and two touchdowns. The first carry of his collegiate career came in the season-opener against UT-Chattanooga and resulted in a touchdown. His other trip to the end zone was a one-yard run in the final minute that proved to be the game-winner against Mississippi State. Riddle also has one kickoff return to his credit, a 13-yarder against Southern Miss. Prep: As a junior at Tuscaloosa's Central High School, Riddle was an All-State selection after rushing for 1,700 yards. During his senior season under coach Buzz Busby, he had 216 carries for 1,301 yards and 19 touchdowns. Riddle had 12 catches for 141 yards and one touchdown, and he returned both punts and kickoffs. Possessing all the physical tools to be an excellent tight end, Rod will have plenty of opportunity to fulfill that role. He had 353 total plays, but still caught only one pass, that for eight yards against Arkansas. 1994 (Freshman): Rutledge saw action in all of Alabama's games in 1994, as both a tight end and a mem-

Dream On

The "walk-ons" play a vital role in the success of Crimson Tide football

In February of each year thousands of high school football prospects across the country sign a national letter of intent with a college of their choice. In return for his performance on Saturday afternoons the college or university will provide him with room and board, meals and an education.

In essence, the athlete is provided a chance to fulfill a lifelong dream. A dream with roots originating way before that first Pop Warner jersey donned his name.

But for all those afforded this opportunity there remain thousands more whose dream of playing college football is left dangling. In order to keep this vision alive and have it flourish, they must become what is commonly known as a "walk-on" or non-scholarship player.

In 1994 the NCAA reduced the number of football scholarships for a Division I-A school from 105 to 85. This ruling increased the vitality of walk-ons at a major college program. Not only for practice purposes but on game day as well.

Before 1994 a walk-on's main purpose was to improve the play of the scholarshiped players in practice. Whether it be as a tackling dummy or posing as the opponents star player.

But a walk-on's love for the game is undying. Most hope that those hundreds of hours spent on the practice field will turn into a few snaps come Saturday. Those few snaps would quench the thirst of hope.

In Gene Stallings' six years at Alabama several walk-ons have made substantial contributions to the program and were rewarded with a scholarship.

What follows is a list of those players who showed great perseverance and made their dream a reality.

Roman Colburn, Wide Receiver, Ft. Payne, Ala. (Ft. Payne) - Was a three-year letterman from 1992-94. Roman played in six games as a sophomore and every game his junior year on special teams. His senior season he participated in eight games and caught one pass for 17 yards. Against LSU he returned a blocked punt 33 yards for a touchdown.

Mickey Conn, Cornerback, Snellville, Ga. (South Gwinnett) - Lettered from 1992-1994. In his sophomore season he played in eight games, turned in six tackles, mainly on kickoff and punt return coverage. His junior year, he played in every game on the punt return and kickoff coverage teams, turning in a career best 13 tackles. In 12 games his senior season Conn recorded seven tackles and one interception.

Bryne Diehl, Punter, Oakman, Ala. (Oakman) - Was the Crimson Tide's starting punter for three years (1992-'93-'94). In 1992, Diehl averaged 38.2 yards per punt. Against Southern Miss. he had a 73-yard touchdown pass to Tommy Johnson. In 1993 he was named second-team AP All-SEC, was the AT&T Long Distance Award winner following the Arkansas game when he averaged 55.5 yards on two punts and his season average of 43.6 was the second best in Tide history. It was also seventh nationally. After his senior season, which he averaged 41.1 yards per punt, he was drafted in the seventh round by the New York Giants.

Jeff Foshee, Linebacker/Fullback, Millbrook, Ala. (Stanhope Elmore) - A four-year letterman (1991-94), Foshee was awarded a scholarship at the beginning of his junior year. He played in every game his sophomore and junior seasons on special teams. Foshee was credited with six tackles his junior year when he was moved from inside linebacker to fullback to offer depth. He had one carry his senior year, against LSU, for five yards.

Chad Key, Split End, Parrish, Ala. (Walker) - Lettered for the Crimson Tide from 1993-95. Moved from quarterback to split end his sophomore year. Key played in every game that year, starting against Ole Miss and Southern Miss and catching 17 passes for 269 yards. His junior year, he started in four games and caught 15 passes for 185 yards. He was also a 1994 Academic All-SEC performer. Last year he played in every game and ended the season as the Tide's fourth leading receiver with 18 receptions for 199 yards and two touchdowns.

Brenon Meadows, Guard, Birmingham, Ala. (W.A. Berry) - A transfer from Louisville, Meadows was a two year starter at center for the Cardinals. He sat out the 1995 season at Alabama. He was an All-State and Super All-

Metro lineman at Berry High School.

Darryl Pickett, Safety, Montgomery, Ala. (Carver) - Lettered from 1988-90, Pickett played in nine games his sophomore year, mainly on kickoff coverage teams. Also earned Academic All-SEC honors. During his senior year Pickett was credited with five tackles and two fumble recoveries, one which he returned 31 yards for a touchdown against Cincinnati.

Matt Pine, Snapper, Gadsden, Ala. (Gadsden) - Was Alabama's long snapper on punts for four years. He was a three-year letterman from 1991-93. Pine was one of the first men down field on the majority of Tide punts. His sophomore season he totaled four tackles, his junior season he gained seven tackles and one caused fumble and during his senior year Pine was credited with five tackles.

Current walk-on flanker Chad Goss

Dabo Swinney, Split End, Pelham, Ala. (Pelham) - Swinney became a three-year letterman (1990-92) after arriving in Tuscaloosa in 1988. In 1990 he had one reception for 18 yards and was named Academic All-SEC. The following season, Swinney had two catches for 15 yards, and his senior season was highlighted with four catches for 48 yards. On special teams that year he was credited with three tackles, one for a 12 yard loss.

Jeff Wall, Holder, Birmingham, Ala. (Vestavia Hills) - Lettered four years (1989-92) as the Crimson Tide's holder. At 5-8 Wall was the smallest player on the squad, but game after game he was one of the most important members of the team. During the Tennessee game, his sophomore year, he made an excellent play to get the ball in place for Philip Doyle's game-winning field goal.

Lorenzo Ward, Rover, Greensboro, Ala. (Greensboro West) - Was a key member of the Tide's kick coverage teams. Ward earned varsity letters in 1988-'89 and '90. He ended his career with 37 tackles and one fumble recovery in the 1987 Notre Dame game. His senior season, the Academic All-SEC performer recorded a career-high 14 tackles.

Tank Williamson, Punter, Orrville, Ala. (Selma) - Was awarded two varsity letters as Alabama's punter in 1990 and 1991. Became the No. 1 punter in the Tennessee game his junior year. Williamson recorded a 67-yarder that year against LSU, a 47 and a 49-yarder against Tennessee and received Academic All-SEC honors. His senior year he booted a 71-yard punt which tied him for 10th best in Alabama history.

Head Gene Stallings Coach

Character.

When one speaks of character he is referring to a distinctive quality or notable trait that distinguishes an individual from a group.

Those who exhibit such features are often looked upon for guidance and assistance.

When then Alabama Athletic Director Hootie Ingram hired Gene Stallings on Jan. 11, 1990 to become Alabama's head coach it was "his own character and accomplishments which earned him the job", Ingram said. Despite all the awards and victories Stallings has collected during his 38 years of coaching, it's the man behind those accolades who receives first mention from those who have been close to him for several years.

Now entering his seventh season as the Tide's head coach, Stallings has compiled an on-the-field record of 60-13-1, won a national and SEC championship, three straight SEC Western Division titles (1992, '93, '94), two SEC Coach of the Year Awards (1992, '94) and was also named the Paul Bryant/FWAA Coach of the Year in 1992.

Sure, these results are nothing short of spectacular, but the Paris, Texas native would prefer higher praise for his efforts which take place when the gridiron equipment is put away and the stadium lights go out.

Stallings' love for football is much deeper than records and titles. His satisfaction comes from seeing the players achieve success in all phases of life. And this passion is also carried over to the children in Alabama and the rest of the country. This is evident by the countless hours that he and his wife Ruth Ann have given to several community charities.

In 1991 his family was honored as the Family of the Year by the Tuscaloosa Association of Retarded Citizens for their sponsorship of an annual charity golf tournament which raises money for the association. And in November of 1994 his family was honored once again for their generosity when the RISE Program, located on Alabama's campus, named its new building the Stallings Center.

RISE, which originally stood for Rural Infant Stimulation Environment but is now simply known as RISE because it deals not only with infants but toddlers and preschoolers as well, prepares disabled children for the public school environment by integrating them with non-disabled peers. The goal of the program is to help children with cerebral palsy, Downs Syndrome and other developmental disabilities to surpass their boundaries.

Stallings, whose son John Mark has Downs Syndrome, was instrumental in raising money for the building and also devotes an unregulated amount of time with families of individuals with disabilities. The coach has even been known to telephone the parents of new-born children with Downs Syndrome to comfort them and offer promise.

In 1982 the National Boys Club gave Stallings the Alumni of the Year Award, and a year later he received the Dallas Father of the Year Award. He has been elected to the Texas A&M Hall of Fame, the Texas Hall of Fame, the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame and currently serves on the Board of Trustees at Abilene Christian University.

The former All-Southwest Conference performer began his coaching career at Alabama as an assistant under the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1958-64. He coached the secondary for six years before being appointed assistant head coach in charge of the defense in 1964. The Tide won two national championships and two SEC titles during those seven years.

The following year he returned to his alma mater, Texas A&M, for his first head coaching job. The then 29-year-old Stallings remained in College Station for seven seasons, compiling a 27-45-1 record. In 1967 the Aggies captured the SWC title by closing out the season with seven consecutive wins after beginning the season 0-4.

In 1972 Stallings took his career to the professional ranks when he joined Tom Landry and the Dallas Cowboys. During his time there, Dallas won seven division titles, three conference championships and one Super Bowl (1978). In 1986 he made his NFL head coaching debut with the St. Louis Cardinals. The Cardinals led the NFC in total defense and ranked fourth overall in the NFL. When the team moved to Phoenix in 1988, it ranked fourth in the NFL in total offense.

In his four years with the Cardinals' organization, Stallings compiled a 23-34-1 record in one of the toughest divisions (NFC East) in the league.

Since his return to Tuscaloosa in 1990, he has led the Tide to five bowl appearances, winning four of those. In only his third season, 1992, Stallings and his staff produced Alabama's first perfect regular season since 1979 by going 12-0. The team went on to defeat Miami in the Sugar Bowl and capture the national championship. He missed playing for another national championship in 1994, when his 11-0-0 Tide lost to Florida, 24-23 in the SEC Championship Game. Alabama went on to beat Ohio State, 24-17, in the CompUSA Florida Citrus Bowl to finish the season 12-1-0.

Three of his first five teams ended the season with a top-five national ranking. His 1990 team was the only one not to finish in either the AP or the USA Today/CNN Coaches poll.

Stallings spent his collegiate playing days under Bryant's reign at Texas A&M and was one of the Aggies who endured the now famous Junction training camp in 1954. In 1956 he was chosen along with Jack Pardee and Lloyd Hale as tri-captains of the squad which went 9-0-1, won the SWC title and finished fifth in both the AP and UPI polls.

Born March 2, 1935, Stallings attended Paris High School where he earned all-district honors in football and basketball. He was selected second team all-state in football at the end of his senior year, and he was also a star on the Paris golf team.

Besides John Mark, he and his wife have four children; Anna Lee, Laurie, Jacklyn and Martha Kate. They also have five grandchildren. His hobbies include golf, fishing and hunting.

mike DUBOSE

Defensive Coordinator

- Eleventh Year at Alabama (Jan. 20, 1990)
- Bachelor's Degree Alabama '74
- Master's Degree Alabama, '75

From his high school coaching days in Fairhope, Ala., to his years with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Mike Dubose has gained experience at every level of the game. And the results are obvious.

In his 10 years with Alabama, he rejoined the staff in January of 1990, he has supplied the NFL with five first-round draft picks (Emmanuel King, 1985; Jon Hand, 1986; Cornelius Bennett, 1987; John Copeland, 1992; Eric Curry, 1992). Numerous others have also enjoyed successful careers in the professional ranks.

Dubose, who was selected as the 1991 Working Coach of the Year by the Birmingham Touchdown Club, has tutored five athletes to All-America honors, 10 received All-SEC status and Bennett won the Lombardi Award in 1986. Bennett and Curry finished in the top 10 in the Heisman Trophy race, and Curry was also one of four finalists for the Lombardi in 1992.

In this year's NFL draft, two more of his products were selected. Shannon Brown went in the third round to the Atlanta Falcons and Kendrick Burton in the fourth round to the Houston Oilers.

Dubose's coaching career began in 1975 as a graduate assistant at Alabama. The next four years were spent at Fairhope (Ala.) High School, the first two years as an assistant and the remaining two as head coach. He returned to the college level as Tennessee-Chattanooga's defensive line coach from 1980 to 1981. The following year he served in the same capacity at Southern Mississippi.

In 1983 he began his first full-time stint at Alabama as the defensive line coach. After four years, Dubose was called to the professional ranks by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Three years later he returned to Tuscaloosa.

Since returning to his alma mater, Dubose has played a significant role in the Tide's success. During the 1992 national championship season the Tide defense gave up only five rushing touchdowns, led the nation in total defense (194.20 yards per game) and in rushing defense (55.0 yards per game). Last season, Alabama ranked sixth nationally in rushing defense, allowing only 105.27 yards per game.

As a player under Paul "Bear" Bryant, Dubose experienced the tradition of Alabama football first hand.

He was a part of three SEC Championship teams (1972, 1973, 1974) and one national championship team (1973). While playing defensive line for Alabama, the Tide posted a 32-4 record.

- Thirteenth Year at Alabama
- Bachelor's Degree Alabama, '67

The dean of Alabama's coaching staff, Fuller has been at his current position since December 15, 1983 when he joined Ray Perkins' staff.

Fuller came to Alabama after a seven-year stint as head coach at Jacksonville State. While compiling a 48-20 record he led the Gamecocks to the Division II playoffs six of those seven years and captured four Gulf South Conference championships.

In the past 12 years, Fuller has coached eight All-SEC players (Mike Adcock, Terrill Chatman, Bill Condon, Wes Neighbors, Larry Rose, Tobie Sheils, Roger Shultz, George Wilson) and two second-team All-Americans (Neighbors, Rose). Fuller not only has players receive honors on the field but in the classroom as well. Eight of his student-athletes have been named to the Academic All-SEC Honor Roll.

Fuller, who was named the Working Coach of the Year in 1990 by the Birmingham Touchdown Club, played offensive guard and on the defensive line for Alabama from 1964-67. He was a part of two national championship teams (1964-65) as well as the 1966 SEC Championship team. During his career for Paul "Bear" Bryant, Alabama went 30-2-1, losing only one regular season game in three years.

The Birmingham native spent the first two years of his coaching career, 1967 and 1968, as an assistant at Fairfield (Ala.) High School. He was promoted to head coach the following year, a position he held for one year before moving to Jacksonville State to coach the offensive line.

In 1974 Fuller assumed the same duties at East Carolina. After serving one season with the Pirates he returned to Jacksonville State where he coached the offensive line two more years before being named head coach in 1977.

Born on June 11, 1945 he is married to the former Peggy Alldredge of Fairfield. They have two daughters, Kim and Kathy. Kim is married to Chris Craven and they have a son, Drew.

- First Year at Alabama (Jan. 20, 1996)
- Bachelor's Degree Texas A&M '70

Hallman, who grew up just five miles from the University of Alabama campus, rejoined the Tide coaching staff in January of this year to assume the duties he held for Paul "Bear" Bryant and the 1973 SEC and national championship team.

During his coaching career the Northport, Ala., native has gained a wealth of knowledge while working with some of college football's greatest minds. He has participated in 11 bowl games as a coach and a player and has been associated with eight conference championships and two national champions.

Outside of his 17 years as an assistant, Hallman has also served as a head coach for seven years at both Southern Mississippi and LSU. He also logged two seasons as an assistant in the high school ranks.

His playing days were spent as a standout defensive back for Gene Stallings at Texas A&M where he lettered three years with the football team (1966-68) and one as a guard on the basketball team. He was named to the All-Southwest Conference team and earned All-Bowl Team honors following the 1968 season. After graduation in 1970, he was named to the Texas A&M All-Decade team.

Hallman stayed at A&M and spent two seasons working with defensive backs and the freshman squad. The next two seasons were spent as the offensive coordinator and running backs coach at Stark High School in Orange, Texas. He then began a four year stint at Alabama (1973-76) which saw the Tide make four straight bowl appearances and post three consecutive 11-1 seasons.

From Alabama, Hallman left to coach running backs at Memphis State from 1977-78. A three year stop with the Clemson Tigers would follow. Here, Hallman received his second national championship ring as part of the 1981 coaching staff led by Danny Ford. In 1982 he returned to his alma mater to coach defensive backs until Southern Miss gave him his first head coaching job in 1988.

Hallman promptly led the Golden Eagles to a 10-2 finish his first season and a 38-18 victory over UTEP in the Independence Bowl. In 1989 his squad pulled off one of the biggest upsets of the season when they defeated Florida State 30-26 on national television. After compiling a 23-11 record in three years at Southern Miss, he joined the SEC as LSU's head coach.

During his four years at LSU (1991-94) he compiled a 16-28 mark.

Offensive Coordinator

- Seventh Year at Alabama (Jan. 24, 1990)
- Bachelor's Degree Alabama State '72
- Master's Degree West Florida '77

After serving as receivers coach for six years, and assistant head coach the last two, Woody McCorvey was named offensive coordinator in January of this year.

Under McCorvey's guidance the Alabama receivers put a dent in the school's record book. Perhaps his best pupil, David Palmer, broke the school record for receiving yards in a single season (1,000) and yards in a single game (217) vs. Vanderbilt in 1993. Palmer was the third-place vote getter in the Heisman Trophy race in 1993, the highest finish ever for an Alabama player.

Two of McCorvey's athletes have earned All-SEC honors (Palmer and Lamonde Russell). Palmer was also a first-team All-American. Palmer and Kevin Lee, another of McCorvey's students, are now enjoying careers in the NFL, while Prince Wimbley has played in the CFL the past three seasons. Wimbley, a 1992 Tide senior, had 49 receptions for 714 yards for the Las Vegas Posse in 1994 and was the team's second leading receiver.

Seniors Tony Johnson and Toderick Malone were selected in the sixth round of this year's NFL Draft. Curtis Brown, also a senior in 1995, was signed as a free agent by the Baltimore Ravens.

McCorvey began his career at Tate High School in Gonzales, Fla., in 1972. Six seasons later he made the jump into the collegiate ranks with North Carolina Central. A year later McCorvey began a four-year stint as Alabama A&M's offensive coordinator.

With McCorvey at the helm the Bulldogs ranked among the top 20 in total offense, passing offense, rushing offense and scoring offense all four years. Following the 1982 season McCorvey was named receivers coach at Clemson. The Tigers won the ACC Championship three times during his seven year tenure.

Born on September 30, 1950, McCorvey is married to the former Ann Brown of Montgomery, Ala., and the couple has one son, Marlon.

Recruiting Coordinator

- Seventh Year at Alabama (March 19, 1990)
- Bachelor's Degree St. Bernard '75

In order to have a championship team you must have great players. Alabama gets those great players due in large part to the dedication and hard work of Randy Ross. Embarking on his seventh year as Alabama's recruiting coordinator, Ross' valuable experience in evaluating players comes from years of coaching at both the high school and collegiate levels.

Ross enjoyed a successful collegiate career playing baseball at St. Bernard College before moving onto a career in the coaching ranks. His first step into the profession was at the high school level in Alabama where he spent three years as an assistant at Gadsden and Southside (Gadsden) high schools. He then became a head coach for nine years, the first seven at Southside (Gadsden) High School and the last two at Scottsboro High School.

In 1987 he joined the collegiate ranks when current UAB head coach Watson Brown hired him to coach quarterbacks at Vanderbilt. When Gene Stallings received the Alabama head coaching job in 1990, he lured Ross to Tuscaloosa, a move that has proven to be essential to the Tide's success this decade.

In Ross' six seasons, the Tide has attracted some of the nation's finest high school and junior college talent. Year-in and year-out Alabama is successful in recruiting the top players in Alabama as well.

Born October 6, 1953, he is married to the former Ann Lowe.

Linebackers

- Twelfth Year at Alabama (March 2, 1991)
- Bachelor's Degree Alabama '73

Jeff Rouzie returned to Alabama in 1991 to begin his second tour of duty with the Alabama linebackers. The former Tide defensive standout has coached the linebackers in Tuscaloosa a total of 10 years.

Rouzie spent his first three years of coaching on the high school level in Florida, one as an assistant at Wolfston High School in Jacksonville and the remaining two as an assistant at Rockledge High School in Rockledge. He returned to his alma mater in 1977. During his five year stint he helped Alabama collect two of its 12 national championships (1978-79) and four SEC Championships.

During the 1977 and 1978 season he coached one of the greatest all-time linebackers in Tide history, Barry Krauss, who is best remembered for his "Goal Line Stand" stop of Penn State's Mike Guman to preserve the 1979 Sugar Bowl win and the national championship. The defense that season led the nation in scoring defense, allowing only 5.3 points per game.

Rouzie has coached two All-Americans (Thomas Boyd, 1980,'81; Krauss, 1978) and seven All-SEC performers (Boyd, 1979,'80,'81; Lemanski Hall, 1992,'93; Krauss, 1978; Antonio London, 1992; Derrick Oden, 1992; John Sullins, 1991; John Walters, 1995). Hall is currently playing with the Houston Oilers, London with the Detroit Lions and Oden with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Since his return to the Capstone in 1991, the Tide has recorded seven shutouts and has held opponents to under 100 yards rushing 27 times. In 1992, the Tide went six straight games without allowing an opponent 100 yards rushing. In four of those six games, six for the year, Alabama held the opponent to under 50 yards rushing. That same year the Tide defense led the nation in total defense (194.20 yards per game) and in rushing defense (55.0 yards per game).

As a player from 1970-71, Rouzie earned the Most Valuable Lineman award in the 1970 Bluebonnet Bowl, was the Chevrolet Defensive Player of the Game against LSU in 1971 and earned All-SEC recognition that same year. His playing career was cut short by an automobile accident, but he then got his first taste of coaching as a student coach in 1972 and 1973 while earning his degree.

Born January 9, 1951, he is married to the former Sarah Joyce Pyron. They have two children, Jennifer (19) and Catherine (14).

Alabama's Football Stadia

Bryant-Denny Stadium is once again experiencing growing pains. Plans are underway, and construction has begun, on an expansion that will move the stadium's capacity to approximately 82,000. The construction should be completed by 1998. The stadium was expanded to its present capacity, 70,123, in 1988.

In 1991, the artificial surface was replaced by Prescription Athletic Turf, with the Georgia game on Sept. 21 being the first game on grass since Oct. 12, 1968 when Alabama and Vanderbilt played. The first game in the newly-renovated stadium was played on Sept. 24, 1988 when the Crimson Tide beat Vanderbilt 44-10.

The first game played in the stadium was 64 years ago as the Crimson Tide defeated Mississippi 22-7 on Homecoming day. The seating capacity was 12,000 at the time.

Gov. Bibb Graves officially presented the stadium to then-President Dr. George Denny on Oct. 4, 1929.

Seven years after the birth of Denny Stadium, an additional 6,000 seats were added to the east side and soon after that, 6,000 more were added to the west side to bring the capacity to slightly over 24,000.

After World War II, Coach Frank Thomas, in his 15th season with the Crimson Tide, watched Denny Stadium grow again with additional bleachers put in both end zones to bring the capacity to 31,000.

When Paul William Bryant, a former player under Coach Frank Thomas, took over as head coach, the stadium again had growing pains. An additional 12,000 seats were constructed in 1961 along with a press box and elevator to bring the capacity to 43,000. The capacity was raised to 60,000 in 1966.

On Sept. 5, 1975, the Alabama Legislature enacted a resolution to change the name of the stadium to Bryant-Denny Stadium. Rededication ceremonies marked the name change on April 10, 1976 at the spring A-Day game. At the time of the dedication, the stadium was one of only two stadiums in the nation to be named after an active head coach.

Alabama will continue to use Legion Field as its other home site with three games slated for the venerable Birmingham stadium this fall.

Coach Paul W. Bryant

Paul William Bryant (1913-1983) returned to Alabama as head football coach in 1958 after playing for the Tide from 1933-1935 and serving as an assistant coach from 1936-1939. The Bryant era at Alabama spanned more than a quarter of a century.

Bryant-Denny Stadium, Bryant Hall, the Bryant Conference Center and the Bryant Museum stand as reminders of Bryant's legacy to the University. A legacy of winning.

Dr. George Denny

George Hutcherson Denny (1870-1955) accepted the presidency of The University of Alabama on January 1, 1912. He began an extraordinary presidential career that spanned almost a quarter of a century.

Denny Chimes and Bryant-Denny Stadium stand as reminders of Denny's legacy to the University.

UA ranked 12th among the nation's public universities in 1994-95 in enrollment of freshman National Merit Scholars, with 64. Mallory Hayes of Huntsville became UA's 14th Rhodes Scholar and the average freshman ACT score topped 23, well above the national average for college freshmen. UA's African-American student enrollment of more than 10 percent is one of the highest percentages among the nation's flagship state universities.

Director of Athletics

Bob Bockrath, 53, assumed the role as Alabama's Athletics Director on June 7, 1996, thus culminating a journey which began when he left the coaching profession in 1980.

"This is truly a great experience and opportunity for me," Bockrath said at the press conference announcing his hiring. "In my view of college athletics, there are many kinds of jobs. But the jobs that you look for and strive to get, are those such as this one at the University of Alabama. This is an 'end' job for me. One from which you do not move."

Headly statements for a man who has been in the realm of athletic administration for just 16 years and an athletics director for less than five. His rise to the top has been swift, certain and unquestionably well planned.

His philosophy is simple but certainly not easy to administer. "You have to change with the times or fall behind. I try to be creative and look for new ways to do things," Bockrath said.

Moving to Alabama from Texas Tech, Bockrath brings a wealth of knowledge and administrative experience to the Capstone. He served as athletics director at Tech from Sept. 1, 1993 until his appointment at Alabama. Prior to that, he was athletics director at the University of California at Berkeley from Sept. 2, 1991 until Aug. 31, 1993.

During his tenure in Lubbock, Bockrath brought unparalleled success to the Red Raiders program. In the last two years Tech has won or shared six conference championships in the four major producing sports. The football, men's basketball, women's basketball and baseball teams all participated in post-season play this past year and finished ranked among the nation's Top-25.

At Tech, Bockrath increased the Red Raider budget almost $4 million to a record $14 million. He improved facilities expanding Dan Law baseball field to 5,600 permanent seats with skyboxes; renovated R.P. Fuller Track Stadium; completed an athletics service building in the baseball-track complex; finished plans to construct an office complex to house the Red Raider Club and implemented plans to build a new on-campus basketball arena. In addition, he worked to develop a strong service orientation and total quality management approach among athletic department staff.

In 1991 he made an immediate impact in Berkeley. He instituted the integration of the men's and women's athletics programs, along with the Department of Recreational Sports, a job he successfully accomplished. In addition, he was charged with expanding and improving Cal's 24 intercollegiate sports. While he was at Cal, the Bears won the 1992 Florida Citrus Bowl and both the men and women's basketball teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

During his 11-year stint in Arizona's athletic administration, Bockrath helped turn the Wildcat program into one of the nation's finest. He was a key administrator in the merging of the men's and women's departments in the early 1980's and he also assisted in taking Arizona's athletic fundraising from cash donations of $450,000 in 1980 to over $2.2 million in 1989.

A native Columbus, Ohio, Bockrath played collegiate football under legendary coach Bo Schembechler at Miami of Ohio. After graduating in 1964 with a bachelor's degree in Education, he served as an assistant coach for a year while earning a master's degree in secondary education. He also had coaching stops at Slippery Rock University and in the high school ranks at Tipp City and Findlay, both in Ohio.

He served as offensive line coach at Arizona from 1972-76 under head coach Jim Young before moving with Young to Purdue, where he served as an assistant coach from 1977-80. He returned to Arizona as an associate athletics director from 1980-88 and was promoted to senior associate athletics director by Cedric Dempsey in 1988 and served in that capacity until 1991 when he left to take over the athletics department at Cal.

He and his wife, the former Becky Poorman of Latrobe, PA., have two grown children, Susan and Mark.

Faculty Chairman of Athletics

A member of the UA faculty since 1981, Marsh has held faculty appointments in the UA School of Law and UA's College of Commerce and Business Administration. He also served as director of the University Honors Program from 1989-93.

Marsh's wealth of experience at the undergraduate level through his teaching and leadership of the Honors Program and broad-based teaching and service as a business and law faculty member were reasons for his selection by UA President Roger Sayers.

Marsh received the Burlington Northern Foundation Award for Excellence in Teaching in 1987 and the University of Alabama National Alumni Association Outstanding Commitment to Teaching Award in 1988. He teaches commercial transactions, consumer protection, business organizations and banking law.

He has served in numerous committees relating to athletics including: Ad Hoc Advisory Committee to Athletic Department (1985-86); UA Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics (1987-91); UA Advisory Committee for Athletes/Sports Agents (1987-88); Search Committee, Director of Academic Programs for Intercollegiate Athletics (1990); UA Academics and Athletics Committee (1995-96); and Rules Compliance Subcommittee of the NCAA Recertification Committee (1995-96). He has also chaired the University Committee on Admissions and Retention.

Marsh received a combined B.S. and M.S. degree summa cum laude from Ohio State University in 1978 and a J.D. from Washington and Lee University in 1981. He is married to Jenelle Marsh, assistant dean for student academic affairs at the UA School of Law.

He is the author of Season of Champions, a book about Alabama's national championship season of 1992 and was co-author with John Forney of Talk of the Tide.

His all-time favorite sports figures include Paul Bryant and Mickey Mantle, and his favorite works of literature include To Kill a Mockingbird and East of Eden.

taze FULFORD

Executive Assistant Director of Athletics for Finance

The department's chief financial officer, Taze Fulford enters his 16th year with the athletic department. He has been handling the Tide's business affairs since becoming business manager in 1981. He has served as business manager, ticket manager, assistant director of athletics and most recently was promoted to his present position. He has long been recognized for his business expertise and extensive background in the financial aspect of collegiate athletics. One of the hardest-working and most dedicated members of the Athletic Department, Fulford directs the preparation and implementation of all athletic department budgets.

Known formally as Charles Taze Fulford, he was an offensive guard at Alabama for two seasons (1965-66) and received his bachelor's degree in business in 1969. Following graduation, Fulford worked for Mercantile Stores, Inc., from 1970-73 before returning to the University where he worked in the purchasing department. In 1975 he left to become manager of the Alabama Supply Store and four years later left to join Champion Sporting Goods where he worked for two years. In 1981, he was hired by then Director of Athletics Paul Bryant, as ticket and business manager.

The Tide's former head swimming coach, Gambрил was the 1984 U.S. Olympic coach and he compiled a record of 253-32 in dual meet competition during his coaching career at Long Beach State, Harvard and Alabama. He came to Alabama in 1973. In 1980, he became the first head coach of the Alabama women's team and led that team to a 102-28 record in dual competition.

Gambрил earned his bachelor's degree from California State University in Los Angeles in 1958. He is married to the former Teddy Janaes and they have three children.

mal MOORE

Associate Director of Athletics for External Affairs

Moore made the switch from coaching to administration on January 15, 1994. He coordinates and supervises the athletic department's external operations.

Prior to his move to administration, Moore served 31 years in the coaching profession, including 22 years at Alabama. He rejoined the Alabama staff in 1990 where he served as Gene Stallings' assistant head coach and quarterback coach.

During his playing and coaching tenure at Alabama, the Tide went to 29 bowl games, won 13 SEC titles and seven national championships.

A 1962 graduate of Alabama with a degree in sociology, he also earned his master's degree in secondary education from Alabama. He spent one season, 1963, at Montana State before returning to Alabama as a graduate assistant in 1964. From 1965-70, he coached the Alabama secondary and from 1971-74 was the Tide quarterback coach before taking on the additional responsibilities of offensive coordinator from 1975-82. # Alabama Academics

Athletic success is easily measured by wins, broken records, and all-star recognition. All too often athletic recognition captures the spotlight, when actually the winners in the classroom are the true champions.

Alabama's success in academic areas is due largely in part to the work of the Center for Athletic Student Services (CASS). The dedicated professionals who staff CASS work year around to ensure that each student-athlete at Alabama receives a quality education and is ready for the work force upon graduation. The CASS staff is under the direction of Kevin Almond, the Director of Academic Programs for Intercollegiate Athletics. Assistant Academic Advisor Jon Dever serves as the contact for football and two newcomers, Cathy Elliott and Don Dawson, will watch over the academic progress of all other sports. Assistant Academic Advisor Brenda Elliott coordinates the CASS tutorial program. In addition, a staff of graduate assistants provide additional help with the academic needs of each student-athlete.

The CASS facilities are second to none, offering all student-athletes tutorial programs, areas in which to study, as well as computer access. Located in the Bryant Hall annex, CASS houses 33 individual study carrels, 15 tutoring rooms, a lecture room and three computer labs equipped with a variety of computer software. The facility also houses a Mac Lab, which offers state-of-the-art Macintosh computer equipment and laser printers accessible to all student-athletes.

The CASS staff provides services to all student-athletes including nightly study halls, tutorial programs on an individual or group basis and a student advisory board for team representatives to discuss ideas and developments that affect all student-athletes at Alabama.

Alabama's TIDE PRIDE donor program continues to be a vital link in the success of the University's athletic teams. Simply put, TIDE PRIDE enables the athletic department to field nationally competitive teams in 20 sports.

Through the gifts of TIDE PRIDE members, the athletic department continues its pursuit to fulfill the five principal goals of the program:

1. Provide athletic scholarships for all student-athletes;
2. Fund capital improvements for athletic facilities;
3. Retire present bonded indebtedness;
4. Support the University's "Million Dollar Band";
5. Endow all athletic scholarships.

"Due to the support for our donor program, TIDE PRIDE continues to be a major factor in providing athletic scholarships for our student-athletes," said Tommy Ford, Director of Athletic Development/TIDE PRIDE. "Our participants' love for the University is shown through their contributions, without which it would be hard for us to provide quality athletic programs year-in and year-out."

Ford enters his fourth year directing TIDE PRIDE after serving as the athletic department ticket manager from 1987-93. He is assisted by six staff members: Wayne Atcheson, Jewell Gaston, Dude Hennessey, Barbara Smith, Mary Turner and Brenda Vaughn.

Tide Pride

Although TIDE PRIDE was officially inaugurated for the 1988 football season, its conception came in 1986 when then athletic director and head football coach Ray Perkins concluded a donor program was necessary to offset ever-rising costs and the need for facility improvement. At that time, Alabama was one of the few major schools remaining which had not implemented a program for alumni, fans and friends of the department to contribute for priority seating.

Former Executive Athletic Director Jim Goostree and Executive Assistant Director of Athletics for Business Taze Fulford joined with Jay Sterling, University marketing professor, to set in motion the actual game plan to implement TIDE PRIDE.

The program had immediate success, raising approximately $6 million in 1988 and 1989, topping the $7 million mark in each of the four subsequent years (1990-93), and exceeding the $8 million mark in 1994 and 1996.

CHAPTER DEVELOPMENT

Across the nation, 100 alumni chapters and clubs support the Alumni Association and the University by hosting events, recruiting students and raising money for local scholarships. Chapter activities range from pregame pep rallies to dinner receptions for UA officials. To recruit students to the University, chapters host Junior Honors programs to recognize outstanding academic achievement, communicate with potential students and scholarship recipients and attend local college nights as University representatives. In 1995-96 fiscal year, 46 chapters donated a record $205,831 to chapter scholarship endowments, which the NAA matched at 62% from the proceeds of collegiate car tag sales. Through direct and endowed scholarships, 42 chapters awarded $107,235 to 114 students in 1995-96 academic year.

ALUMNI EVENTS

After hosting a successful 1995 Homecoming, Alumni Events sponsored Alabama Leadership Day, which honored more than 1,000 high school students, parents, and counselors statewide for their leadership and scholastic accomplishments. As part of Alumni Weekend 1996, the reunion groups of the Class of 1946 and the Golden Fifties Club celebrate their years since graduation. Also during the year, outstanding recipients were chosen for the Paul W. Bryant Alumni-Athlete Awards, Distinguished Alumni Awards, Alumni Student Awards, Alumni Outstanding Senior Awards and the outstanding Commitment to Teaching Awards. The Student Alumni Association was also very active this year. The SAA sponsored a Children's Tent at all home football games and continued the Capstone Casino fund-raiser to support the SAA Outstanding Leadership Scholarship.

ALUMNI

The alumni database currently maintains 237,786 biographical records representing 210,792 living alumni and friends. While records are maintained on a university mainframe computer, we are currently undergoing a conversion to a stand-alone system which will facilitate the in-house management of all alumni data. This move to "departmentalize" computer system functions has alumni staff extremely excited that we'll soon be in control of our own operation and direction to better serve university needs.

ALUMNI SCHOLARSHIPS

For the 1995-96 academic year, the National Alumni Association awarded $1.4 million in scholarship assistance to approximately 700 students at the undergraduate and graduate level.

ALUMNI FUND

Currently the Association has more than 33,400 active members, and we expect to end the 1995-96 year on June 30th nearly $2 million in unrestricted income. We are pleased with the successful growth of income received by the Crimson Pride MasterCard and University of Alabama VISA. The Alumni Fund is committed to meeting the financial needs of the Association and to expanding our support for The University of Alabama.

ALUMNI SERVICES

A wide variety of services and benefits are provided to active members of the National Alumni Association:

ALUMNI PUBLICATIONS

In 1995 the August-September of the Alabama Alumni Magazine was mailed not only to NAA members but to the more than 120,000 alumni in the records database. We plan to continue this to help broaden our alumni reach nationwide. The traditional mail-in survey will be replaced in 1996 by a professionally conducted telephone survey. These results should prove more reliable and valuable to our continued improvement of the publication.

The Alabama Sports Network

Again this season, Crimson Tide football fans will be able to all the game day action on The Alabama Sports Network (TASN). In addition to the 60-plus radio stations throughout the Southeast that will broadcast the complete Bama schedule, fans around the world will have the ability to access the live game-day audio via the Internet (www.tasn.com).

TASN, a division of Birmingham based Collegiate Sports Partners Limited, will again provide listeners with full game-day coverage with a broadcast crew that collectively has nearly 200 years of broadcast association with the University of Alabama. The veteran crew of Eli Gold (eight years), Doug Layton (28 years), Jerry Duncan (24 years), John Forney (41 years) and Tom Roberts (19 years) is complimented by engineer Tom Stipe (12 years), studio host David Crane (two years), studio producer/engineer John Gentile (three years), producer Missy Betres (seven years), executive producer Kirk Wood (seven years) and former state senator and producer emeritus Bert Bank.

The Alabama Sports Network begins its game-day coverage with TideTalk Today two-and-a-half hours before kickoff. Bama fans can join the show by phone by calling 1-800-676-TIDE and talk with hosts John Forney and Tom Roberts.

One hour prior to kickoff, studio host David Crane brings fans up to date with comments from coaches and players about the other games around the Southeastern Conference.

Just 30 minutes prior to kickoff, Gene Stallings joins Eli Gold for a scouting report on the day's game. He'll let Bama fans know the very latest on the Tide's preparations, any injuries and the day's opponent.

Following every Bama game, Layton heads to the Tide locker room for a postgame interview with Coach Stallings. The game-day coverage ends with a full statistical wrap-up and scores from other games.

Throughout every game, Bama fans get the latest scores from the TSN studio where the broadcast is produced and distributed to affiliate stations over the Alabama Digital Staellite Network.

Alabama opened the 1995 football season in Nashville, facing the Vanderbilt Commodores under new head coach Rod Dowhower. Alabama was unbeaten in Nashville since 1969, when the 'Dores broke an eight-game regular season Alabama win streak.

Vanderbilt stunned Alabama on the second play of the game as Jermaine Johnson sprinted 75 yards for a touchdown, and the Commodores jumped to a 7-0 in the first 23 seconds of the game.

For the eighth consecutive year, Alabama scored on its first possession. Tide quarterback Brian Burgdorf capped off a 14-play, 70-yard touchdown drive, calling his own number on a four-yard run through the heart of the 'Dores defense. Michael Proctor tied the game 7-7.

Just as Vanderbilt began the first quarter with a big play, Alabama made one of its own in the second. Tide strong safety Andre Short set the table for the Alabama offense as he intercepted a Ronnie Gordon pass and returned the ball to the Vandy 11. The Tide could not convert on fourth and one and the 'Dores took over on their own 2-yard line.

A 26-yard drive put Bama within field goal range, and Michael Proctor's 38-yard attempt split the uprights to give Alabama a 10-7 lead. While Vanderbilt's offense stalled on the next two possessions, the defense victimized Burgdorf twice in succession, intercepting two errant passes and returning the second for 45 yards. Backed up on its 12-yard line, the Bama defense knocked the Commodores back 15 yards and forced a 43-yard field goal to tie the game 10-10.

Alabama took possession to begin the second half but continued to be careless with the football. After Shawn Stuckey intercepted a Burgdorf pass, the 'Dores opened up shop on the Alabama seven. The Crimson Tide defense stiffened once again, holding Vandy to a 29-yard field goal by Jenner, and Vanderbilt led 13-10.

Neither team threatened offensively again until Vanderbilt took possession with 3:57 left in the third quarter. The 'Dores moved the ball 31 yards in six plays for an eight-yard touchdown pass from Damian Allen to Fred Baker. The extra point was blocked by Shannon Brown and Vandy took a 19-10 lead into the fourth quarter.

Alabama opened its first possession of the final quarter with a nine-yard reception by Curtis Brown, followed by successive personal foul and offsides penalties that moved the Tide to the Vandy 43. On second down Toderick Malone snagged a Burgdorf pass for 39 yards and advanced to the Vanderbilt one yard line. A Burgdorf keeper was thwarted, but on second and goal Dennis Riddle lept over the top for the Tide score. Proctor's PAT cut the Vandy lead to two, 19-17.

Turovers continued to plague both teams as Bama's recovery of a Johnson fumble led to a Proctor 32-yard field goal, giving Alabama a 20-19 lead. On Alabama's next possession, Riddle fumbled and Eric Vance recovered for a Vanderbilt TD. Vandy's two-point conversion failed, and Alabama remained within a touchdown, 25-20.

Alabama scored on its next possession as Burgdorf found Malone with a four-yard pitch-and-catch. A two-point conversion attempt failed and Bama again led by one, 26-25. Brad Ford intercepted Allen and scored on a 46-yard return and Proctor's point-after gave Alabama a 33-25 victory.

GAME NOTES

- Twelve first-time players saw action against Vandy, including four true freshmen.
- Brad Ford intercepted two passes against Vanderbilt. With Alabama holding a slim 26-25 lead, Ford picked off a Vanderbilt pass on third and two and returned the ball 46 yards for a TD.
- Alabama threw four interceptions, the most since the 1993 LSU game in which five were thrown.
- Alabama also intercepted five against Vandy, the most since Kent Austin threw five in a 40-0 loss for Ole Miss in 1983.
- Shannon Brown blocked a Vanderbilt extra point. The second in his career against Vanderbilt.
- The win was Alabama's eighth come-from-behind win in its last 13 victories.

Game two of the season brought the Golden Eagles of Southern Mississippi to Legion Field. A sellout crowd was looking for a decisive win over this non-conference foe but again Bama began slowly.

Southern Miss won the coin toss and deferred to the second half, but Alabama could not generate offense beyond its own 28-yard line. Southern Miss, like Vanderbilt, surprised the Tide early, marching 61 yards on their opening possession for a touchdown. Heath Graham completed a 28-yard pass to Eric Booth and Chris Pierce converted the extra point to put Southern Miss ahead 7-0.

Alabama continued to struggle offensively early in the game, and USM took advantage. Graham completed a key third-down pass to Fred Brock for 15 yards, followed by two more third-down conversions before the Alabama defense stiffened at its own 12. Eagle kicker Chris Pierce converted a 30-yard field goal and Bama trailed 10-0.

With 10:50 remaining in the second quarter, Brian Burgdorf found Tony Johnson for 19 yards and only the second Alabama first down in the game. The Tide advanced to the Golden Eagle 27, where Michael Proctor converted a 45-yard field goal to cut the USM lead to 10-3.

Southern Miss would answer the Tide, however, as Graham completed a 4-yard pass to Brock, then Graham broke away from the Bama defense for 22 yards and a first down. The remainder of the USM drive belonged to Booth, rushing 11 yards to set up a 30-yard touchdown jaunt, and the Golden Eagles led Bama by 14.

Alabama owned the third quarter by increasing offensive and defensive intensity. The Eagle defense allowed Riddle no room, so Burgdorf directed the Tide offense elsewhere. Toderick Malone caught a Burgdorf pass for 34 yards, followed by a 12-yard Burgdorf scramble. Riddle carried twice for three yards before Curtis Brown snagged a nine-yard Burgdorf pass for an Alabama touchdown. After Proctor's extra point the Southern Miss lead was only seven.

Before the quarter ended Alabama struck again. A six play, 80-yard drive culminated in one of the luckiest plays of the season. From the Southern Miss 27, Burgdorf lofted a pass deep into the end zone, intended for Marcell West. The ball however, slipped through West's hands, ricocheted off his helmet and bounced directly behind him to Brown. Proctor's PAT tied the score at 17.

Southern Miss would answer at the 7:34 mark in the final quarter. The Golden Eagles moved the ball within field goal range after a 50-yard drive, and Pierce's 35-yard attempt was true to give Southern Miss another lead, 20-17.

Alabama then took possession with 2:50 left in the game as Burgdorf completed passes to Brown, West and Malone on a drive in which Alabama converted two fourth-and-long situations. With 52 seconds left in the game, a USM time-out presented one final chance for strategy. Forced to down the ball on second down, Alabama had two chances from the USM 29. On third and ten, USM sacked Burgdorf for a six-yard loss, setting up the second fourth-down of the drive and the final play of the game. On fourth-and-16 from the Southern Miss 35, Malone lept high for the Burgdorf pass, cradling the game-winner as he fell into the end zone with only 17 seconds left. Bama escaped again, Alabama 24, Southern Miss 20.

GAME NOTES

- In the first two wins of the season, Alabama converted a fourth down play into the game-winning touchdown. Brian Burgdorf and Toderick Malone were involved with both. In the eight-point win over Vanderbilt, Burgdorf completed a four-yard pass to Malone and against Southern Miss, Malone caught a 35-yard pass from Burgdorf.
- Split end Curtis Brown hauled in six catches against the Golden Eagles, giving him 73 career receptions at Alabama.
- Toderick Malone's five catches for 131 yards was the second-best day of his Alabama career.

The Arkansas Razorbacks traveled to Tuscaloosa to take on the Tide at Bryant-Denny Stadium in front of a sellout crowd of 70,123. Last year's battle ended in a 13-6 victory for Alabama but this time the Tide wouldn't be so lucky.

Arkansas began the game with possession on its own 36-yard line. Runs by Madre Hill and Barry Lunney completions to J.J. Meadors, Anthony Lucas and Al Herringer moved the Hogs to the Alabama 11 before the Tide defense stiffened. Arkansas placekicker Todd Latourette's 27-yard field goal split the uprights, and the Hogs led 3-0.

Alabama began its first possession in traditional form. Dennis Riddle rushed twice for 13 yards and a first down. A third-and-ten completion from Brian Burgdorf to Toderick Malone was good for 20 yards and a Bama first down. Marcell West moved the ball eight yards and then Riddle ran at left tackle for four yards and another first down. However, the drive stalled and Michael Proctor converted on a 43-yard field goal to tie the score with 4:54 left in the first quarter.

Arkansas answered with an 80-yard drive to forge ahead of the Tide 10-3.

Alabama tied the score at the 5:18 mark of the second quarter as Riddle plunged in from one yard out.

Just before the end of the first half the Tide struck again. Burgdorf completed a one-yard pass to Malone, then kept the ball on the next play for 14 yards and a first down. Rod Rutledge caught his first career reception for eight yards to put the Tide on the Razorback 45, followed by a five-yard Curtis Alexander rush and a first down. After an incomplete pass, Burgdorf connected with Curtis Brown for a 40-yard touchdown. At the end of the first half, Alabama led 17-10.

At the 9:55 mark in the third quarter, Arkansas took possession of the ball on its own one yard line. The Tide defense stiffened, and John Walters downed Madre Hill in the endzone for the safety to put Alabama up by nine.

On Alabama's next possession, Mark Smith intercepted a Burgdorf pass and returned it 48 yards before Riddle dragged him down at the Alabama eight yard line. Defensive end Darrell Blackburn sacked Lunney for a 12-yard loss, but a facemask call against Alabama put the ball on the Alabama four yard line. Arkansas got no closer and Latourette's 21-yard field goal cut the Alabama margin to six.

The majority of the fourth quarter was played to a stalemate until Arkansas' final possession. Lunney's first down pass fell incomplete and on second and 10 Blackburn and Shannon Brown sacked Lunney for a loss of 15. From the Arkansas 30, Lunney dumped a short pass to Hill who rambled for a 15-yard gain. Arkansas stung the Tide defense for 31 yards on fourth down with a Lunney completion to Lucas. On the next play an illegal procedure penalty against Arkansas moved the ball back to the Alabama 29, but the Tide remained on its heels. On first-and-15 Hill found room for a 10-yard carry, followed by a 15-yard reception by Meadors. Alabama denied the Razorbacks three times from its own three, as on third down Lunney's pass to Eubanks was broken up. On fourth and goal with only six seconds remaining, Meadors scooped Lunney's pass off the Bryant-Denny turf, and the Arkansas touchdown tied the game at 19. Latourette's PAT gave Arkansas the lead and the win 20-19.

STAT OF THE GAME

This was Arkansas' first-ever win over Alabama. The Razorbacks had not beaten the Crimson Tide in five previous meetings.

In addition, Arkansas' 20 points are the most ever scored by the Hogs against the Tide. The previous high was 11 points in a 38-11 loss at Little Rock in 1992. It was also Alabama's first loss at Bryant-Denny Stadium since the 1993 loss to LSU.

GAME NOTES

- John Walter's third quarter safety marked the first time since 1991 that UA had registered a safety. Andre Royal notched a safety in the win over Tennessee-Chattanooga.

- Michael Proctor has converted 107 extra point attempts in a row. He has not missed a PAT since the opening game (Vanderbilt) of his freshmen season (1992).

- Brian Steger's 30-yard run in the second quarter is the longest from scrimmage this season by an Alabama running back.

- Tight end Rod Rutledge hauled in his first career reception. Rutledge had an eight-yard reception in the second quarter.

- Hayden Stockton's 60-yard punt is a career high.

- Shannon Brown recorded a career high 10 tackles.

It was a glorious Saturday afternoon in Athens as the Crimson Tide once again found itself between the legendary hedges in the Bulldogs' Sanford Stadium.

Sloppy play characterized both teams early on, as Alabama's punt returner Michael Feagin fumbled the opening kickoff. Bama recovered but found no success on its first series and Georgia owned the ball on the Bama 30.

On UGSA's first possession QB Hines Ward fumbled the ball away to Alabama. A 66-yard drive got the Tide within field goal range, and senior placekicker Michael Proctor stuck a 21-yard field goal to put the Crimson Tide on the board 3-0.

The Alabama defense victimized the Bulldogs all afternoon. On the second play of Georgia's next drive, Ward was intercepted by safety Kevin Jackson, and Alabama set up shop at the Georgia 38. Again the Tide offense was sluggish, gaining only two yards. Neither team could score on their next possessions and the first quarter ended with Bama ahead 3-0.

At the 8:59 mark in the second quarter, another miscue would cost the Dogs. Tide defensive back Cedric Samuel scooped up a second Ward fumble, the Dogs' third turnover of the half, and returned it 25 yards for a touchdown. Proctor's PAT pushed the Tide lead to 10-0.

On Georgia's next drive, new quarterback Brian Smith sparked the Bulldog offense. Smith led the Georgia offense to within field goal range, but placekicker Kanon Parkman's 27-yard attempt was swatted into the air by Shannon Brown. Alabama DB Deshea Townsend caught the ball and carried it 90 yards for another defensive touchdown. The extra point put Alabama up 17-0.

On Georgia's first possession of the second half, the Bulldogs marched to the Alabama one-yard line. Again the Bama defense stiffened. On fourth-and-goal Torin Kirtsey was denied a touchdown by Deshea Townsend and John Walters. The remainder of the quarter was played to a stalemate.

The Alabama defense continued to stall an ineffective Bulldog offense, blowing the game wide open after creating three second-half turnovers.

Alabama failed to convert on Jackson's second interception of the game, but followed shortly thereafter with a fumble recovery by Eric Kerley at the Georgia 12. The Alabama offense, behind Dennis Riddle's touchdown, accounted for its 10th point of the game and the Tide led 24-0.

With 1:58 left in the game Jackson intercepted his third pass of the day and returned it 26 yards for the third Alabama defensive touchdown. Proctor's extra point was good and Alabama whipped the Bulldogs, 31-0.

The 31-0 victory was the first shutout by the Tide since a 40-0 win over Southern Mississippi during the 1993 season and was the first ever shutout by the Tide in Athens.

time to ever keep Georgia from scoring on their home field. Alabama shutout the Bulldogs in Atlanta in 1906.

- Alabama's 16 penalties set a school record. The previous high, 13, has occurred three times.

- Brad Ford equalled his career high with six tackles against Georgia. It was the second time Ford recorded six tackles this season. The other came in the season opener against Vanderbilt.

-Cedric Samuel recorded his first career TD on a second quarter fumble return.

-Walk-on Anthony Dowdell recorded his first career tackle, sack and caused fumble. In the fourth quarter, with the Tide up 17-0, Dowdell sacked UGA quarterback Brian Smith for a three yard loss. The ball popped loose and was recovered by Eric Kerley.

The Alabama Crimson Tide and the Wolfpack of N.C. State met at Bryant-Denny Stadium for the Tide's Homecoming. The Crimson Tide's victory over N.C. State was a welcomed end to a hectic Homecoming week of festivities which included damaging effects from Hurricane Opal.

On the Tide's first offensive series they drove the ball 74 yards in 14 plays as Michael Proctor kicked a 21-yard field goal.

During the next possession quarterback Brian Burgdorf completed a first-down pass to Chad Key, then dumped a pass to Ed Scissum who went 41 yards to give Alabama a 10-0 lead. The Tide mustered another Proctor field goal in the second quarter, sending both teams to the locker room with a 13-0 Bama lead.

N.C. State's Torry Holt returned the opening kick of the second half 13 yards, putting the Wolfpack on its own 26-yard line. State mounted its first real offensive threat of the game, moving 51 yards for a 31-yard field goal by Wolfpack placekicker Marc Primanti.

Montoya Madden's 16-yard kickoff return set Alabama up on its own 35, however, after only three plays Stockton was forced to punt. With 9:27 left in the third quarter State maneuvered into field goal range again, but this time Primanti's 44-yard attempt fell short.

With 4:31 left in the third quarter, Dennis Riddle gained four yards to begin the next Alabama possession. On third and six a shuffle pass to Riddle only gained five yards, but Bama benefitted from a face-mask call, moving the ball ahead five yards for a first down. Utilizing Riddle almost exclusively, Bama mounted its first scoring threat of the second half. On a drive that covered 73 yards, Riddle touched the ball eight times for 54 yards, including an 11-yard touchdown reception. After Proctor's PAT, the Tide led the Wolfpack 20-3.

A mistake would cost the Wolfpack almost immediately, as Alvin Whitted's 24-yard return would be nullified by a fumble. The Tide's Fernando Davis recovered the fumble, giving Alabama possession on the State 29-yard line with :58 remaining in the third quarter.

With 13:50 left in the game Riddle struck again for his second touchdown of the game, this time from six yards out. Proctor's PAT put Alabama up 27-3.

On N.C. State's next possession, Alabama's Kelvin Moore and Cedric Samuel combined for three sacks of Wolfpack quarterback Terry Harvey, forcing Jay Dukes to punt.

N.C. State freshman quarterback Jose Laureano entered the game on the Pack's next possession and completed a 46-yard pass to Holt for a first down, which led to an 18-yard touchdown pass to Mike Guffie with 5:34 left in the game. Laureano connected with Jeff Butler for the 2-point conversion, bringing the score to 27-11.

"Sometimes it's just hard to get comfortable out there," Alabama Head Coach Stallings said after the game. "I was never comfortable in that game until right to the last. We carried the ball down the field, moved it fairly well offensively. We came away with just a field goal a couple of times. There's a big difference between six points and 14 points."

Football fans broke with tradition this season, as the fabled "Third Saturday in October" was actually played one week earlier. The Vols vented nearly a decade of frustration on the Tide, whipping Alabama 41-14 before a sellout crowd in Birmingham's Legion Field.

Tennessee set the tone early as Joey Kent raced 80 yards with a strike from Peyton Manning and in 14 seconds Alabama trailed 7-0.

A stunned Tide team managed nothing on its first offensive possession, and Tennessee exhibited another dimension of its powerful attack. The next Volunteer drive spanned 11 plays and culminated in another touchdown. This time Manning hit Marcus Nash for a 25-yard reception, and with 7:42 remaining in the first quarter, Tennessee led 14-0.

Things got no better for the Tide, as Alabama quarterback Brian Burgdorf fumbled on the third play of the Tide's next possession. Tennessee's Bill Duff recovered the ball, and the Vols set up shop on the Alabama 24-yard line.

Manning himself led the Vols into the end zone for the third Tennessee score, ambling in from a yard away. After Hall added the PAT, Tennessee led 21-0 with 5:04 left in the first quarter.

The only highlight for the Tide in the first quarter was a fumble caused and recovered by Dwayne Rudd and Alabama would see little improvement in the second quarter. Backup quarterback Freddie Kitchens fumbled on the first play of the quarter, losing the ball to Tennessee's Shane Burton at the UT 14. A rare offensive stall led to a Tennessee punt, and Bama finally put a drive together.

The Tide took over at its own 30-yard line and moved 70 yards in 15 plays to cut the lead on a two-yard touchdown pass from Kitchens to Chad Key. Michael Proctor's extra point with 6:43 left in the first half brought Alabama to within two touchdowns.

However, the clock didn't expire quickly enough for Alabama as Tennessee needed only 2:18 to cover 72 yards. Manning found Nash again, this time for a 30-yard touchdown. Hall's kick was good, and Tennessee led 28-7 at the half.

Alabama scored its second and final touchdown on the second possession of the third quarter, cutting the lead to 28-14. The score, however, would do nothing to dispel the Vols' attack. Tennessee scored on another one-play drive as Jay Graham scooted 75-yards in 21 seconds to pad the UT lead, 35-14.

Tennessee added two field goals in the fourth while Alabama mounted no other scoring threats, and after nine years Tennessee defeated Alabama, 41-14.

Tennessee's Peyton Manning finished the day with 301 yards passing, the fourth time during the 1995 season that he would pass for more than 300 yards.

STAT OF THE GAME

Alabama quarterback Freddie Kitchens tied Gary Hollingsworth for single-game attempts with 43. Gary Hollingsworth attempted 43 passes against Ole Miss as well as Penn State in 1989. Kitchens completed 20 of the 43 attempted passes for 204 yards against Tennessee.

GAME NOTES

- Alabama split end Chad Key scored his first career touchdown in the regular season. Key's only other touchdown was in the 1993 Gator Bowl against North Carolina.

- Redshirt freshman Montoya Madden's third quarter touchdown against Tennessee was the first touchdown of his career.

- Tennessee's 41 points is only the 14th time that the Tide has surrendered more than 40 points in one game. The last time a team scored more than 40 points against Alabama was the 1983 season, also against Tennessee.

- Tennessee's 41 points equals the largest amount they have ever scored against the Tide. They also scored 41 points against Alabama in 1983 and 1969.

- Tennessee tied its largest margin of victory against Alabama with 27 points.

Oct. 14,

The 43rd meeting between Alabama and Ole Miss turned out much better for the Tide than the previous week against Tennessee.

The first play of the game was a shared sack by Darrell Blackburn and Kendrick Burton for a loss of 12 yards. Two plays later, Dwayne Rudd sacked Ole Miss quarterback Josh Nelson and forced a fumble that rolled into the endzone and was pushed out by an Ole Miss lineman for a safety. This play set the tempo for the rest of the game.

Ole Miss looked to have things going in the right direction after moving the ball down to the Alabama 41-yard line when Nelson threw an interception to Ralph Staten who raced 61 yards for an Alabama score.

With 4:49 remaining in the quarter, Nelson lead UM down to the Alabama 23 for a 40-yard field goal attempt by Tim Montz. The kick sailed wide left and the first quarter ended with Alabama leading Mississippi 9-0.

Alabama and Ole Miss exchanged punts before the Tide could put together a scoring drive. Tide quarterback Brian Burgdorf lead the offense 94-yards before Brian Steger could finish off the drive with a four-yard touchdown run.

Nelson got good field position from a 45-yard kickoff return by Mark Smith. Nelson took advantage of the return and set up an Ole Miss 46-yard field goal attempt. Fortunately for the Tide, the kick missed wide right. The Tide went into the locker room ahead 16-0.

The third quarter did not show much offense from Ole Miss or Alabama with the exception of UM's first drive which yielded a 38-yard field goal by Montz.

Alabama was able to score with 5:04 left in the final quarter when Burgdorf hit Toderick Malone on a 20-yard reception. This score was answered when UM backup quarterback Paul Head lead the Rebels 80-yards in seven plays. Runningback Dou Innocent finished off the drive with a five-yard touchdown run. The two-point attempt failed and the score stood at 23-9.

With 3:30 remaining the Rebels unsuccessfully tried the onside kick which was recovered by a leaping Calvin Hall.

Ole Miss would stage one last attack at the 2:21 mark, however, Alabama defensive back Kevin Jackson stepped in front of a Head pass and returned it 12-yards, thus sealing the fate of the Rebels.

GAME NOTES

-The Tide defense scored nine points against the Rebels, two when Dwayne Rudd forced the Ole Miss quarterback to fumble out of the endzone and then when Ralph Staten returned an interception 61-yards for a touchdown.

Oct. 21,
1995

Staten's 61-yard interception return for a touchdown gives the Tide three returns for touchdowns this year, tying the single-season record held by the 1991 and 1992 teams.

-When Curtis

Brown caught three passes for 30 yards, it moved the senior into sixth place on the career reception list (90) and seventh in the career yardage list (1,350). Fellow senior Toderick Malone had four receptions for 73 yards and one TD to move him into the No. 12 spot in career yardage (1,165).

-The four points scored by Michael Proctor on extra points gives him 119 consecutive extra points, the third-best mark in SEC history.

With the Alabama faithful expecting a blowout, the North Texas Eagles came to Tuscaloosa seemingly oblivious to their 1-7 record.

In the first quarter the visiting team held the nationally-ranked Tide to only 13 yards of offense and two first downs. Luckily for Alabama its defense was playing just as well, as North Texas only managed nine yards on 15 plays.

Two minutes and forty-seven seconds into the second quarter Eagles quarterback Jason Mills broke the scoreless gridlock as he called his own number off the right side. the PAT put N. Texas ahead 7-0.

The Tide failed to answer on its next possession as runningback Brian Steger fumbled the ball away at the N. Texas nine-yard line. However, 1:18 into North Texas's ensuing drive Tide defensive back Cedric Samuel picked off Josh Gulley's pass and returned it 15 yards for a touchdown.

This marked Alabama's fourth interception return for a touchdown of the season, (the others were recorded by Ralph Staten, Brad Ford and Kevin Jackson) setting Alabama's all-time record. The previous record was three, set in 1991 and 1992.

Samuel's touchdown was also the sixth touchdown of the season scored by the Alabama defense- the most under head coach Gene Stallings.

With 58 seconds left in the first half, the Tide's offensive unit, led by back-up quarterback Freddie Kitchens, placed All-American candidate Michael Proctor within field goal range. As expected, Proctor punched it through from 31 yards giving Alabama a 10 - 7 halftime lead.

Alabama dominated on both sides of the ball in the second half. The offense showed signs of brilliance as Ed Scissum bolted seven yards through the North Texas defense for his first career touchdown and the Tide's second touchdown of the game.

On the ensuing possession, quarterback Brian Burgdorf found Toderick Malone open over the middle for a 50-yard touchdown pass, and in 82 seconds Alabama had increased its lead to 24-7. But the Eagles answered as Brian Waters hauled in a three yard pass from Gulley. Senior Kendrick Burton blocked the extra point attempt and the score stood at 24-13.

With 9:02 left in the game, Kitchens, who took the majority of the snaps in the second half, found senior receiver Chad Key open in the endzone to cap off a seven-play, 55-yard drive.

Two minutes and fifty-five seconds later, sophomore tailback Dennis Riddle slid through a gap from four yards out, giving Alabama its final score of the afternoon.

Still fighting, North Texas managed to put together a final drive as Troy Redwine was forgotten in the Alabama secondary and caught a 63 yard touchdown pass from Mills. The Eagles failed on a two point conversion try.

With the 38-19 victory, the Tide defense allowed North Texas only 14 yards rushing while the offense gained a season high 219 yard on the ground with strong efforts from Riddle and Steger.

STAT OF THE GAME

Junior free safety Cedric Samuel recorded his second career interception against North Texas. The 15-yard touchdown return is the fourth interception return for the Tide in 1995, and the sixth TD scored by the defensive unit. It is a school record, bettering the previous record of three set in 1991 and 1992. In addition, the Alabama defense recorded two safeties and has tallied 40 points in eight games.

GAME NOTES

- The 38 points by Alabama are the most this season.

- Alabama has won 19-consecutive non-conference games dating back to a January 1, 1991 loss to Louisville at the Fiesta Bowl.

- Michael Proctor converted all five extra point attempts, extending his streak to 124 in a row.

- Curtis Brown had five catches for 53 yards. He now has 95 career receptions for 1,403 yards. That moves him to the sixth spot on the all-time receiving list and fifth on the yardage list.

- Alabama rushed for a season-high 219 yards against North Texas. In addition, Alabama limited the Eagles to only 14 yards rushing.

Bryant -
Denny

Tuscaloosa,
Ala.

The last time the LSU Tigers visited Bryant-Denny Stadium in 1993, they ended the Tide's 31 game unbeaten streak. But the Tide was determined to put an end to LSU's success in Tuscaloosa. The running game of Alabama came alive, although this proved to be a defensive struggle for both the Tigers and the Tide.

After a week of quarterback controversy, senior Brian Burgdorf started for the Tide. However, Freddie Kitchens checked into the game to surpass Burgdorf in passing yardage with a total of 93 yards.

The two teams were scoreless through the first quarter, but in the second quarter LSU scored on a 20-yard field goal by Andre Lafleur putting the Tigers ahead 3-0.

Kevin Jackson intercepted a Jamie Howard pass to give Alabama possession with 5:20 remaining in the half. With 53 seconds left, Michael Proctor kicked a 20-yard field goal evening the score at 3-3 going into the half.

LSU opened the second half receiving the ball, but the Alabama defense forced the Tigers to punt on its next possession. Alabama moved the ball into LSU territory, but Proctor failed to score on a 37-yard field goal attempt.

Taking over at his own 20-yard line, Howard ended a 66-yard Tiger drive with a fumbled snap, and Alabama's Dwayne Rudd scooped it and returned it 48-yards to the LSU 20-yard line.

After six plays, a holding penalty and a sack, Proctor missed a 38-yard field goal wide right. The Tide and the Tigers went into the fourth quarter still tied with at 3-3.

With a little less than two minutes gone off the clock in the fourth quarter, Alabama's Deshea Townsend intercepted a Howard pass intended for Sheddric Wilson and returned it 17 yards. Townsend's interception marked the 16th interception by the Tide defense in the 1995.

Six plays and 21 yards later, Dennis Riddle, who had a career day with 174 yards on 33 carries, scored a touchdown for the Tide, putting Alabama ahead 10-3.

Alabama's defense was able to hold off all scoring threats made by LSU held on to the victory, defeating the Tigers, 10-3.

STAT OF THE GAME

Michael Proctor moved ahead of Van Tiffin on the all-time scoring list at Alabama. The four points Proctor tallied in the win over LSU gave him 315 career points. This was also the first time he has missed two field goals in the same game since the 1993 Alabama-Tennessee game.

GAME NOTES

Nov. 4,
1995

Bryant -
Denny

Tuscaloosa,
Ala.

- In the last 26 meetings between these two teams, the home team has won only seven times, all by Alabama. This was the first win at Bryant-Denny Stadium since 1990 and only the second time the two have met in Tuscaloosa since Gene Stallings' arrival. LSU served as the home team in 1991, 1992 and 1994.

- The three points are the fewest scored by LSU against Alabama since 1990 when the Tide held the Tigers to a field goal in a 24-3 victory.

- Kevin Jackson intercepted a Jamie Howard pass in the second quarter, which led to the tying field goal at intermission. It was Jackson's fifth pick off this season.

- Deshea Townsend returned a fourth quarter pick 17-yards, which set up the Tide's only touchdown of the game.

- Dennis Riddle rushed for a career high 174 yards and notched his seventh career rushing TD against LSU.

- Dwayne Rudd recorded 10 tackles, one sack and returned a fumble 47 yards. The fumble return was the first of his career, and his fourth career fumble recovery.

Sloppy field conditions and cold temperatures kept the score low in Tuscaloosa, as Mississippi State looked to avenge Alabama's 1994 come-from-behind win at the hands of Jay Barker.

On the game's opening possession Dennis Riddle ran for five yards, followed by a 23-yard scramble by quarterback Freddie Kitchens. The drive continued to the Bulldog two-yard line before an uncharacteristic Michael Proctor miss from 22 yards out left the game scoreless.

Mississippi State's first possession led to a punt, as did Alabama's next drive. However, a high snap scooted past Alabama's Hayden Stockton and into the end zone for a Miss. St. safety.

State scored on its first drive in the second quarter as Derrick Taite found Eric Moulds for a four-yard touchdown. Brian Hazelwood added the extra point, and Mississippi State led 9-0 with 12:54 left in the second quarter.

The Tide followed with a drive that extended to the Bulldog 18. From there Proctor's 35-yard attempt sailed left, bouncing off the left upright and Alabama again was thwarted.

Alabama again worked its way into scoring territory on its next possession, finally breaking into the end zone as Riddle scored on a four-yard scamper. Proctor added the extra point and the Tide trailed 9-7.

On State's next drive cornerback Deshea Townsend intercepted the ball at the Bulldog 41 and returned it 22 yards.

Starting at the MSU 19-yard line, the Tide drove to the 10 in the final minute of the half. But, once again Proctor's 27-yard attempt again sailed wide left.

Alabama wrapped up the scoring on its first possession of the second half. Riddle scored his second touchdown of the game, capping off a 14-play, 63-yard drive with a two-yard touchdown run. Proctor's PAT made the score 14-9 and neither team threatened again until late in the game. The Tide turned the ball over on downs at the Miss. St. nine-yard line with 1:28 to go in the game.

On the first play of State's final possession, Taite was sacked by Alabama's Elverett Brown for a loss of five yards. After being given five yards for an offside penalty against Alabama, Mississippi State was penalized for illegal procedures and moved back to the 4-yard line. After a Mississippi State timeout, Taite's fourth down pass was intercepted by Deshea Townsend, and Alabama defeated Mississippi State for the 15th consecutive season.

STAT OF THE GAME

Dennis Riddle's 38 rushing attempts puts him in second place for the most attempts by an Alabama running back. Riddle carried the ball 38 times for 181 yards against Miss. State. He was only four short of breaking Johnny Musso's record. Musso rushed 42 times for 221 yards in 1970 vs. Auburn.

GAME NOTES

- Riddle's 181 rushing yards vs. Miss. State put him over 1,000 yards for his career. In 22 games, Riddle carried the ball 253 times for 1,026 yards.

- With two failed field goal attempts against LSU and three failed attempts against Miss. State, Proctor missed five in a row for the first time in his career.

- Alabama held Miss. State to only 135 yards total offense on 94 yards rushing and 41 yards passing. The last time the Tide held an opponent under 200 yards was in 1994 against UT-Chattanooga, who had only 179 yards of total offense.

- The game against Miss. State was the first time Alabama had given up a safety since the 1993 game against Auburn.

- Alabama's game against Miss. State was the fourth time in the season that the Tide had held an opponent under 100 yards rushing. Alabama also held Ole Miss, Arkansas, and North Texas under 100 yards.

Nov. 11,

Bryant-
Denny

Tuscaloosa,
Ala.

Alabama rolled into Jordan-Hare Stadium with a mission: to defeat Auburn on its home field for the first time. The Tide had previously attempted this feat twice and failed both times.

The first possession for both teams resulted in punts, however, with 10:20 remaining in the opening quarter Auburn recovered a Dennis Riddle fumble on its own 27 yard line. The Tigers were looking to cash in on the Tide turnover.

The Tigers would do so in one minute and 10 seconds as they covered 73 yards in only five plays, the final play being a 29-yard touchdown strike from Patrick Nix to Stephen Davis.

Alabama wouldn't allowed the home-standing Tigers to keep the lead long.

Marcell West returned Kevin Gentle's kickoff 44 yards to the Alabama 44, and from there wide receiver Toderick Malone needed only two plays to hit paydirt.

On the first play, Freddie Kitchens hit Malone on the far side for four yards. On second and six Kitchens hit the Attalla native for the remaining 52 yards and Michael Proctor added the PAT to tie the score at seven.

The cross-state rivals would exchange touchdowns again on their ensuing possessions.

Auburn put together a nine play, 67-yard drive, and Alabama scored in less than a minute for the second straight time as Malone's number was called once again. This time he took a toss from Kitchens around left end for 59 yards.

The teams would go the remaining 3:38 scoreless, and the quarter closed 14-14.

With only 18 seconds gone from the second quarter, Auburn's offense struck again. On third down and one yard to go fullback Fred Beasley went five yards for a first down. Facing another third down play, Nix hit wide receiver Erick Lowe at the Bama 17 for a 30 yard gain. From there Nix spotted tight end Andy Fuller who rambled in to put Auburn ahead 21-14.

A 27-yard field goal by Matt Hawkins with 2:04 left in the second quarter would send the score to 24-14 as the teams headed into the locker room.

The Tide defense held the Tigers scoreless in the third quarter. Meanwhile, the offense was able to chew away at the 10 point deficit.

After Proctor converted a 20-yard field goal to pull the Tide to within a touchdown, the defense forced another Hawkins punt. Kitchens and company then took the field with 4:15 to go in the third to even the score.

During the 10 play, 65-yard drive, Kitchens scrambled twice for first downs. He then completed a pass to Malone for 16 yards which brought the Tide to the Auburn 11. After Riddle carried the ball to the two yard line, Kitchens went in from there with 1:02 remaining in the third quarter.

With the defense doing its job again, Alabama regained possession just as play headed into the final 15 minutes.

On second and 12, Kitchens hit tight end Patrick Hape for 20 yards. After another completion to Curtis Brown and a 13 yard carry by Riddle, Alabama was on the Auburn 16. However, Auburn's Jason Miska stopped Riddle for a six yard loss on third and seven and Proctor was called on to attempt a 36-yard field goal. The kick was good and Alabama had scored 13 unanswered points to take a 27-24 lead. But the home team would end its scoring drought and take the lead on its next possession. In a one minute and 58 second drive, the Tigers went 61 yards in five plays as Beasley broke through the line for 22 yards. Hawkins' PAT made the score 31-27 with 10:18 to play.

With 3:14 remaining, Alabama vaulted one final threat at the Tigers.

From its own 31 yard line, Alabama drove to the Auburn 22. From there, the Tide had four chances to win the game with less than a minute on the clock. Kitchens' four attempts into the south endzone were unsuccessful and Auburn let the final two seconds expire.

Community Involvement

ALABAMA REACHES OUT

Time is a valuable commodity, not something to be wasted. The University of Alabama's athletes and coaches have found numerous ways to use their time wisely, by giving back a little something to the community.

At Christmas, athletes from the University of Alabama joined together for the Project Angel Tree Christmas party at Valley View Baptist Church. Project Angel Tree sponsors children who have a parent in prison. The athletes and coaches played Santa by giving out presents to the Angel Tree children.

Alabama's support of the RISE program is also well documented. The Stallings Center, as it is called, is located on the campus of the University of Alabama and named for Alabama football coach Gene Stallings who year-in and year-out is supportive of the program. The national championship gymnastics team celebrated the Christmas season by spending some time with the children at RISE and the women's tennis team is a frequent visitor to The Stallings Center. Jim Tressler's team takes time from its busy schedule a few times a semester to visit children in the RISE program.

Alabama coaches participate every year in the Bruno's celebrity grocery bagging which benefits the American Heart Association. On the day of the event, coaches and administrators bag groceries and the tips which are collected go to the American Heart Association.

Head men's basketball coach David Hobbs and his wife Skeet have a special interest in the campaign for another outstanding organization: United Cerebral Palsy. Their daughter Heather, 25, was born with the disease. Each year both David and Skeet are active in the West Alabama Cerebral Palsy Telethon.

Hobbs also sponsors a charity golf tournament which aids the West Alabama Boys and Girls Clubs and Tide head football coach Gene Stallings also hosts a golf tournament which benefits the Tuscaloosa Association of Retarded Citizens. That organization holds a special place in Stallings' heart because his son John Mark was born with Down's Syndrome.

In support of Special Olympics, the Tide men's basketball team held a Saturday morning clinic for Special Olympians from the state of Alabama. Several basketball teams stretching from Decatur to Elba travelled to Tuscaloosa for the clinic. As much as it was a treat for the Special Olympians, it was equally special for the Tide team members.

Swimmer Karli Taylor participated in "Project Angel Tree".

The University of Alabama athletic department recognizes the positive influence that its athletes and coaches can have on young people. Throughout the year, Tide athletes visit local schools and churches spreading a number of positive messages to young people such as, "Say No to Drugs," and "Be Cool Stay in School." Tide athletes are also involved with a local elementary school reading program where the athlete meets with classes in the school library and reads to the class.

The Southeastern Conference

A pioneer in the integration of higher education and athletic competition, the Southeastern Conference stands ready to advance intercollegiate athletics into the 21st century.

Since its formation in 1933, the SEC achieved both stature and stability by designating governing/voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. They have determined the policies of the conference and through the years this involvement has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the SEC.

Throughout its 63-year history, the SEC has provided leadership on the vital issues facing intercollegiate competition. In 1993, the member institutions adopted The Principles of Gender Equity. Committed to increasing the quantity and quality of women's athletic opportunities, each school will provide at least two more women's intercollegiate programs than the number of men's.

Faced with the task of conference realignment after competing with 10 members since 1966, the SEC welcomed the University of Arkansas on Aug. 1, 1990, and the University of South Carolina on Sept. 25, 1990. Joining charter members Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt, on July 1, 1991, Arkansas and South Carolina became the first schools added in conference history.

Fully incorporated into conference competition by 1992, Arkansas and South Carolina participated in SEC championships for all sports except football during the 1991-92 academic year. The SEC was again at the forefront, introducing football, basketball and baseball divisional play and the nation's first ever Division I football championship game.

SEC schools began athletic competition with one another almost 100 years ago as members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Seven institutions (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Sewanee and Vanderbilt) attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives, called by Dr. William L. Dudley of Vanderbilt, in Atlanta Dec. 22, 1894.

Student teams from the schools began meeting in various sports with little pattern to their contests. The American adaptation of the English game rugby, called "football" was drifting down from the East and Midwest. Southerners were quickly attracted to this sport formalized in 1869.

The first football game in the Southeast was played April 9, 1880, on the ground now called Old Stoll Field at the University of Kentucky. Kentucky A&M (now UK) organized a team and in November 1881, played Transylvania College in a three-game series. By 1895 11 current SEC members were playing football.

Basketball moved quickly to the South as Vanderbilt was playing at the Nashville YMCA in 1893, just two years after Dr. James Naismith originated the game at Springfield (Mass.) College.

Track was organized on a conference level at the 1895 SIAA meeting presided over by President Dudley who served until his death in 1914. The first championship meet was held at Vanderbilt May 15, 1896. By 1900 eight of the 13 charter SEC members were participating.

The seven-member SIAA expanded to 19 institutions in 1895 (Alabama, Auburn, Central, Clemson, Cumberland, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Mercer, Mississippi State, Nashville, North Carolina, Sewanee, Southwestern Presbyterian, Tennessee, Texas, Tulane and Vanderbilt) and by 1920 there were 30 members.

The larger schools reorganized as the Southern Conference at a meeting in Gainesville Dec. 12-13, 1920. Professor S.V. Sanford of Georgia called the meeting and served as the first president. Charter members of the Southern Conference included: Alabama, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi State, North Carolina, North Carolina State, Tennessee, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Washington & Lee.

Despite an original limit of 16, the membership grew to 23 by 1928. In 1922 Florida, Louisiana State, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tulane, Vanderbilt and Virginia Military joined, while Sewanee and Duke became members in 1923 and 1928 respectively. At one time or another the SIAA and the SC included most of the Southern colleges from Virginia to Texas.

The 13 members west and south of the Appalachian Mountains reorganized as the Southeastern Conference at the annual SC meeting of Dec. 8-9, 1932, in Knoxville. The 10 coast members remained in the Southern Conference. Dr. Frank L. McVey of Kentucky was elected president of the new conference whose charter members were: Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Louisiana State, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt. (Sewanee withdrew Dec. 13, 1940; Georgia Tech on June 1, 1964; and Tulane on June 1, 1966.) McVey held an informal meeting of the school presidents in Birmingham Feb. 16, 1933, then the first full meeting in Atlanta Feb. 27.

The office of the commissioner was formed in 1940 in Jackson due to the great amount of detail work developing, especially in recruiting and eligibility. Former Mississippi Governor Martin S. Conner took office as commissioner Aug. 21, 1940. Conner later became ill and the secretary of the conference, Dean N.W. Dougherty of Tennessee, served as acting commissioner during the fall of 1946.

The office moved to Birmingham with the appointing of Bernie H. Moore as the second full-time commissioner on Feb. 21, 1948. Moore, a former LSU coach, guided the SEC to national respect in his 18-year tenure.

A.M. (Tonto) Coleman succeeded Moore upon his retirement April 1, 1966. The Alabama native, who was reared in Texas and experienced in athletic coaching and administration, served six and a half years.

Dr. H. Boyd McWhorter, then Dean of Arts and Sciences at Georgia and secretary of the league since 1967, accepted the position upon the retirement of Coleman Aug. 1, 1972. Under his leadership the SEC experienced unparalleled growth. In McWhorter's first year the SEC distributed $1.57 million and 14 years later (1986) the league distributed $15 million in revenue to the member institutions.

Dr. Harvey W. Schiller, an Air Force colonel and faculty chair at the U.S. Air Force Academy, followed McWhorter upon retirement, taking office Sept. 15, 1986. Under his guidance the SEC established itself as a leader in the areas of athletic scholarship and marketing.

Roy F. Kramer succeeded Schiller on Jan. 10, 1990. Kramer, who has served on numerous NCAA committees, joined the league office after spending 12 years as athletic director at Vanderbilt.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track. The league's inaugural championship event was a basketball tournament in Atlanta Feb. 24-28, 1933. Records show the first men's team title for cross-country was awarded in 1935, while golf and swimming were added in 1937. The league later began hosting championships in tennis (1953) and indoor track (1957).

In the 1979-80 academic year SEC championships for women were recognized in basketball, tennis and volleyball. The following year golf, gymnastics, swimming and track and field were added. The administration of women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office on Sept. 1, 1984.

The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and 10 women's sports: Men—baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming, tennis and track (cross country, indoor and outdoor). Women—basketball, golf, gymnastics, soccer, swimming, tennis, track (cross country, indoor and outdoor) and volleyball.

Alabama In The College Football Hall of Fame

Alabama All-America Ozzie Newsome became the newest member of the College Football Hall of Fame when he was inducted on Dec. 6, 1994 at ceremonies in New York. Newsome joins 11 other former collegiate stars and two coaches at the induction ceremonies.

Newsome becomes the 16th Alabama alum to be inducted, joining 13 former players and two Tide coaches who have been named to this prestigious national roster of college football superstar players and coaches.

JOHNNY MACK BROWN 1923-25 • Halfback Dothan, AL

A two-year all-Southern Conference player, Brown is best remembered for his role in Alabama's 20-19 win over Washington in the 1926 Rose Bowl. He was on the receiving end of two long passes—a 58-yarder from Grant Gillis and a 62-yarder from Pooley Hubert—which fueled Bama to its victory. Inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1957, his performance in that '26 Rose Bowl earned him a spot on the all-time Rose Bowl team. Known as the "Dothan Antelope" during his playing days, he was the first of four brothers to play for the Tide. He died of a kidney disease Nov. 15, 1974 in Beverly Hills, Calif.

PAUL BRYANT 1933-35 • Right End Fordyce, AR

Often forgotten in the legend of Paul Bryant was his prowess as a football player for the Crimson Tide in his 1933-35 career. Known as the other end because of the superstar status of Don Hutson, Bryant did not live in total anonymity. He was a second team All-SEC selection in 1934 and a third team choice in 1935. Only 11 players were picked to the squads back then and the SEC had 13 members instead of today's 12. Known for his unquestioned toughness, Bryant played in the 1935 Tennessee game with a broken leg, a contest won by Bama 25-0.

JOHNNY CAIN 1930-32 • Fullback Montgomery, AL

Known best as a powerful left-footed punter, Johnny "Hurry" Cain was the only sophomore starter on Alabama's 1931 Rose Bowl Championship team. A two-time All-America selection, Cain was named to the all-time Alabama team and in 1973 he received the ultimate honor for a college football player when he was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. His most famous game as a punter was against Tennessee, the 1932 game which was played in a driving rainstorm, when he punted 19 times for an average of 48 yards a punt. He was a three-time member of the All-Southern Conference team.

HARRY GILMER 1944-47 Quarterback/Defensive Back Birmingham, AL

ness in passing, running, tackling, returning kicks and kicking highlighted an extraordinary career.

An All-America and SEC Player of the Year in 1945, Harry was voted MVP of the Rose Bowl after leading Bama to a 34-14 victory over Southern California. His best game came against Kentucky when he rushed six times for 216 yards and completed two passes for 50 more. His 16 career interceptions rate as second-best in Alabama history, while his 436 punt return yards in 1946 are the best in Bama annals.

Gilmer accounted for 52 touchdowns in his Crimson Tide career, an Alabama school record. In 1946, he led the team in passing, rushing, interceptions, punt returns and kickoff returns.

FRANK HOWARD
1928-30 • Guard
Barlow Bend, AL

During his playing days at the Capstone, Howard was known as the "Little Giant of the Tide's Herd of Red Elephants." Those were productive years for Bama, especially Howard's senior year when Alabama claimed a national title and defeated Washington State 24-0 in the Rose Bowl. Howard coached at Clemson from 1940-69 and while a head coach he compiled a record of 165-118-2. Clemson's football stadium is named after him. He was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989.

DIXIE HOWELL
Hartford, AL

In the first two years of the Southeastern Conference's existence, Millard Howell, better known as Dixie, led Alabama to a pair of conference titles and one national championship. An All-America choice in 1934, he is best remembered for his record-setting performance in Alabama's 29-13 win over Stanford in the 1935 Rose Bowl. He rushed for 111 yards, completed nine of 13 passes for 160 more, and punted six times for a 43.8 average. He was elected to the college football Hall of Fame in 1970 and to the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1993.

POOLEY HUBERT
Meridian, MS

The second All-American football player in the school's history, he was a four-year letterman on Alabama teams that had a combined record of 31-6-2, including a 1925 squad that went unbeaten and made the Tide's first bowl appearance. He quarterbacked Alabama to the first of six Rose Bowl appearances and led the Tide to a 20-19 victory over Washington. Alabama fell behind 12-0 but Hubert rallied the Tide by scoring one TD and passing to Johnny Mack Brown for another. He was elected to the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame in 1964.

DON HUTSON
Pine Bluff, AR

Don Hutson, Bama's receiver, established himself among college football's legends in the 1935 Rose Bowl game when he caught six passes for 165 yards and scored twice on passes of 59 and 54 in the Tide's 29-13 win over Stanford. Voted to the all-time college football team in 1969 and to Sports Illustrated's Silver Anniversary Team, Hutson left the Capstone to become the NFL's first superstar receiver while playing for the Green Bay Packers. His college coach Frank Thomas said of Hutson, "He was the best player I ever coached." Hutson, who came to Alabama on a partial baseball scholarship, also starred as a sprinter on the Tide's track team. He was selected to the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1993.

LEE ROY JORDAN
Excel, AL

A two-time All-America for the Crimson Tide, Lee Roy Jordan is considered the best inside linebacker in Alabama football history. Voted Alabama's Player of the Decade for the 1960s and to the ESPN all-time college football team in 1989, Jordan was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1983. During his career, Alabama compiled a 29-2-2 record and will forever be remembered for his unforgettable Orange Bowl performance against Oklahoma on New Year's Day, 1963. In that 17-0 Alabama triumph, Jordan was credited with 31 tackles.

VAUGHN MANCHA
Birmingham, AL

Vaughn Mancha earned the starting assignment at center in his first college game as a freshman against LSU in 1944. He never relinquished his spot and went on to a career that earned him a spot in the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame in 1990. He was a consensus All-American pick in 1945, a year in which the Tide posted a perfect 10-0 record and beat Southern California 34-14 in the Rose Bowl. During his career, he also played in a pair of Sugar Bowls.

OZZIE NEWSOME
1974-77 • Split End

Ozzie started 47 consecutive games and helped the Tide to win three Southeastern Conference championships. He also returned punts, averaging 7.5 yards per return on 40 returns. He went on to a 13-year NFL career, where he started 176 of 182 games for the Cleveland Browns.

1928-30 • Tackle
Birmingham, AL

A consensus All-American and Phi Beta Kappa choice as well, Sington capped his brilliant career by leading the Tide to a perfect season in 1930 capped by a 24-0 win over Washington State in the Rose Bowl. Elected to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1955, Sington was such a dominant lineman legendary Notre Dame coach Knute Rockne called him, "the greatest lineman in the country." Also a standout baseball player, Sington played professional baseball for the Washington Senators.

RILEY SMITH
Columbus, MS

A converted fullback, a position he played in 1933, he quarterbacked Alabama in 1934-35 and won All-American honors. He also won the Jacobs Award, given annually to the SEC's best blocker. Still considered one of the best blockers in Alabama football history, he came back from an injury to lead the Tide to impressive wins over Georgia (17-7) and Tennessee (25-0) in his senior year. In the win over the Vols, he threw for one touchdown and ran for another. He was selected to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1985.

FRANK THOMAS
Muncie, IN

In 1925, he led the Tide to an undefeated record and to its first bowl game, a trip to Pasadena to play Washington in the Rose Bowl. Alabama won 20-19, clinching a first national title and forever establishing the Crimson Tide among the nation's football powers. Alabama also appeared in the 1927 and 1931 Rose Bowls under Wade. After Alabama beat Washington State 24-0 on January 1, 1931, Wade left the Capstone for Duke. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1955. Wade died October 6, 1986.

He was later chosen to the all-time Orange Bowl squad. After the 1942 season, he moved to Annapolis and the Naval Academy. He was awarded the Knute Rockne Trophy, signifying him as being the nation's best lineman in 1943. He rose to greater heights in the Navy, advancing to the rank of admiral. ## Former Alabama Players in Pro Football Hall of Fame

When former Alabama lineman Dwight Stephenson was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, he became the fifth Alabama player to be so honored.

He joined former Tide greats Don Hutson (1963), Bart Starr (1977), Joe Namath (1985) and John Hannah (1991) as inductees into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Stephenson, who enjoyed a lengthy pro career with the Miami Dolphins where he was selected at the NFL Man of the Year, was an All-

America and All-SEC choice in 1979. He was voted as the center on the team of the decade for the 1970's and was the center on Alabama's All-Century squad.

National Honors

Cornelius Bennett 1986 Vince Lombardi Award Winner

Three-time All-American linebacker Cornelius Bennett was named recipient of the prestigious Vince Lombardi Award signifying the nation's Most Outstanding Line-man for 1986. Bennett received the award on December 4, 1986 in Houston, Texas from General Pete Dawkins, former Heisman a n d

Maxwell
Award winner.

The Lombardi Award is sponsored by the Rotary Club of Houston, and was first awarded in 1970. The finalists along with Bennett were Brian Bosworth of Oklahoma, Jerome Brown of Miami (Fla.), and Chris Spielman of Ohio State.

Other Alabama finalists have included John Hannah (1972), E.J. Junior (1980), and Derrick Thomas (1988).

Derrick Thomas 1988 Dick Butkus Award Winner

Derrick Thomas, whose 27 sacks in 1988 and 54 for a career established Alabama records that may stand for generations, was named the winner of the Butkus Trophy, symbolic of the nation's outstanding linebacker, December 5, 1988, in Orlando, Fla.

Thomas, in accepting the award from Butkus, became the fourth official recipient of this honor, and the first player from the Southeastern Conference so honored.

Antonio Langham 1993 Thorpe Award Winner

Antonio Langham, the Tide's all-time career interception leader, was honored at the end of his collegiate career by being named the 1993 Thorpe Award winner, symbolic of the nation's best defensive back. Picked by the Football Writers Association of America, Antonio was the first Alabama player so honored. He closed his career with 19 interceptions, 141 tackles, six stops behind the line for 18 yards and two blocked kicks. He returned three interceptions for touchdowns. Perhaps the most memorable was the one against Florida in the inaugural SEC Championship game in 1992 which he returned for a touchdown.

Jay Barker 1994 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award

Jay Barker became the Tide's all-time leading passer in 1994 when he closed out his collegiate career by winning the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award. As a senior, Jay was also a finalist for the Davey O'Brien Outstanding College Quarterback award, finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy balloting, was the Nashville Banner and Birmingham News SEC Player of the Year and was named to numerous All-America teams. Jay finished as Alabama's career leader in eight offensive categories and quarterbacked the Tide to a 45-5-1 career record, the most wins ever by an Alabama senior class. Barker produced a 35-2-1 record as a starting quarterback.

Alabama's TV Scholarship Winners

Seventy-eight times, University of Alabama football players have been named the outstanding offensive and defensive player of the game in Chevrolet's special $1,000 scholarship program on ABC-TV and CBS-TV telecasts.

The program, which provides money for the school's general scholarship fund, began in 1971. In each case, a scholarship is awarded to the school in the athlete's name.

Over the years, almost $75,000 has been won by Crimson Tide athletes for the University's overall scholarship program. None of the money is used in any form for athletics.

The Stallings Center Home of the Rise Program

On Dec. 9, 1993, the Campaign for Alabama reached one of its goals: $1,600,000 for a new home for the RISE Program. Pete Hanna, chairman and CEO of Hanna Steel, Inc., completed the goal by announcing a gift of $1,000,000 in honor of coach Gene Stallings and his family, who have been widely admired and recognized for their work with families of individuals with disabilities and support programs such as RISE. The Stallings Center will enable RISE to serve 100 children, a 30 percent increase the out-reach capacity. Features of the Stallings Center include:

- Six classrooms equipped with state-of-the-art equipment and technology for learning and play
- A commons accommodating special events and active indoor play
- A library to provide areas for children to enjoy pre-literacy activities and for adults to access information
- An evaluation center to provide a quiet location for children to receive developmental evaluations

RISE is a twenty-year-old service, research and training program at the University focusing on infants, toddlers and preschoolers who have identifiable disabilities or who may be considered at risk for developing disabilities. The RISE acronym originally stood for Rural Infant Stimulation Environment.

The program integrates children with cerebral palsy, Down syndrome, spina bifida and other developmental disabilities with non-disabled peers.

Most children attend this twelve-month program five days per week, six hours per day and are provided with an early childhood educational program, speech therapy, occupational therapy and physical therapy.

THE ALABAMA-AUBURN SERIES

Just about everyone knows of the rich history and tradition associated with the Alabama-Auburn series, but some people may not be aware that the rivalry was discontinued for more than 40 years in the first half of the century. A few seemingly minor disagreements between the teams resulted in the series being canceled in 1908 and not resumed until the 1948 season.

Though there are myths about fighting and other violence necessitating a dismissal of the series, the truth is that the only problems between the teams emerged over the referee and per diem money for the players.

In winning the 1906 game, Alabama used an offensive formation that Auburn coach Mike Donahue declared to be illegal. After Alabama implemented a similar formation again in 1907, Auburn insisted that their next meeting be officiated by an umpire from outside of the South. Alabama thought this request to be ludicrous, and that became the first matter of disagreement between the two schools.

The second conflict, which was over per diems, essentially amounted to 33 dollars. Each team was allowed 22 players on its roster. Auburn wanted each player to receive $3.50, while Alabama thought the amount should be only two dollars.

After arguing for several months over these two matters, the teams finally reached a compromise and decided to play in 1908. By this point, however, their schedules had been set for the season, and neither team's opponents were willing to move. Alabama suggested playing the game after Thanksgiving, but Auburn's Board of Trustees would not allow their team to play beyond the holiday.

Thus, the game was not played in 1908, and it was not placed on the schedule for the following year. Attempts to revive the game in 1911, 1919, 1932 and 1944 all failed. Finally, in the spring of 1948, behind the initiative of Alabama president John Gallilee, an agreement was reached to resume the series in Birmingham that fall.

Prior to the game, student body presidents Gillis Cammock of Alabama and Willie Johns of Auburn participated in a symbolic "burying of the hatchet" ceremony at Woodrow Wilson Park in Birmingham. The two teams rekindled the rivalry at Legion Field on December 4, 1948, with Alabama winning easily, 55-0.

Football's Origin at Alabama

"Mr. W. G. Little, of Livingston, Ala., was the first man to introduce football at the University. Mr. Little had been a student at Andover, Mass., and went to the University (of Alabama) carrying his uniform and a great bag of enthusiasm for the game in 1892. A number of students joined in with him in the season beginning in October of that year."—Crimson White (Student Paper), Nov. 25, 1926.

Alabama's first game was played in Birmingham on Friday afternoon, Nov. 11, 1892, at the old Lakeview Park. Opposition was furnished by a picked team from Professor Taylor's school and Birmingham high schools, with Alabama winning, 56-0. Early teams were a bit tougher than current squads, it seems, as the following afternoon Alabama played the Birmingham Athletic Club, losing 5-4 when Ross, of B.A.C., kicked a 65-yard field goal. Impossible though it may seem, this field goal was listed as a collegiate record at one time and Birmingham papers of the day featured its distance in writeups of the game.

The gridiron sport rapidly caught the students' fancy and the game became a favorite with University athletes. In 1896 the University's board of trustees passed a rule forbidding athletic teams from traveling off the campus. The following season only one game was played and in 1898 football was abandoned at Alabama. Student opposition to the ruling was so strong that the trustees lifted the travel ban and football was resumed in 1899, to continue without interruption until the first World War forced cancellation of the 1918 games.

Alabama first gained national recognition in 1922 when the University of Pennsylvania was defeated, 9-7, in Philadelphia. The following season Wallace Wade became head coach and in 1925 led the Crimson Tide to its first undefeated and untied season and its first Rose Bowl invitation. On Jan. 1, 1926, an unheralded, underrated team from Tuscaloosa came from behind to upset Washington, 20-19, in the Rose Bowl and established a precedent of colorful play that Crimson Tide teams have continued to uphold.

How The "Crimson Tide" Got Its Name

In early newspaper accounts of Alabama football, the team was simply listed as the "varsity" or the "Crimson White" after the school colors. The first nickname to become popular and used by headline writers was the "Thin Red Line." The nickname was used until 1906. The name "Crimson Tide" is supposed to have first been used by Hugh Roberts, former sports editor of the Birmingham Age-Herald. He used "Crimson Tide" in describing an Alabama-Auburn game played in Birmingham in 1907, the last football contest between the two schools until 1948 when the series was resumed. The game was played in a sea of mud and Auburn was a heavy favorite to win. But, evidently, the "Thin Red Line" played a great game in the red mud and held Auburn to a 6-6 tie, thus gaining the name "Crimson Tide." Zipp Newman, former sports editor of the Birmingham News, probably popularized the name more than any other writer.

The Elephant Story

The story of how Alabama became associated with the "elephant" goes back to the 1930 season when Coach Wallace Wade had assembled a great football team.

On October 8, 1930, sports writer Everett Strupper of the Atlanta Journal wrote a story of the Alabama-Mississippi game he had witnessed in Tuscaloosa four days earlier. Strupper wrote, "That Alabama team of 1930 is a typical Wade machine, powerful, big, tough, fast, aggressive, well-schooled in fundamentals, and the best blocking team for this early in the season that I have ever seen. When those big brutes hit you I mean you go down and stay down, often for an additional two minutes.

"Coach Wade started his second team that was plenty big and they went right to their knitting scoring a touchdown in the first quarter against one of the best fighting small lines that I have seen. For Ole Miss was truly battling the big boys for every inch of ground.

"At the end of the quarter, the earth started to tremble, there was a distant rumble that continued to grow. Some excited fan in the stands bellowed, 'Hold your horses, the elephants are coming,' and out stamped this Alabama varsity.

"It was the first time that I had seen it and the size of the entire eleven nearly knocked me cold, men that I had seen play last year looking like they had nearly doubled in size."

Strupper and other writers continued to refer to the Alabama linemen as "Red Elephants," the color referring to the crimson jerseys.

The 1930 team posted an overall 10-0 record. It shut out eight opponents and allowed only 13 points all season while scoring 217. The "Red Elephants" rolled over Washington State 24-0 in the Rose Bowl and were declared National Champions.

ROSE BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1926

Alabama 20, Washington 19

PASADENA, Calif.—Trailing 12-0 at halftime, Coach Wallace Wade's Alabama team battled back in the second half to capture a thrilling 20-19 win over Washington in the Crimson Tide's first bowl outing. It was a game that is still remembered as one of the all-time finest and the Tide victory brought new and permanent respect from all sections for Southern football.

Washington's great halfback, George Wilson, was everything he had been billed as being. He carried the ball for 134 yards, completed five passes for 77 yards and two touchdowns. But Alabama put him out of the game for 22 minutes with injuries and it was during those 22 minutes that the Crimson Tide scored all of its points.

Wilson missed the third quarter, and that's when Alabama scored its 20 points, all in seven minutes. First it was Pooley Hubert scoring from the one with Bill Buckler kicking the point after. After holding Washington and forcing a punt, Grant Gillis faded back from his own 41 and found Johnny Mack Brown at the Husky 25.

"All I had to do was sidestep one man and I was across," remembers Brown.

A fumble gave Alabama another chance at the Washington 30. On first down Hubert told Brown to run as fast as he could for the goal. "When I reached the three, I looked around," says Brown. "Sure enough, the ball was coming down over my shoulder. I took it in stride, used my stiff arm on one man and went over carrying somebody. The place was really in an uproar."

Washington scored a final time in the fourth quarter, but they couldn't overcome Bama's lead. And Alabama was off and running to Bowl history.

ROSE BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1927

Alabama 7, Stanford 7

PASADENA, Calif.—Wallace Wade was invited to return with Alabama for the 1927 renewal after another perfect season. His great backs of 1925 were gone and he was not wealthy in reserves.

It was a team with some unusually colorful nicknames: for example, Lovely Barnes, Goofy Bowdoin, Snake Vines and Rosy Caldwell.

The bowl was packed with 57,417. Gross receipts were $218,047—the highest ever. Approximately $100,000 was refunded.

Stanford scored first, George Bogue passed five yards to end Ed Walker, who ran the remaining 15 yards for a touchdown. Bogue then kicked the point after and Stanford held its 7-0 first quarter lead until the final period.

With just four minutes to go, Alabama blocked a Stanford punt with center Clarke (Babe) Pearce leaping through to deflect the ball. Bama took over on the Stanford 14.

Into the game went 170-pound Jimmy Johnson at halfback. A dislocated shoulder had prevented him from playing much. First it was Wu Winslett getting three yards, then Johnson knifing forward for seven. Winslett smashed to the one. Then Johnson banged into right guard, the resistance crumpling under his charge. It was 7 to 6 now. A ruse was coming up next.

As the teams lined up for the crucial extra point attempt with the crowd respectfully hushed, Captain Emile Barnes barked signals. Suddenly someone shouted "signals off." Stanford's forewall stood at ease in anticipation of another signal sequence. At that moment center Gordon Holmes snapped the ball to Winslett who touched it down. Unrushed and with plenty of time, Herschel Caldwell smoothly kicked it through the posts and over the bar.

The 7 to 7 game ended three plays later.

Alabama 24, Washington State 0

PASADENA, Calif.—This was Wallace Wade's last Alabama team before he left for Duke and it typified the personality of the coldly efficient strategist. Alabama crushed Washington State, 24-0, before 60,000.

Wade announced on New Year's Eve that he planned to start his second team. The writers were incredulous. But Wade, who felt Alabama was two touchdowns better, meant it and in fact did open with his second unit.

The Cougars held the upper hand most of the first quarter but didn't come close to scoring. Late in the period Wade inserted his first string and things began to pop.

After 13 straight plays on the ground, from its own 39, Bama's left end Jimmy Moore returned and sped into his own backfield. He received the ball from fullback John Cain, took a few more steps and spiraled a long pass downfield. Left halfback John (Flash) Suther, galloping at high speed, gathered it in smoothly on the Washington State 22. In a flash he was in the end zone.

Bama center Jess Eberdt intercepted a Cougar pass on the WSU 47. Moore again passed, hitting end Ben Smith on the Cougar one. Monk Campbell powered in for the score.

Lightning struck quickly the next time Alabama got the ball. Campbell, on a beautifully setup fake to Moore, shot through left guard. He wriggled free of a State man's clutches and bolted 43 yards to score. These 21 points had come within a stretch of six minutes of the second quarter.

Wade's second team was on the field in the third quarter when the final points were registered. Guard J. B. (Ears) Whitworth, later head coach at Alabama, kicked a field goal from the 30.

Alabama 29, Stanford 13

PASADENA, Calif.—“Dixie Howell, the human howitzer from Hartford, Ala., blasted the Rose Bowl dreams of Stanford today with one of the greatest all-around exhibitions football has ever known,” was the lead written by all-time great Grantland Rice.

Alabama blasted Stanford, 29-13, with Howell teaming with the incomparable pass catching end, Don Hutson, to electrify the crowd of 84,474 with a 22-point second quarter outbreak.

In those 15 minutes Alabama amassed 150 yards on passes and another 106 on the ground. Howell himself gained 96 yards in the air on four completions to Hutson and three more to end Paul (Bear) Bryant. Dixie also ran 96 yards, including a sensational 67-yard spring for a touchdown.

Alabama had the ball for four plays in the first quarter and made four yards. Stanford recovered a Tide fumble on the 27 yard line and drove for a score with Bobby Grayson pounding right tackle for the final foot.

Howell scored from the five early in the second quarter to tie the game. Stanford, though, chose to kickoff to show Bama's scoring was a fluke. Four more pass completions by Hutson brought Alabama to the Stanford six. On fourth down Hutson held while Riley Smith kicked a 22-yard field goal. Now it was 9-7, and Stanford still refused to believe the mounting evidence, kicking off again.

Two plays later Howell swung to his right. Smith leveled Stanford star Grayson with a hard block. As the Stanford secondary closed in, Dixie swerved for the sidelines and cut across the field diagonally. He ran 67 yards. The crowd was on its feet, agog at this masterly piece of speed and maneuvering.

Stanford received this time, but on second down Riley Smith intercepted for Bama. Coach Frank Thomas inserted Tilden (Happy) Campbell, a conservative quarterback, to replace the daring Smith with orders to play it safe and stick on the ground. Only eight seconds were left in the half. What Thomas didn't know was that Smith told his teammates, just before going to the sidelines, “I've called the play. Make it good.”

They did. Joe Riley, who took Howell's place after the long run, flung a long pass to Hutson, who was in the clear and scored easily from 54 yards.

The Howell to Hutson battery was quiescent until the early part of the fourth quarter. From the Alabama 41 it struck. Don caught Dixie's long spiral on the Stanford 30 and whizzed for his second touchdown.

Howell left the field late in the game after a 52-yard punt with his ears ringing to the noisiest ovation ever given a visiting player on a California gridiron. He had gained 111 yards running, 160 yards passing (nine completions in 12 attempts) and had punted six times for an average of 43.8 yards.

“No team in the history of football, anywhere, anytime, has passed the ball as Alabama passed it today,” wrote Ralph McGill in the Atlanta Constitution. “And no man ever passed as did Dixie Howell, the swift sword of the Crimson attack.”

ROSE BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1938

California 13, Alabama 0

PASADENA, Calif.—Frank Thomas' 1937 Alabama team was not one of his best, but none was better coached or accomplished quite so much with what it had.

The Crimson Tide experienced several close calls. Sandy Sanford literally kicked his team to Pasadena. In the game with Tulane, Sanford booted a late fourth-quarter field goal of 32 yards when Alabama had only six men on the line of scrimmage. The illegal formation was undetected by officials.

The Tide won, 9-6. Sanford beat Vanderbilt 9-7 with another late-game field goal.

In the Rose Bowl, there was no opportunity for Sanford's heroics. Alabama was subdued 13-0.

California, coached by Leonard B. (Stub) Allison, demonstrated too much power and speed, better balance, and some exceptionally skilled and rugged players in center Bob Herwig, end Perry Schwartz, quarterback Johnny Meek, guard Vard Stockton, and halfback Sam Chapman, the latter soon to become a major league outfielder.

But the star of the game was Vic Bottari, a junior tailback who started his career as a virtual nonentity on the Golden Bear squad. Bottari scored both touchdowns against Alabama on almost identical plays in the second and third quarters, quick, well-escorted trips around right end of three and five yards respectively.

California punched over touchdown No. 1 to culminate a 63-yard 12-play land march. Alabama couldn't check driving, brutal power smashes accompanied by paralyzing blocking. The Bears hammered out No. 2, pushing the Tide 48 yards in nine whacks in much the same fashion. No passes were thrown on this scoring sweep as well.

Alabama lost the ball on fumbles four times and suffered four pass interceptions. One scoring opportunity was muffed on the California 1 and another on the 6, both on fumbles. The Bears tackled with crunching, stunning force.

“It was a heartbreaker,” said Alabama captain Leroy Monsky. “I still try to blank it from my mind.”

A check for $104,129.94 from gross receipts of $293,372.61 helped to ease some of the grief felt by the Alabama party.

COTTON BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1942

Alabama 29, Texas A&M 21

DALLAS, Texas—It wasn't a very festive atmosphere, since most of the nation was thinking about World War II, but Alabama's opportunist Crimson Tide whipped Texas A&M 29 to 21 under very bizarre circumstances.

The Tide made only one first down. A&M had 13. Bama picked up only 75 yards total offense, as opposed to 309 for the Aggies. The Tiders clicked on just one pass while A&M completed 13 and Bama ran just 32 plays as opposed to 79 by the Texans.

Yet the Tide led 29-7 midway in the fourth quarter, held off an Aggie rush at the end and wound up with one of the most amazing bowl wins ever.

The significant statistics were seven Alabama pass interceptions and five fumble recoveries, for a total of 12 turnovers against A&M.

A&M scored first, Chal Daniels passing to Bob Crowley. Later in the second quarter Daniels fumbled and Don Whitmire recovered on the Aggie 24. Jimmie Nelson passed to Holt Rast for 16. Two passes failed. On a no-shift play, Nelson reversed to Russ Craft for an eight-yard score.

In the third quarter Nelson returned a punt 72 yards to put Bama ahead. In the same quarter Nelson punted to Daniels who fumbled, with Sam Sharpe grabbing it for the Tide on the A&M 21. Nelson quickly scored, romping 21 yards around right end.

In the final period another A&M interception put Alabama in business on the Aggie 17. George Hecht wound up kicking a 31-yard field goal to make it 23-7.

Alabama's final score was another unique play. A&M had the ball and Derence Moser passed, had it tipped into hands of Holt Rast who jogged 10 yards into the end zone. It was 29-7. The Aggies scored twice in the fourth quarter to narrow the gap, but the alert Tidesmen won the only statistical battle that counted—the score.

Alabama 37, Boston College 21

MIAMI, Fla.—Stung by two first quarter Boston college touchdowns, Alabama's All-American center Joe Domnanovich called his team into a huddle as they awaited a kickoff. "Don't give up," he said, simply but firmly. "We haven't had a chance to go with the ball yet. We're going to receive and we're going to run them into the ground."

Twenty minutes later, at halftime, Alabama was in front, 22 to 21, and won the game, 37 to 21.

Mike Holovak, the Eagles' swift-striding right halfback, scored on runs of 65 and 35 yards to put Boston College in front early. Then Bama went to work.

Russ Craft, Dave Brown, Johnny August and Russ Mosley tore off big chunks of turf and the Eagle defense caved in. Bobby Tom Jenkins raced 40 yards for one score. Boston College made a comeback effort and went ahead 21-19 just before halftime but George Hecht booted a 25-yard field goal to put Bama on top, 22-21 at intermission. The Tide added 15 more points in the second half.

Wheeler Leeth scored on a 14-yard pass from Mosley, Ted Cook grabbed a 17-yard scoring aerial from August, Jenkins scored twice on runs of 40 and one, and August faked a pass and ran around right end for a 15 yard score. Hecht kicked a field goal and two extra points and Domnanovich even put two points on the board by tackling an Eagle in the end zone for a safety.

The Boston press treated the game from an unbiased standpoint.

Bill Cullingham, widely respected columnist for the Boston Post, wrote, "When you're beaten as clearly and as splendidly as was Boston College today, the only thing to do is stand and salute as the victors go by. It was a fine game, played in the truest tradition of sportsmanship, brilliantly won and gallantly lost in a magnificent setting, so in taste with the times that none who saw it will ever forget it."

SUGAR BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1945

Duke 29, Alabama 26

NEW ORLEANS, La.—If you said the 1945 Sugar Bowl game was charged with drama every minute, it wouldn't be much of an exaggeration.

The lead changed hands four times. The outcome was uncertain until the last second. The heart-throbbing finish pulled 72,000 people out of their seats.

In the last analysis, it was the power and experience of Duke's Navy trainees that prevailed over Alabama's inspired wartime civilian group, 29 to 26.

After watching Harry Gilmer, Alabama's 18-year-old freshman tailback, complete eight out of eight passes despite the rushing of a hard-charging line, Grantland Rice called him "the greatest college passer I ever saw."

Gilmer hit the tough Duke line hard for important gains and made many tackles, personally downing the Blue Devil ball carrier after every kickoff.

One pass in particular stood out. Forced far back, Harry tripped over one Duke man. Two more Blue Devils got a piece of him. Suddenly, he broke loose for an instant, leaped high, and whipped the ball 41 yards to Ralph Jones, a big end.

In bowl history never has one so young performed so brilliantly.

On the last play he fired another long pass to Jones, who just missed going for a touchdown on a 33-yard gainer to Duke's 25.

Duke led early, 7 to 0. Halfback George Clark ran 52 yards on the first play from scrimmage. He scored on a 14-yard bolt up the middle.

Gilmer's aerial craft set up three Crimson Tide touchdowns before Duke could score again, making it 19 to 13 at halftime.

Duke fullback Tom Davis carried ten straight times on a 64-yard thrust in the third quarter. It wound up with Davis scoring his second touchdown. Now it was 20 to 19, Duke.

Alabama threw back the Blue Devils on the Tide 12 early in the fourth period. But they surged forward again. This time Hugh Morrow stepped in front of Gordon Carver and intercepted Cliff Lewis' pass. Morrow moved 75 yards at top speed. With his conversion it became 26 to 20, Alabama.

Duke took the kickoff and wasn't stopped until the goal line was a yard away.

Three minutes remained. Coach Frank Thomas decided on a calculated risk. He sent in orders to give up two points through an intentional safety. Thomas hoped for a long high punt from the 20 by John Wade, who would have plenty of time. He hoped also for good coverage and a resolute defense.

The strategy backfired. The punt sailed 40 yards. Clark returned it 20 yards to Alabama's 40. The Blue Devils cracked the Tide defense for the touchdown in two inspired runs. First, wingback Jim LaRue gained 20 on a reverse after which Clark rushed through right tackle in a furious charge and scored.

"I'd say that last run LaRue made won the game," Rice wrote. "He fought his way for 20 yards where he might have been thrown for a loss. He carried two red shirts on his back for the last seven yards and it was this terrific determination to win that saved the day for Duke. I've never seen a more thrilling game."

DUKE—Touchdowns: Clark 2 (14, fake pass, through the middle; 20, right tackle), Davis 2 (1, center plunge; 1, center plunge). Points after touchdown: Raether 3. Safety: Gilmer knelt in end zone intentionally on play from Alabama 1.

ALABAMA—Touchdowns: Hodges 2 (1, plunge; 1, plunge), Jones (10, pass from Gilmer), Morrow (75, intercepted pass by Lewis). Points after touchdown: Morrow 2.

Alabama 34, Southern California 14

PASADENA, Calif.—This was Alabama's sixth trip to the Rose Bowl and although the Crimson Tide had enjoyed great success against the West Coast powers, a lot of coast writers and fans always said, "but you've never played Southern Cal."

You didn't hear much of that commentary after this one. Bama won, 34-14.

At halftime, Alabama led 20-0. Troy's 21 plays had resulted in a net loss of 24 yards. Not until the score was 27-0 in the third quarter did Southern Cal make a first down.

Alabama's "wooden horse" toppled the men of Troy like no team ever before. Southern Cal had won eight straight Pasadena battles since 1923. Fortunately Coach Frank Thomas was merciful. For Thomas it was his last bowl trip as a coach. His health began to fail in 1946 and he was forced to give up coaching in 1947. He died May 10, 1954.

Alabama outgained USC 351 to 41. Troy's pitiful running offense netted just six yards.

Harry Gilmer, the Crimson Tide's extraordinary passer, threw only 11 times, one touchdown resulting. But he ran 116 yards on 16 carries. Hal Self scored twice, sneaking over from the one and on a 24-yard Gilmer pass. Gilmer went over from the one, and Lowell Tew hit left guard from the two for points and Norwood Hodges scored up the middle on a one-yard plunge. Hugh Morrow kicked four extra points.

The great bowl victory assured Coach Thomas a place among the all-time greats. Captain Tom Whitley 15 years later remarked: "Coach Thomas' system would go today. He used innovations no scout could capture with notes and against which no defense could be surely set."

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA—Touchdowns: Adelman (20, pass from Lillywhite), Clark (Doombos blocked Grysk's punt from Alabama 28, recovered by Clark and run for touchdown). Points after touchdown: Lillywhite 2.

Texas 27, Alabama 7

NEW ORLEANS, La.—It is a peculiar fact that some of the most celebrated backs in the Southeastern Conference came to grief in New Orleans in their final game. Names coming to mind of those so ill-fated are Billy Cannon (1960), Johnny Majors (1957), Hank Lauricella (1952), and Harry Gilmer (1948).

Three years before, Gilmer, the Alabama sharpshooter, had heard the multitude's roar of applause in the Sugar Bowl. It was a far cry from the reaction of 72,000 fans who saw Texas thwart Gilmer and the Crimson Tide, 27 to 7, in 1948.

He had blazed so brightly previously in New Orleans and in Pasadena. This time he completed only three of his 11 passes and ran for a mere five yards. By his own evaluation it was the worst day of his college career.

Loudest cheers went to Texas quarterback Bobby Layne. He sent the ball a loft 24 times and made connections ten times for gains totaling 183 yards.

Layne was an excellent field general, ball handler, and passer. He was also a capable runner.

Ground attacks were virtually non-existent. Alabama was restricted to 41 yards. Texas to 59 rushing.

The Tide was not outplayed to the extent the score would indicate. The difference could have been a touchdown. The first half ended in a 7 to 7 standoff. Texas' last three touchdowns were achieved by defensive alertness. Or, to say it another way, Alabama committed three expensive errors—having a punt blocked, having a pass intercepted and run back for a touchdown, and fumbling deep in its own territory.

The entire left side of the Longhorns' line swarmed into the backfield when Norman Mosley tried to punt from Alabama's 25 in the third quarter. Left tackle George Petrovich blocked the kick and left guard Vic Vasicek recovered in the end zone for a touchdown.

Alabama appeared to wilt after that but displayed the heart to stall Texas drives twice within its 10. Then with six minutes left and the Tide gambling to tie or win, Gilmer was rushed hard and threw almost despairingly over oncoming Longhorns' upraised arms. End Lewis Holder intercepted Harry's soft, short, high pitch. He raced for the red flag at the corner of the field 18 yards away, just making it.

A few plays after that, Holder pounced on a Gilmer fumble five yards from another touchdown. Layne got this one on a sneak.

The result was a shock to Alabama followers who expected the large senior contingent, stars of freshman and sophomore appearances in bowl games, to finish in the grand manner. Texas was faster, more powerful, and deserved to win.

Some years later, Gilmer said, "I wouldn't swap the experiences, the thrills, the friendships and fellowships made in bowl games for anything. Of course, a post-season game means a lot of additional work—practice, training and usually the sacrifice of Christmas vacations—but in the end it's worth even more."

Alabama 61, Syracuse 6

MIAMI, Fla.—New Year's Day, 1953, was the first on which football fans could see, through the medium of television, bowl games in Pasadena, Dallas, New Orleans, and Miami. Receipts increased greatly with bigger checks for competing schools and their conference brethren.

Alabama crushed Syracuse, champion of the East, 61 to 6, in the Orange Bowl. Many in the crowd of 66,280 left in the third quarter so they could see more of other bowl games on TV at home.

Because the game was lasting so long, an Orange Bowl committee-man reportedly approached the timekeeper and suggested the game, nearly three hours old at the time, might be speeded up because it was about to be cut off the network.

Fifteen records were set in the fiasco. Even the deepest Alabama substitutes among the 46 Crimson Tide players were record-minded. "We didn't want to leave any still standing," explained tackle Van Marcus.

Alabama rushed for 286 yards and passed for 300. Its total offense of 586 yards and the sum of 818 for both teams were among the Orange Bowl records.

It was a close contest for a quarter when Alabama led, 7 to 6. After two periods the score was 20 to 6. And in the second half, "I just couldn't stop them," said Coach Harold (Red) Drew, a native of Maine who came to Alabama as end coach under Frank Thomas and developed Don Hutson, Paul Bryant, and Holt Rast, among others.

Bobby Marlow, who scored the Tide's second touchdown, was one of the finest running backs in Southeastern Conference history. In three years he gained 2,560 yards. That was 693 yards more than the next highest total in the conference in the 1950-59 period made by Billy Cannon of Louisiana State. But Marlow was not picked on the all-decade team in the conference.

Soon after the game the Orange Bowl committee signed contracts with the Big Eight (then Big Seven) and the Atlantic Coast Conference. Their representatives met for the next five years.

Rice 28, Alabama 6

DALLAS, Texas—A crestfallen player sorrowfully trudged off the field.

"I'm too emotional," he told a reporter. "I kept telling myself, 'I didn't do it. I didn't do it.' But I knew I had."

"I'm just too full of 'Bama. He just ran too close. I know I'll be hearing about this the rest of my life."

What Tommy Lewis, Alabama fullback, had done before 75,504 spectators in the 1954 Cotton Bowl game was the nearest thing to the wrong-way run by Roy Riegels 25 years before.

Rice was leading, 7 to 6, midway in the second quarter. The Owls were in possession on their own 5. Alabama had just muffed a scoring opportunity.

Left halfback Dickie Moegle's signal was called. Taking a hand-off from quarterback LeRoy Fenstermaker, he turned right end as his blockers did their job efficiently and headed for the Alabama goal line.

As Moegle approached midfield near the sidelines in front of the Alabama bench, it appeared no player could stop him. No one, that is, except Lewis, who was on the bench, and suddenly ran onto the field barehanded, and threw his body into Moegle's legs. Moegle was felled on Alabama's 41. Referee Cliff Shaw awarded a touchdown to Rice. Moegle was credited with a 95-yard run.

Although Tide coach Harold (Red) Drew said the Lewis incident had no demoralizing effect on his team, the Southeastern Conference champions were never the same again. A letdown was evident. Rice went on to smash Alabama, 28 to 6.

It was Lewis who plunged the final foot for a touchdown on a 47-yard advance in the first quarter.

Rice went ahead on Moegle's 79-yard scamper followed by Fenstermaker's extra point. Dick scurried 34 yards for another touchdown in the third period. He gained 265 yards of his team's whopping 379 rushing. He carried the ball only 11 times, averaging 24.1 yards. After this game Moegle held four Cotton Bowl records and three all-time major bowl records.

At the half Lewis went directly to the Rice dressing room to ask if apologies would be accepted.

"My heart went out to him," Rice coach Jess Neely said. "I told him, 'Don't let it bother you.'"

The Dallas Morning News, in an editorial written by managing editor Felix R. McKnight, a former sportswriter, asked Texans to "drop Tommy Lewis a line... and let him know he hasn't lost his last friend... (he) committed a forgivable error that will live with him forever... he's quite a fighter—and we like them that way in Texas."

LIBERTY BOWL—DECEMBER 19, 1959

Penn State 7, Alabama 0

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—Perhaps it was fitting that this was the 13th bowl appearance by an Alabama team. Penn State bested Alabama, 7-0, before 36,211 frigid spectators. But it was the start of something that ran for 24 straight years—that of Paul William (Bear) Bryant taking an Alabama team bowling.

"We weren't a real strong team," says Bryant, "but that team would hit you. We had the makings of something good a couple of years later and it was important for them to get started in the bowl business."

The play that beat Alabama was one that Penn State coach Rip Engle put in just two days before the game. It was a fake field goal, quickly sprung and well executed, as the clock ran out ending the first half.

A 20-mile-an-hour gale held up punts all afternoon and Tommy White's punt just before halftime went only three yards. With the ball on Alabama's 18, second-down and six yards to go, Penn State went into field goal formation without huddling. Quarterback Galen Hall knelt on the 25. Guard Sam Stellatella stood ready to kick. Hall took a high snap, rose and rolled to his right. Roger Kochman took the pass near the 20 and bolted for the goal line, charging behind a convoy of teammates. He was tripped near the end zone but fumbled it in.

We were fortunate not to be beaten by four or five touchdowns," said Bryant. "We just got a good sound thrashing."

BLUEBONNET BOWL—DECEMBER 17, 1960

Alabama 3, Texas 3

HOUSTON, Texas—A unique field-goal standoff, something new in big league bowl action, left 68,000 fans neither happy nor hurt as Texas and Alabama fought to a 3 to 3 tie in the 1960 Bluebonnet Bowl defensive struggle.

It was a strange contest from this standpoint, too: if the Longhorns of Texas had won, they would have done so on a play that began after time had officially expired.

End Tommy Brooker kicked a 30-yard field goal to put Alabama in the lead in the third quarter when a drive stalled on the Texas 13.

Dan Petty, a third-team tackle, booted the equalizer. He kicked it from the 10. The play started on Alabama's 3. There were three minutes, 44 seconds remaining.

With 28 seconds to go, Texas took possession of the ball on its 48. An Alabama pass, thrown on fourth down, was complete. But it failed to make the required yardage. No doubt existed about what Texas would do.

The Crimson Tide secondary defense broke up Johnny Genung's first long fling. Alabama's Leon Fuller and Texas end Bob Moses both jumped for Genung's second lengthy throw. The big clock's second half stopped at zero. Part of the crowd flocked onto the field thinking the game had ended. But a handkerchief had been dropped. Interference was called against Fuller. Since a game cannot end on a penalty, Texas was awarded another play.

The ball was placed on Alabama's 18. It would be a field-goal try, of course. Thumped from the 25 by Petty, who in the third quarter had missed from the same spot, it was wide to the left.

Earlier—late in the first quarter, Bobby Skelton tossed a look-in pass to end Bill Rice, who took it on the Texas 40 and ran to the 7 before David Russell overhauled him. It was a 49-yard run.

On third down from the 3, Skelton cut in at left tackle. Millions watching on television thought he had carried the ball across the goal line before being halted. So did many at the game.

"I was in there," Skelton said. "I had chalk all over my jersey when I got up."

A moment later, fullback Bobby Richardson was stopped within an inch or two of scoring.

"Naturally, we all were hoping that last kick by Petty would go through," said Texas coach Darrell Royal. "But it would have been a shame to win it that way. I think the score was indicative of the comparative strength of the two teams."

At the awards dinner, taskmaster Bryant looked at his players, grinned, and said, sincerely, "I want to thank you tonight for putting up with me all this season. I know I've been rough at times, but I hope you won't hold it against me."

Alabama 10, Arkansas 3

NEW ORLEANS, La.—There were late season rumors that the Rose Bowl might relent on its tie-up with the Big Ten and invite Alabama to play in Pasadena. Tide fans couldn't wait.

The Crimson Tide team, too, was hopeful, but the call never came from Pasadena, and Alabama's Bear Bryant took his undefeated National Championship team to New Orleans to face a tough Arkansas team. The Tide barely escaped with a 10-3 victory.

Starting a drive on its own 21, Alabama fullback Mike Fracchia, a high stepper with terrific drive, burst through two tacklers' arms and sped 43 yards to the Arkansas 12 before being halted. Pat Trammell carried the ball on the next play, rolling wide to the left and through tackle. As teammates obliterated all opposition, Trammell ran unhindered into the end zone.

Placekick specialist Tim Davis toed a 32-yard field goal in the second quarter. A fumble, a missed field goal try and a holding penalty after a successful third quarter effort by the Tide kicking expert thwarted other penetrations.

Bryant was proud of his team. "Regardless of who was coaching them, they still would have been a great team. I said early in the season that they were the nicest, even the sissiest bunch I'd ever had. I think they read it, because later on they got unfriendly."

Alabama allowed only 22 points and didn't allow Alabama's goal line to be crossed in the last seven games.

Alabama 17, Oklahoma 0

MIAMI, Fla.—In the Alabama dressing room after the Crimson Tide's 17 to 0 Orange Bowl victory over Oklahoma, a photographer asked Coach Paul Bryant to spell the name of a player whose picture he had just taken.

"That's Namath, son—N-A-M-A-T-H," Bryant said. "But don't worry about it. You'll learn how to spell it in the next couple of years."

If the cameraman was unfamiliar with the name, the crowd of 73,380 attending the 1963 Orange Bowl game and millions more watching on television were not.

Long before that game, Bryant said the precocious young man from Pennsylvania was ahead of Babe Parilli (whom he coached at Kentucky) as a sophomore. He rated Namath "potentially the finest quarterback I've ever coached."

Namath piloted his team 61 yards in ten plays for a touchdown in the first quarter. From the Oklahoma 5, he faked a handoff and a short pass, whirled, and sailed a long pass into end Dick Williamson's hands in the end zone.

A sleight of hand pitch-out to halfback Cotton Clark resulted in a 15-yard scoring sprint in the second period. It was the third play after Billy Piper returned a punt by Joe Don Looney to the Sooners' 34. First, Namath threw a pass to Williamson, good for 20 yards. Clark's touchdown was his sixteenth of the year.

Next, and finally, Namath conducted a Tide surge from Oklahoma's 33 to the 2. There, it was fourth down. Tim Davis, Bama's placekicking specialist, toed a 19-yard field goal. This third-quarter opportunity arose when Looney, the nation's leading punter with an average of 43.4 yards, was hurried by guard Frankie McClendon's rush and got off a kick of only seven yards.

Sooner backs were hounded relentlessly by swift-pursuing Bamans who on offense blocked to the end of every play. There were Charley Pell, Jimmy Wilson, Jimmy Sharpe, Bill Battle, Butch Wilson, Ed Versprille, Dan Kearley, and McClendon—all bristling with desire. But the greatest of all, in another superb performance, tackling and blocking, was Lee Roy Jordan.

He was as fine a linebacker as ever played in the South. Perhaps nobody else in college football in 1962 had his almost instinctive ability to seek out the ball carrier so quickly and bring him down so abruptly. It is doubtful if Bryant ever praised a player quite as much.

Fifteen seniors finished the best three years (29-2-2) Alabama ever knew in football. Only a matter of a few inches, the distance by which Jack Hurlbut failed to make a two-pointer after the only touchdown against Georgia Tech (Tech won, 7 to 6), apparently separated the Tide from two straight national championships.

Said Bryant: "Walking around the dressing room shaking hands with them after their last game, it was all I could do to keep from completely choking up. You just love them, that's all."

Alabama and Oklahoma struck the second richest pay lode in the game's history. In 1958, when the Columbia Broadcasting System paid $275,000 for television and radio rights, Duke and Oklahoma each collected $224,308.50. The American Broadcasting Company gave $205,000 for those rights in 1963. Rival teams each got $190,000, some of which, of course, was shared with schools in the Big Eight and Southeastern Conference.

One highlight of the game was that President John F. Kennedy attended.

Alabama 12, Ole Miss 7

NEW ORLEANS, La.—Everyone knew that this wasn't just an ordinary Sugar Bowl game. It snowed on the eve of the game and that was just the first of some unusual occurrences.

With junior standout quarterback Joe Namath suspended for disciplinary reasons, sophomore Steve Sloan, showing the poise and savvy of a veteran, guided the Crimson Tide to a 12-7 victory over the heavily favored Ole Miss Rebels, but it took four

Tim Davis field goals to turn the trick.

Davis' kicks of 31, 46, 22 and 48 yards earned the Columbus, Ga., senior the Outstanding Player award. His four field goals were a bowl record and his 48-yarder was the longest in bowl history.

It was 3-0 after the first quarter, 9-0 at halftime and 12-0 going into the final quarter. Ole Miss finally got on the scoreboard when Larry Smith took a five-yard pass from Perry Lee Dunn. Billy Irwin kicked good and it ended just that way, 12-7, Alabama.

With snow piled on the edge of the playing field, The Tide put on a great display of how to win under adversity. The alert Crimson gobbled up six Ole Miss fumbles and intercepted three Rebel passes. And while Ole Miss piled up more yardage (248 to 194), it was Bama who controlled the football by running 69 plays to only 48 for the Rebels.

In the final quarter the Tide defense stopped the Rebels on its two, nine and 28-yard lines to show that its defense came ready to play.

ORANGE BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1965

Texas 21, Alabama 17

MIAMI, Fla.—Gimpy legged Joe Namath put on one heckuva show and almost pulled a victory out of the fire, but the Texas Longhorns rose up to stop Namath inches short of the goal line late in the game and held on to win, 21-17, over the national champion Crimson Tide team.

Namath was a shoo-in for the game's MVP honors, hitting on 18 of 37 passes for 255 yards and two touchdowns. And his knee was hurting so much that he couldn't start the game.

Texas struck first, scoring with just 23 seconds left in the first quarter when big Ernie Koy sped 79 yards. In the second period Jim Hudson fired a 69-yard bomb to George Sauer to put Texas on top, 14-0.

The Tide battled back, marching 87 yards, with Namath passing seven yards to soph Wayne Trimble for the score.

Texas got a couple of breaks for its next score just before halftime. The Longhorns were seemingly stopped and went for a field goal. Creed Gilmer raced through to block it, David Ray recovered for the Tide and rambled three yards before fumbling. Texas recovered to regain possession. Next Hudson went back to pass, was dumped by Jim Simmons for a loss but on the play Alabama was guilty of holding a receiver downfield and it gave the Horns a first down on the Tide 13. Three plays later Koy went around right end from the one and it was 21-7 at halftime.

Namath then put the Tide into motion in the second half. He hit Tommy Tolleson, Wayne Cook and Ray Perkins for passes to move to the Texas 20, then hurled a perfect strike to Perkins for the score. In the fourth quarter Namath got the offense going again, only to bog down and have to settle for a David Ray field goal to cut it to 21-17.

Jimmy Fuller intercepted a Texas pass in the fourth quarter, then Namath and Steve Bowman moved the ball within inches of the Horn goal, but on fourth down Tommy Nobis and the Texas line stopped Namath and it ended Bama's hopes.

ORANGE BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1966

Alabama 39, Nebraska 28

MIAMI, Fla.—Alabama's cobra-quick Crimson Tide found out just before game time that a victory over Nebraska's big Cornhuskers would mean a second straight National Championship, since upsets earlier that day had set this game up as the National Title playoff.

Striking with daring aggressiveness against the much larger Big Eight power, Alabama won 39-28, but the game really wasn't as close as the final score. Bama ran 86 plays to just 43 for the Huskers. It outgained Nebraska 518 to

Tom Somerville recovered a Nebraska fumble at the Bama 39 early in the game and in seven plays Bama was on the scoreboard, the payoff being a 21-yard pass from Steve Sloan to Ray Perkins.

Bob Churchich passed to Tony Jeter for a 33-yard TD in the second quarter to tie it at 7-all, but Bama promptly marched 89 yards to score, with Les Kelley ripping over from the four. Shortly afterward Sloan hit Perkins with an 11-yard scoring aerial. The Tide then used the onside kick, recovery by Vernon Newbill, and moved to the Nebraska two when time almost ran out before David Ray could kick an 18-yard field goal and make it 24-7 at halftime.

Nebraska scored early in the third quarter, Churchich passing to Ben Gregory for a 49-yard score. Bama marched right back, though, with Steve Bowman cracking over from the one, then Sloan passed to Perkins for two points and it was 32-13. Churchich sneaked over from the one on the first play of the final quarter and it was 32-20.

Bowman got the next Tide touchdown with a three-yard run, Ray kicked and it was 39-20. Nebraska scored with 2:50 left when Jeter gathered in a 14-yard Churchich pass and Churchich passed to Gregory for a two-point PAT, making the final tally, 39-28, and with the victory the National Championship for Alabama's Crimson Tide.

SUGAR BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1967

Alabama 34, Nebraska 7

NEW ORLEANS, La.—It was billed as a classic rematch, Alabama vs. Nebraska, after the Crimson Tide had whipped the Cornhuskers, 39-28, the year before in Miami and won the national championship in so doing.

The 1966 season found Alabama unbeaten in 10 straight games, but frustrated at the polls since Notre Dame and Michigan State had battled to a 10-10 tie and were 1-2 in the ratings.

When Alabama got through with Nebraska this day, though, it went down in history as the finest performance anyone had seen. Alabama completely thrashed a good Nebraska team, 34-7.

"This was the greatest college team I've ever seen," said Bama's Bear Bryant afterwards. Nebraska's Bob Devaney certainly didn't argue.

On the first play from scrimmage Kenny Stabler faded back and lofted a strike to streaking Ray Perkins and it was a 45-yard gain to the Husker 27. Seven plays later big Les Kelley bulled his way into the end zone. The second time Bama had the ball, Stabler hit Perkins for a nine-yard gainer, then flipped to him again for a 42-yard gain to the Nebraska 20. After Stabler had connected to Dennis Homan for six yards, the crafty signal caller rolled out and sprinted 14-yards to score.

Before the first quarter was over Charlie Harris had recovered a fumble at the 39 and Steve Davis kicked a 30-yard field goal making it 17-0. The Tide took over early in the second quarter and marched 71 yards in 10 plays with Wayne Trimble scoring from the six, making it 24-0.

Then in the third quarter another Davis field goal, this one good for 40 yards pushed it to 27-0. Game Nebraska, hitting harder as the game wore on, scored early in the fourth quarter when Bob Churchich passed to Dick Davis for a 15-yard payoff aerial.

Moments later, however, Stabler and Perkins renewed their act and the result was a 45-yard touchdown pass play. Stabler hit 12 of 17 passes for 218 yards, gained 40 more on the ground and was the MVP with Perkins a close second.

Texas A&M 20, Alabama 16

DALLAS, Texas—It was cold, drizzly and wet in the Cotton Bowl and Texas A&M took advantage of five Crimson Tide turnovers to upset Bama, 20-16, with Coach Gene Stallings' Aggies winning the pupil vs. teacher matchup.

Alabama drove 80 yards in the first quarter with QB Kenny (Snake) Stabler going over from the three to put the Tide out front first. A&M intercepted a Stabler pass later in the period to set up the Aggie tying score.

Edd Hargett passed 13 yards to Larry Stegent for the score.

On the first play of the second quarter Steve Davis booted a 36-yard field goal to give Bama its final lead of the day at 10-7. With just 16 seconds left on the first half clock, Hargett hit Tommy Maxwell with a 7-yard pass to put A&M out front, 13-10, at intermission.

It didn't take long for the A&M lead to push to 20-10 as the Aggies drove 52 yards in six plays with big Wendall Housley going over from the three.

But the Tide wasn't through. It took the kickoff and drove 83 yards in just nine plays, with Stabler racing over from the seven yard line. Bama tried to run for two points, but it failed and A&M led 20-16.

Time and time again in the fourth quarter Alabama threatened but the Aggies defense kept the Tide at bay. With just seconds left a Stabler pass was stolen by Curley Hallman, a youngster who grew up just across the river from Tuscaloosa in Northport. That sealed the Aggie victory.

GATOR BOWL—DECEMBER 28, 1968

Missouri 35, Alabama 10

JACKSONVILLE, Fla.—It was a close game for three quarters, but when the fourth period rolled around Missouri's powerful Tigers pushed home three touchdowns and routed Alabama, 35-10, before 68,011 in the 24th annual Gator Bowl.

It was the worst beating a Bryant coached Alabama team had ever suffered and the statistics tell the story.

Bama had minus 45 yards rushing and a total offense of just 23 yards. Missouri banged out 402 yards rushing, but didn't complete a single pass although it really wasn't necessary. Alabama made just six first downs to 21 for the Big Eight Tigers.

Missouri scored the first time they had the ball, driving 71 yards in 11 plays with Terry McMillan scoring from the four. Alabama tied it at 7-7 in the second quarter when Donnie Sutton intercepted a McMillan pass and raced 38-yards for the Bama score. Late in the second quarter the Tigers drove 55 yards in 13 plays, with McMillan going over from the five. A roughing the kicker penalty against the Tide kept Missouri's drive going, but at halftime it was 14-7, Missouri, and stayed that way going into the final period.

Mike Dean connected on a 25-yard field goal early in the final period to pull the Tide within striking distance, but a Missouri interception put the Tigers in business on the Bama 21 and it took six plays for McMillan to sweep over from the two, making it 21-10.

After the Tiger defense pushed Bama back to its eight, a bad Alabama punt put the ball on the Tide 36. Greg Cook raced in for a score. Alabama tried to go to the air and get back in contention, but Dennis Poppe snared one for the Tigers and sprinted 46 yards to close out the scoring and make it 35-10.

Colorado 47, Alabama 33

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—The enthusiastic Liberty Bowl people wanted an offensive football game to enhance its reputation and brother did they get it when they matched Colorado and Alabama.

Colorado won, 47-33, in a wild one, with everyone scoring for Colorado but "Ralphie," its Buffalo mascot.

The Big Eight school scored on the opening drive, Ward Walsh blasting over from the 13 after driving 80 yards in eight plays. Later in the quarter Dave Haney kicked a 30-yard field goal to make it 10-0.

Then it went to 17-0 as power running Bob Anderson barged over from four yards out to cap an 80-yard march in just eight plays. Alabama was stunned.

But the Tide got in a few surprises of its own, the payoff being pass minded Scott Hunter dashing 31 yards on a sneak to make it 17-7. Later in the quarter George Ranager took a pitchout and got a key block from Johnny Musso to score from the six and it was 17-13, as Bama went for two and failed.

But it took the Buffaloes only six plays to score again. Walsh popping over from the 15. Alabama wasn't finished, however, and drove 72 yards in seven plays to score, Musso going in from the two. Again the Tide went for two and failed, but it was 24-19 with just 46 seconds left in the first half.

Jim Duke's kickoff was fielded by Bob Mastern on the Colorado nine, with Mastern handing off to Steve Engle and he sped 91 yards to score and make it 31-19 at intermission. It was a dizzy first half of fireworks.

Alabama received to open the second half, then with second and 10 from its 45, Neb Hayden arched a long pass to Griff Langston who gathered it in and raced home to score, pulling the Tide within five points at 31-26.

Steve Williams intercepted a Colorado pass minutes later and the Tide was at it again. Hayden again went to the air and hit Musso with a 10-yard touchdown pass to put Alabama out in front of the hectic offensive show, 33-31. The third quarter ended that way.

Colorado marched 53 yards in 12 plays, with Anderson sliding off left tackle from the two to put the Buffs once again out front, 38-33. Alabama's Hayden was caught in the end zone later in the game for a safety, with Bob Brundidge and Herb Orvis getting to the battling Tide quarterback.

Then with time running out and trying to make a last ditch stand, Alabama went for it on fourth and 18 from its own 18. Hayden couldn't find a receiver open in the split second he had to look and was snowed under at his own 11 to turn the ball over. Colorado's Anderson went over from the three with just 45 seconds left and it ended up, 47-33.

ASTRO-BLUEBONNET BOWL

DECEMBER 31, 1970

Alabama 24, Oklahoma 24

HOUSTON, Texas—Two offensive-minded football teams battled to a 24-24 deadlock in Houston's famed Astrodome in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl as Alabama and Oklahoma fought tooth-and-nail down to the wire.

There was a total of 843 yards total offense in the game, showing that defense just wasn't anything to write home about, although both teams did make some key stops along the way.

Alabama scored first. Tight end Randy Moore gathered in a four-yard Scott Hunter pass to cap a 54-yard, eight play drive. Oklahoma marched right back to tie the game, though, with Joe Wylie scoring from the two. It was 7-7 after one quarter and they were just warming up.

Bama was within the shadows of Oklahoma's goal, only to have

Then it went to 21-7, as Pruitt got a key block from Wylie and dashed 25 yards to score after a Bama field goal attempt was no good. With just 14 seconds left before halftime, Hunter hit David Bailey with a five-yard scoring pass and it was 21-14, Oklahoma, at halftime.

In the third quarter Richard Ciemny kicked a 20-yard field goal to narrow it to 21-17. Then came the big fourth quarter. With 7:36 left, fourth down from the Sooner 25, Johnny Musso took a handoff and started wide to his right. He stopped, fired a left-handed pass back to quarterback Hunter and it caught the Okies napping, with Hunter making a dash for his life to score. Alabama led, 24-21.

With only 59 seconds left, OU field goal specialist Bruce Derr hit on a 42-yard attempt to tie the game at 24-all. But Alabama had one last shot. Oklahoma tried an onside kick, but it didn't go anywhere and the Tide had it at the OU 40. Musso broke loose for 21 yards to the 19. Dave Brungard got two yards, then Hunter was hit for a yard loss, and with just five seconds left Bama called time out. Ciemny lined up for a 34-yard field goal try that would win the game, only to have John Shelley get a hand on it and deflect the attempt to preserve the tie.

ORANGE BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1972

Nebraska 38, Alabama 6

MIAMI, Fla.—It was billed as the National Championship game, Nebraska ranked first and Alabama second, but the Cornhuskers quickly salted away not only the game but the national title with a 38-6 victory which was greatly aided by a mistake-laden Crimson Tide.

Nebraska scored late in the first quarter after a fumbled punt snap by Bama gave the Huskers possession at the Bama 47. Jeff Kinney ripped off tackle for the score.

Then swift-moving Johnny Rodgers returned a Tide punt 77 yards to make it 14-0, and before you could ask "who?" the Tide fumbled the kickoff and Nebraska had it on the Tide 27. Jerry Tagge kept for the score, making it 21-0, as the wall tumbled down on Bama.

Moments later it was a fumble-fingered Alabama team that again coughed up the ball on its own four and Gary Dixon quickly scored to send the scoreboard to 28-0, still midway in the second quarter.

The Tide settled down, but found it couldn't pass from the new wishbone-T. Finally Terry Davis went over from the three in the third quarter to cut the score to 28-6. Rich Sanger kicked a 21-yard field goal to make it 31-6 at the end of the third quarter, and then Van Brownson scored from the one after a Nebraska interception, to close out the scoring at 38-6.

Stats on the game were reasonably close, but the score wasn't and it was a long trip home for the 16,000 Crimson Tide fans.

Notre Dame 24, Alabama 23

NEW ORLEANS, La.—It was the first ever meeting between two giants of college football and the game was promoted so heavily even the fans involved got tired of all the advance publicity. It was THE GAME of all time in a lot of ways, and it certainly lived up to every inch of newspaper space and moment of radio-TV air time.

Notre Dame won, 24-23, in one of the truly all-time classics of college football. It had everything you could want in a football game and Notre Dame vaulted from third in the AP and fourth in the UPI poll into the throne room of the national championship after the Tide had finished first in both polls in the regular season.

Seldom do games live up to all the advance and frenzied billing. Just like most Super Bowl games are dull. But when Ara Parseghian of Notre Dame and Bear Bryant of Alabama unleashed two of the finest college teams of modern history onto the Sugar Bowl's soggy artificial turf, this game caught the fancy of the entire football world.

Big plays abounded. Alabama could have put it away in the third quarter, but couldn't deliver the knockout punch. Notre Dame ran a kickoff back for a touchdown, a real no-no in this type of encounter. Alabama had a controversial play develop when Notre Dame roughed the Tide kicker in the waning moments of the game, but it was controversial only in that the TV announcers blew the call. The 15-yard penalty would not have given Bama a first down and Bryant elected to let Notre Dame have the ball backed up on their own two yard line.

But millions of people listening and watching on TV didn't know it wasn't an automatic first down, as it is in pro football. As a result, Bryant received literally thousands of letters and wires about the decision.

Bryant's strategy almost worked. Notre Dame gained almost nothing in its first two plays but on third down QB Tom Clements lofted a 35-yard pass to right end Robin Weber to get the Irish out of the hole and to salt away the victory.

Notre Dame 13, Alabama 11

MIAMI, Fla.—Notre Dame once again proved to be the spoiler for Alabama's national championship dreams, as the underdog Fighting Irish upset the Crimson Tide, 13-11, and jerked the throne rug right out from under Coach Bear Bryant's team.

Alabama was ranked first in the nation in the UPI poll and second in AP going into the game, with Notre Dame being eighth and ninth. A year before when the two had

NEBRASKA—Touchdowns: Kinney (2-yard run), Rodgers (77-yard punt return), Tagge (1-yard run), Dixon (2-yard run), Brownson (1-yard run). Field goal: Sanger (21 yards). PAT: Sanger kicked three, Damkoger one pass from Tagge.

Texas 17, Alabama 13

DALLAS, Texas—The "battle of the wishbones" found Texas storming from behind in the fourth quarter to capture a 17-13 decision on a cold and blustery day in which the Crimson Tide was unable to get it together on offense.

Following Steve Wade's interception Gregg Gantt kicked a Cotton Bowl record 50-yard field goal.

After an exchange of punts, Wade grabbed his second interception of the young game and raced 42 yards to the Texas 31. On the first play, Wilbur Jackson took a pitch wide to the right and behind Joe LaBue's springing block, cruised untouched for the touchdown and Bill Davis quickly added the extra point to make it 10-0.

Texas drove down for a field goal of 24-yards by Billy "Sure" Schott and then with just eight seconds until intermission, Bill Davis banged through a 30-yard three-pointer for Bama to push its halftime lead to 13-3.

A short Tide punt in the third quarter gave Texas field position and the wishbone Horns drove 59 yards in 15 plays, Alan Lowry scooting over from three yards out and Schott's kick cut the Bama lead to 13-10.

Alabama reeled off a dazzling fourth quarter drive from its 20 to the Texas 34, where on first down, Terry Davis went for broke and tried to hit Wayne Wheeler with a TD pass, only to have Terry Melancon intercept for a touchback.

Texas, going to the air behind Lowry, marched to the Tide 34, from where Lowry bootlegged the final 34 yards, tightwalking the sidelines for the winning touchdown. Schott's kick made it 17-13.

The Tide wasn't finished, though, and marched from its 10 to the Texas 43, where Jackson was stopped short on a fourth and one play, Texas taking over and hammering the final nail into the Tide's coffin.

met with Sugar Bowl as the setting, Notre Dame won, 24-23, and vaulted to the national title. This time all it did was ruin Bama's chance, and give retiring coach Ara Parseghian a retirement gift.

Neither team had much offense, as the defense dominated. Alabama's Willie Shelby fumbled a punt in the first quarter and gave the Irish the ball on the Tide 16. In five plays Wayne Bullock scored from the four.

It went to 13-0 early in the second quarter when Notre Dame put together a 77-yard drive in 17 plays with Mark McLane scoring from the nine, after a Tide penalty had kept the drive alive. Then a Notre Dame fumble gave the Bama team a chance from the Irish 40, but all the Tide could get was a field goal by Danny Ridgeway of 21 yards and it was 13-3 at halftime. The score remained the same going into the fourth quarter.

Then after a good Shelby punt return, Richard Todd found Russ Schamun on a 48-yard touchdown pass play. Todd then threw to George Pugh for a two-point conversion to narrow it to 13-11.

With 1:39 left, Alabama got a chance from its own 38. Todd to Schamun for 16, then to Randy Billingsley for eight to the Irish 38, but Reggie Barnett grabbed off the next Todd effort and iced the game for the Irish.

Alabama's Leroy Cook was the defensive standout, although Ronnie Robertson led in tackles. Bama had more total offense, 285 to 204, but had four turnovers. Todd hit 13 of 24 passes, six of them to freshman Ozzie Newsome for 68 yards and five to Schamun for 126 yards.

A crowd of 71,801 watched this New Year's night game, with NBC-TV televising it nationwide.

Alabama 13, Penn State 6

NEW ORLEANS, La.—For eight consecutive seasons, sports writers had been writing about and fans had been crying about Alabama's terrible bowl drought. Not since Jan. 1, 1967—with a 34-7 victory over Nebraska in the Sugar Bowl—had the Tide won in post-season play.

But with a 13-6 victory over Joe Paterno's Penn State Nittany Lions on December 31, 1975, Paul "Bear" Bryant's team gained the needed respect it had been lacking in eight previous bowl encounters. It was the first Sugar Bowl played inside the pleasant confines of the multi-million dollar Louisiana Superdome, matching third-ranked Alabama (10-1) against seventh-ranked Penn State (9-2).

Richard Todd, Alabama's senior quarterback, put on an offensive show, completing 10 of 12 passes for 205 yards. In running the Tide's wishbone offense to near perfection, he was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

Todd passed 55 yards to sensational split end Ozzie Newsome to set up the game's only touchdown in the fourth quarter.

"We had a sweep called to the left side but I didn't like the defense they were in. I didn't want to take the chance of ruining a play," said Todd after the game. "So I called time. I went over to the sidelines and Coach Bryant sort of winked at me. He called a pass.

"We felt they'd be single covering Ozzie. He ran what we call a slant-and-go. The last time we called this particular play was in the Tennessee game. But it was more important this time."

Two plays later, Mike Stock swept left for an 11 yard touchdown.

Danny Ridgeway added an extra point and two field goals to offset Penn State's two three-pointers by Chris Bahr and the nation's leading defense allowed its average—six points—to put the wraps on Alabama's first bowl victory in nearly a decade.

LIBERTY BOWL—DECEMBER 20, 1976

Alabama 36, UCLA 6

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—A record crowd of 52,737 braved 28 degree temperatures and gusting winds at speeds up to 28 miles per hour in the 18th annual Liberty Bowl.

The "refrigerator bowl" was blown wide open by the Bama defense, which stopped the Bruins twice on fourth down, once at the one, and another time by an interception at the one on third down.

It was sophomore linebacker Barry Krauss, the game's most valuable player, who intercepted a pass and rambed 44 yards for the Tide's first touchdown.

"Our defense was simply magnificent most of the time," said Alabama head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. "Not only were we stopping them, our defense put some points on the board, too."

Bucky Berrey kicked three field goals of 37, 25, and 28, a Liberty record. Johnny Davis plunged one yard for the Tide's first TD. Tony Nathan added six more with a half back pass to quarterback Jack O'Rear, in a 20-yard scoring play.

Rick Watson added a one-yard touchdown run and Berrey was successful in three extra point attempts.

Only a 61-yard run by UCLA's Theotis Brown averted a shutout, but the extra point attempt failed making the score 30-6.

But the Crimson Tide came right back and Rick Watson's one-yard touchdown run ended the scoring at 36-6.

UCLA's young head coach summed up the game as he met Alabama's legendary Bear Bryant at midfield at the conclusion of the game.

Alabama 35, Ohio State 6

NEW ORLEANS, La.—Alabama had been knocked to its knees after an early-season 31-24 loss to Nebraska, but it bounced all winningly into a Jan. 2 Sugar Bowl encounter with the Ohio State Buckeyes.

Since a thrilling 21-20 upset of top-ranked Southern Cal in Los Angeles at mid-season, the Crimson Tide had been on a roll, winning its sixth Southeastern Conference championship in seven years and climbing to third in the nation. It was billed as a match between the nation's two winningest active coaches—Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant and Ohio State's Woody Hayes.

It turned into a rout. Alabama won easily, 35-6, and with the upset by fifth-ranked Notre Dame of number-one Texas in the Cotton Bowl, many Crimson Tide fans thought their team should have claimed the national prize. But in a controversial and ever-so-tight vote, the Irish vaulted from fifth to first, with Alabama finishing a close second.

Jeff Rutledge and his comeback team of 1977 wasted no time in putting the game into their control. On the Tide's second possession—a 10 play, 76 yard march—"Touchdown" Tony Nathan scored from a yard away, and the rout was on.

Rutledge finished as the game's MVP, hitting on 8 of 11 in the air for 109 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Johnny Davis, the Tide's bullish senior fullback, led the ground assault with 95 yards and 24 carries.

Alabama led 13-0 at the half and built the margin to 21-0 on a three yard Rutledge pass to Rick Neal in the third quarter before sophomore Steadman Shealy manned the controls in the final period to direct the Tide to another pair of touchdowns.

Ohio State's Chris Ward dealt Alabama the supreme compliment after all the fighting had taken place.

"I don't think they were extremely quick," he said.

"I don't think they were extremely strong.

"I think they were extremely effective."

Alabama 14, Penn State 7

NEW ORLEANS, La.—One vivid image was permanently etched into the minds of the 76,824 in the Superdome and the millions of TV viewers who watched the 45th annual Sugar Bowl on New Year's Day, 1979.

Penn State, the nation's No. 1 team was stopped on two consecutive plays inside the one-yard line to preserve a 14-7 victory for Alabama's second ranked Crimson Tide.

That now-famous goal line stand won a national championship for Paul "Bear" Bryant's Crimson Tide.

Alabama appeared content to run out the clock in the first half with 1:11 left. But Penn State called a timeout on two consecutive plays to stop the clock, hoping to get the ball back and set up a field goal. But senior halfback Tony Nathan countered with runs of 30 and 7 yards down to the Penn State 30 yard line.

Alan McElroy kicked the extra point to give Alabama a 7-0 halftime lead. A Pete Harris pass interception at Alabama's 48-yard line late in the third period set up Penn State's only touchdown. Nittany Lion quarterback Chuck Fusina hit Scott Fitzkee deep in the end zone for a touchdown. Matt Bahr's extra point kick tied the game with 4:25 left at 7-7.

Moments later, Lou Ikner, Alabama's talented halfback, ran 62 yards with a Penn State punt before being dragged down at Penn State's 11-yard line. Three plays later Major Ogilvie rammed himself into the corner of the end zone, sprung by a key block from tight end Rick Neal. McElroy kicked the extra point ending the scoring at 14-7.

The Nittany Lions had a chance to tie the score when the Lions Joe Lally fell on a misdirected pitchout on an option play by Rutledge at the Tide 19 with 7:57 remaining. Penn State drove from there to a third and one at the goal.

But the Alabama defense sealed off its end zone in a tremendous defensive effort, climaxed by Alabama linebacker Barry Krauss stopping Penn State tailback Mike Guman short of the goal line.

After the game, Bryant commented on one of the most memorable goal line stands in college football history.

"That goal line stand was something I'll never forget."

Alabama 24, Arkansas 9

NEW ORLEANS, La.—The University of Alabama reached a new pinnacle of success as Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant's Crimson Tide beat Arkansas 24-9 in the 46th annual Sugar Bowl.

In the process of winning its fifth straight bowl, four of them Sugars, this unbeaten Alabama team became the first Tide squad in the school's history to win 12 games in a season.

A record Sugar Bowl crowd of 77,468 and millions of viewers on national TV watched Alabama win.

After Ish Odenez booted a 34-yard field goal following Arkansas' recovery of Don McNeal's fumble on the opening kickoff, the Razorbacks didn't get back into the game until Alabama was holding a 17-3 advantage in the third quarter.

The game's most valuable player, Major Ogilvie, capped off an 82-yard touchdown drive with a 22-yard scramble to put Alabama up 7-3 in the first period.

Arkansas quarterback Kevin Scanlon fumbled a snap from center and linebacker Thomas Boyd recovered the ball on the Hog 22.

up a 14-3 advantage.

With two minutes left in the half, Ogilvie returned a punt 50 yards to the Arkansas 30, setting up an Alan McElroy field goal, which made the halftime score 17-3.

Arkansas came back from halftime with an 80-yard scoring drive in 11 plays but, the Bama defense rejected Scanlon's two-point attempt after the touchdown and the Razorbacks were held scoreless for the remainder of the contest.

Alabama quarterback Steadman Shealy engineered a final 98-yard touchdown drive capped off by a 12-yard blast by senior Steve Whitman.

Alabama's defense held the Razorbacks the rest of the way, under the brilliant secondary of Tommy Wilcox and Jim Bob Harris.

Alabama 30, Baylor 2

DALLAS, Texas—Alabama capped off a 10-2 season by decking Southwest Conference champion Baylor 30-2 in the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day 1981.

For only the second time since 1971, Alabama had failed to win the Southeastern Conference championship, finishing second behind eventual national champion Georgia. The Tide had been upset by Mississippi State (6-3) to snap its longest-in-the-nation 28 game winning streak and then fell to old nemesis Notre Dame (7-0).

But against Grant Teaff's Baylor Bears, Paul "Bear" Bryant's Crimson Tide was impressive. The 'Bama defense was the big hero, as the likes of middle guard Warren Lyles, E.J. Junior and Thomas Boyd shut down Baylor's thought-to-be unstoppable running tandem of Walter Abecrombie and Dennis Gentry.

The pair had combined for nearly 2,000 yards during Baylor's 10-1 regular season, but on this sunny day in Dallas, they were limited to 54 yards—altogether.

Major Ogilvie (one yard run), Don Jacobs (one yard run) and Mark Nix (three yard run) scored touchdowns for the Crimson Tide and sophomore Peter Kim added a Cotton bowl record three field goals to send Alabama to its record-tying sixth consecutive bowl victory.

Texas 14, Alabama 12

DALLAS, Texas—Alabama marched into Dallas as the Southeastern Conference co-champion and its coach as the winningest man in the history of the game, but Fred Akers' Texas Longhorns were not impressed.

Five weeks after Bryant had won his record-shattering 315th contest against cross-state rival Auburn, the Longhorns came from behind to hand Alabama a 14-12 defeat, which ended its season at 9-2-1.

Kim added a 24 yard field goal in the third quarter to put the Crimson Tide out front 10-0.

But Texas saved its best for the final quarter, wherein it scored each of its 14 points. Quarterback Robert Brewer, who completed 12 of 21 passes on the day for 201 yards, directed the Longhorns on two fourth quarter scoring drives, running himself 30 yards for the first points.

Terry Orr's eight yard run was the clincher and Raul Allegre added his second PAT to give the Longhorns a 14-10 lead.

LIBERTY BOWL—DECEMBER 29, 1982

Alabama 21, Illinois 15

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—The University of Alabama football team retired Coach Paul W. "Bear" Bryant in grand fashion by registering a 21-15 Liberty Bowl victory over Illinois at Memphis, Tenn.

The win gave Coach Bryant a final record of 323-85-17—unmatched in intercollegiate football history.

"Many thanks to the staff for one heck of a job," he said afterward in a crowded press interview tent. "The players' preparation and the coaches' preparation, especially in this circus-type atmosphere, were exceptional.

"I am thankful to have won my final game," said the Crimson Tide coaching legend. "Whether the team likes it or not, they will always be remembered for winning my last game. I am proud they wanted to win this one for me."

Alabama saw fullback Ricky Moore, flanker Jesse Bendross and fullback Craig "Touchdown" Turner score touchdowns for the Tide in Bryant's final battle to overcome Illinois' potent offensive attack.

Even Heisman Trophy candidate Tony Eason who threw two touchdown passes on the evening, couldn't spoil Coach Bryant's final exciting appearance.

"Give Alabama credit," Eason said following his team's loss. "Their defense hit harder tonight than any opponent we faced all season long."

Crimson Tide cornerback Jeremiah Castille ended an illustrious career at Alabama by tying secondary Coach Louis Campbell's single game Liberty Bowl record with three interceptions.

"It sure was great to send Coach Bryant out a winner," Castille said after being named Liberty Bowl "Most Valuable Player." "He really deserved to finish his career on a good note."

With the win, the Crimson Tide ended its 1982 campaign with an 8-4 record. An upset loss to Tennessee and three disappointing November setbacks spoiled what could have been a national championship-type season, but the win over Illinois provided college football's greatest coach one of his most cherished memories.

SUN BOWL—DECEMBER 24, 1983

Alabama 28, SMU 7

EL PASO, Texas—It was the largest crowd (41,412) to ever witness an event in El Paso, Texas sports history. The University of Alabama Crimson Tide football team gave the fans their money's worth and shocked fifth ranked SMU, 28-7, in the 50th anniversary of the Sun Bowl.

The game ranked as one of the memorable wins in Alabama football history. Head coach Ray Perkins, who directed the Crimson Tide to its 20th bowl victory, had said the week prior to the game with the Mustangs would be crucial for three reasons.

"First of all, it was the last game for our seniors. It may have been the last game, period, for some. Secondly, this game meant a lot to me because I go out to win every game. Finally, this game meant a lot to the players who return for the 1984 season. A win in our final game of 1983 meant that our players will be able to return next year with a good taste in their mouths," Perkins said following the Tide's impressive, post-season victory.

Alabama gained possession with 7:33 remaining in the first quarter at its own 41 yard line and drove 59 yards in seven plays as fullback Ricky Moore pounded over from the one for the game's initial touchdown. "The offensive line did a great job all day," Moore said after racking up his sixth consecutive 100-yard-plus game with a Sun Bowl record 28 carries.

Following cornerback Sammy Hood's fumble recovery on a Lance McIlhenny bobble, Moore ran untouched for an 11-yard score to put the Tide ahead, 14-0, with 1:14 remaining in the first stanza. The key play in the drive was a 32-yard pass by quarterback Walter Lewis to flanker Greg Richardson.

As the second quarter got underway, Alabama marched 91 yards on a 15-play possession as Lewis capped the drive with a one-yard keeper to move Alabama ahead 21-0, with 7:16 left in the first half. The senior signal-caller from Brewton engineered a march that knocked 6:22 off the clock and he combined for 58 yards (45 passing, 13 rushing). After the teams traded turnovers late in the half, the Crimson Tide put together its final scoring drive of the 1983 season when the team moved 62 yards. The offensive line provided outstanding protection for Lewis, who found split end Joey Jones on a 19-yard touchdown pass with 43 seconds left on the clock.

Although the Mustangs got on the scoreboard in the third quarter

when McIlhenny threw a 15-yard touchdown strike to wide receiver Marquis Pleasant to cut the Tide lead, 28-7, the Alabama defense took over and shut the "Pony Express II" down.

ALOHA BOWL—DECEMBER 28, 1985

Alabama 24, Southern California 3

HONOLULU, Hawaii—Alabama had "fun in the sun" in beautiful Hawaii dominating Southern California 24-3 in the fourth annual Aloha Bowl in Honolulu to end the season with a 9-2-1 record.

Before a crowd of 35,183, the Crimson Tide victory tied USC with the most bowl victories (21) as the traditional football powers met for only the second time in bowl competition. The Tide stopped USC 34-14 in the 1946 Rose Bowl, the last team to play in the bowl outside of the Big Ten and Pac Ten Conferences.

The first half ended in a 3-3 tie and led Coach Ray Perkins to comment afterwards. "This was the worst first half I have been associated with to play such a great second half."

Alabama was whistled for 68 yards on seven penalties in the first half. It scored on its first possession. From its own 15-yard line, the team drove to the USC 31 where Van Tiffin kicked a 48-yard field goal.

Early in the second quarter, USC tied the score on a 24-yard field goal by Don Shafer with 9:36 left in the half. Alabama had stopped the Trojans at the eight yard line on a drive that started from the USC 37.

The charged up Crimson Tide scored a touchdown on its second possession in the third quarter. Greg Richardson returned a punt 14 yards to the Trojan 42. Ten plays later fullback Craig Turner dove into the end zone from the one. Tiffin converted the extra point for a 10-3 lead.

Then freshman Kermit Kendrick intercepted a USC aerial and returned it 16 yards to the Trojan 44. Five plays later quarterback Mike Shula hit wide receiver Clay Whitehurst in the end zone for a 24-yard TD pass. Tiffin converted for a 17-3 lead with 13:25 left.

Alabama forced USC to punt on its next possession and Richardson called for a fair catch on the Trojan 44. Seven plays later, flanker Albert Bell (from Los Angeles, Calif.) ran a reverse around the left side for a 14-yard touchdown with 8:25 remaining. Tiffin kicked the extra point for the 24-3 final score.

Freshman running back Gene Jelks, who gained 79 yards on 17 carries was named the Most Valuable Offensive Player of the game. Junior All-American linebacker Cornelius Bennett, who had nine tackles, broke up one pass, and pressured the opposing passers throughout the game, was named the Most Valuable Defensive Player. The game was televised nationally by Innovative Sports-TV.

Alabama 28, Washington 6

EL PASO, Texas—Alabama's star-studded senior class went out in grand style with a sparkling 28-6 victory over the Pac-10 runner-up Washington Huskies. The win gave the Crimson Tide a 10-3 record against one of the nation's toughest schedules.

All-American linebacker Cornelius Bennett was selected the game's most valuable player. He led the defense that allowed Washington's high powered offense just 62 yards on the ground, and 241 yards total offense.

The Tide didn't allow a touchdown.

After a scoreless first quarter, All-American halfback Bobby Humphrey broke loose for a 64-yard spring for the game's first score with 13:55 left in the second quarter. The Huskies all-star kicker, Jeff Jaeger, booted a 31-yard field goal with 5:55 left and added a 34-yarder with :44 remaining as Alabama took a 7-6 half-time lead.

After two possession exchanges, Alabama's Freddie Robinson recovered a Washington fumble on their 47 yard line. In six plays, quarterback Mike Shula sharply guided the Crimson Tide to a touchdown, completing two passes to Humphrey, and a 32-yard scoring strike to Greg Richardson. All-American placekicker Van Tiffin converted his second PAT of the day with 6:24 remaining in the third stanza. Alabama led 14-6.

On the Crimson Tide's next possession, Humphrey ran three plays for 15 yards. Then Shula hit Angelo Stafford for 27 yards, Richardson for 25 and Humphrey for an 18-yard TD pass. The six-play, 83-yard drive took but 2:11 off the clock and with Tiffin's PAT, Alabama was in charge 21-6.

Alabama's almost unstoppable attack scored again on its next possession covering 92 yards in 16 plays. Humphrey ran in the score from three yards out after gaining 48 yards on ten carries and catching three passes for 30 yards from Shula on the drive. Tiffin converted at the 7:16 mark in the last quarter for a 28-6 victory.

Shula, starting his 27th consecutive game for Alabama, completed 15 of 26 passes for 176 yards with two TD passes to end his collegiate career. Humphrey ended a sensational year with three touchdowns. His 159 yards rushing gave him eight 100-plus yards rushing games for the season.

It was also to be Coach Ray Perkins last game as head coach of the Crimson Tide and it was one of his team's greatest performances during his career at Alabama.

A crowd of 48,722 witnessed the game and CBS televised it nationally.

HALL OF FAME BOWL—JANUARY 2, 1988

Michigan 28, Alabama 24

TAMPA, Fla.—In a battle of two traditional football powers, Alabama and Michigan met for the first time in the second Hall of Fame Bowl in Tampa, Fla., and the Wolverines won 28-24 on a fourth down last minute touchdown.

NBC televised the game nationally and 60,156 fans looked on as Alabama Coach Bill Curry faced Michigan Assistant Head Coach Gary Moeller who replaced Head Coach Bo Schembechler, who had a heart attack three weeks prior to the game.

A 51-yard Philip Doyle field goal at 8:43 in the first quarter gave the Crimson Tide a 3-0 lead. Michigan's All-American halfback Jamie Morris then proceeded to score three unanswered touchdowns. Two came in the second quarter from 25 and 14 yards out. Michigan held a 14-3 lead at intermission.

On Michigan's second possession in the third quarter, Morris broke through the left side of his line for a 77-yard touchdown sprint with 9:36 remaining. Down 21-3, Alabama came to life and scored three touchdowns for the lead.

With 4:55 left in the third stanza, tight end Howard Cross took a 16-yard scoring strike from quarterback Jeff Dunn to complete a 72-yard drive but the Tide failed on a two-point conversion. Then on Alabama's next possession, the team put together an 85-yard drive with its All-American tailback Bobby Humphrey leaping over from the one yard line.

After forcing Michigan to punt on its next two possessions, the passing of Dunn and the running of Humphrey completed a 79-yard drive with Humphrey scoring on a determined 17-yard run. Dunn completed a two-point play to Clay Whitehurst for a 24-21 lead with 4:49 remaining to play.

Starting from its own 38-yard line after the kickoff, Michigan caught fire and moved to Alabama's 20-yard line with a fourth and three situation. In a surprise move, quarterback Demetrius Brown completed a beautifully executed touchdown pass with 50 seconds left in the game to flanker John Kolesar in the end zone to give the Wolverines a 28-24 victory.

Dunn completed 23 of 40 passes for 269 yards and Humphrey rushed for 149 yards on 27 attempts to lead Alabama offensively.

Alabama 29, Army 28

EL PASO, Texas—Resilient Alabama, behind a superb record-setting performance by senior quarterback David Smith, rallied from behind to defeat upset-minded Army 29-28 in the 55th annual Sun Bowl Classic. Smith shattered passing records set by such esteemed Bama names as Steve Sloan and Joe Namath in guiding Bama to this win on a near perfect football day in El Paso.

West Point, a 14-point underdog at kickoff time, quickly struck to take a 7-0 lead before many of the 48,719 fans could find their way into the Sun Bowl stadium. A 51-yard run by fullback Ben Barnett set up the first score of the game, a one-yard run by Mike Mayweather, with less than three minutes gone in the action.

Alabama cut the lead to 7-3 in the first quarter, but early in the second period, the Cadets took a 14-3 lead when quarterback Bryan McWilliams capped a 69-yard, six-play drive with a 30-yard TD scamper on a patented wishbone option play. Once again Alabama drove down the field but had to settle for a Philip Doyle field goal, this time from 22 yards out.

The end of the first half brought some of the game's most pivotal moments. While the Alabama defense was trying to figure out the intricacies of the Black Knights' wishbone, Army finally went to the airways on a halfback pass. Bama got a break when passer Calvin Cass overshot a wide open Otto Leone for what would have been a cinch score. Instead the Army had to settle for a field goal attempt from the Bama 24-yard-line. Enter Bama's sensational Derrick Thomas, the king of the big play artistry. Thomas blocked the kick, keeping Army from adding to its lead. David Smith rapidly drove Alabama 76 yards in 1:12 for a score. It took Smith eight passes to do it, five which were completions with the score coming from 7-yards out to Marco Battle. With only :35 left in the first half, Doyle converted the extra point to narrow the lead to 14-13.

Five plays later and with only a few ticks left on the clock, Army lined up for another field goal try, this time from the Bama 27-yard line. Keith Walker's 44-yard attempt was blocked, once again by the omnipresent Thomas.

Midway through the third quarter, Smith artfully drove the Tide to a 20-14 lead, with the TD coming on a 23-yard pass to Greg Payne. Three minutes later, with 1:22 to go in the third quarter, Army had regained the lead on a three-yard run by Mayweather on a fourth-and-goal play, and moments later Army upped the lead to 28-20, thanks to a brilliant 57-yard interception return by safety O'Neal Miller.

Bama and Smith did not panic, driving back to the Knights' two-yard line. However, Army's defense stiffened and Doyle was called on to kick a 32-yard field goal with 7:25 left in the game.

A 19-yard pass from Smith to Todd Richardson and a 16-yard run by Wayne Shaw were the key plays in the Tide's winning drive with senior David Casteal doing the honors from two yards out, leaping into the end zone for the winning score.

Smith, the game's MVP, completed 33 of 52 for 412 yards, each setting an Alabama bowl record. Thomas was voted the afternoon's best lineman.

Miami 33, Alabama 25

New Orleans, La.—On the first day of the 1990s, Miami firmly proclaimed itself as the team of the 80s by clinching the 1989 National Championship with a 33-25 victory over seventh-ranked Alabama in a game which would not only ultimately make the Hurricanes first but be Bill Curry's last as head coach of the Crimson Tide.

Miami never trailed in this latest rendition of the Battle of New Orleans, moving ahead 7-0 with 4:55 left in the first quarter on a three-yard run by fullback Stephen McGuire. Actually the Tide had held the Hurricanes on downs and forced a field goal attempt by Carlos Huerta but Bama was guilty of an off-sides infraction, giving Miami a first at the three-yard line.

Two series later the Tide was even at 7-7, thanks to a short punt and a 10-yard return by Gene Jelks which put Bama within striking range from the Miami 36. It took nine plays to move that distance against the renowned Miami defense. A four-yard pass from Gary Hollingsworth to Marco Battle and Philip Doyle's subsequent extra point knotted the game.

Miami was quickly back in front 13-7 after going 78 yards in five plays with Craig Erickson and Wesley Carroll combining for three completions for 50 of those yards, including an 18-yarder for the score. Big Mike Ramil, playing in his final Bama game, blocked Huerta's extra point to leave it at 13-7.

The second quarter fireworks continued with Tide freshman Antonio London recovering a Miami fumbled punt to set up an eventual 45-yard field goal by Doyle. Nine plays later Miami was up 20-10 after Alex Johnson scored from three yards out. In its most impressive drive of the night, Alabama covered 80 yards in 11 plays and scored on a seven-yard pass from Hollingsworth to Lamonde Russell with :40 left in the half.

Alabama was back in business seconds later when senior Lee Ozmint intercepted an Erickson toss and ran it back 23 yards to the Miami 19. Three plays later (after two runs and an incompleteness), Doyle tried a 40-yard field goal on the final play of the half. Doyle had the distance to hit it from better than 60 yards but unfortunately for the Tide the kick sailed to the left and the halftime score read: Miami 20, Alabama 17.

Miami dominated the second half, scoring a pair of TDs on Erickson passes of 11 to Rob Chudzinski and 12 to Randy Bethel. Trailing 33-17 late in the game, Alabama made a heroic effort to get back into the tilt. Hollingsworth hit Miami native Prince Wimbley with a scoring pass from the nine yard line with 2:53 left in the game. A Hollingsworth to Russell two-point conversion pass had the Tide to within eight. However, Alabama's on-sides kick attempt failed and the Hurricanes had little trouble in running out the clock and claiming not only the Sugar Bowl crown but the unanimous No. 1 ranking in the nation as well.

Louisville 34, Alabama 7

TEMPE, Ariz. — The Louisville Cardinals, behind four, first quarter touchdowns, jumped to a 25-0 lead over the Crimson Tide and then coasted to a 34-7 victory in the 1991 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, Arizona.

The game marked the second time Howard Schnellenberger, an assistant coach at Alabama from 1961-65, had faced the Tide as a head coach. Schnellenberger, an assistant under the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant, helped coach the Tide to an impressive, 49-5-1 record, including three SEC and national championships (1961, 64 and 65).

Offensively, the Tide could not get untracked compiling only 189 yards total offense. Alabama's vaunted defense, ranked first in passing defense, third in total defense, fourth in scoring defense and sixth in rushing defense, gave up a Bama bowl-record, 458 yards passing. The Cardinals rushed for another 113 yards to set an opponent record for most yards gained in a bowl game (571).

The Tide defense was unable to stop the Cardinals' Browning Nagle who hit on 20-of-33 attempts for 451 yards and three TDs. The Tide's only score came when Charles Gardner intercepted a Jeff Brohm pass and returned it 49 yards for a TD in the second quarter.

The Cardinals jumped out in the first quarter when Nagle hit Latrell Ware for a 70-yard scoring pass with 7:35 left. Ralph Dawkins came back with 3:40 remaining to score on a five-yard burst that capped a six-play, 26 yard drive. The Tide's Byron Holdbrooks blocked the extra point, but just 53-seconds later, Louisville blocked an Alabama punt and recovered it in the endzone for a touchdown. The Cardinals went for two, but George Teague stopped Ralph Dawkins on the one-yard line.

The Cardinals had picked up 25 points in the first quarter and from there, the Tide defense settled in and allowed just nine points the remainder of the game.

The Tide got on the scoreboard in the second stanza when Gardner intercepted Brohm's pass and returned it 49 yards for a TD. That would prove to be the Tide's only points of the game.

Louisville rounded out the scoring when Nagle threw 19 yards to Anthony Cummings and Bama quarterback Danny Woodson was called for intentional grounding in the endzone.

ALABAMA — Touchdowns: Gardner (49-yard interception return)

LOUISVILLE — Touchdowns: Ware (20-yard pass from Nagle); Dawkins (5-yard run); Cummings (37-yard pass from Nagle); Buchanan (recovered blocked punt in endzone); Cummings (19-yard pass from Nagle). Safety (Alabama intentional grounding in endzone). PATs: Wilmsmeyer (1 of 2). Two-point conversions (0-2, both passes, failed).

BLOCKBUSTER BOWL — DECEMBER 28, 1991 Alabama 30, Colorado 25

MIAMI, Fla. — Alabama relied on a second half rally and three Jay Barker touchdown passes to come from behind and defeat the defending national champion Colorado Buffaloes, 30-25 at Joe Robbie Stadium in South Florida.

David "The Deuce" Palmer was honored with the "Brian Piccolo Award" as the game's most valuable player. He got the Tide on the scoreboard first in his usual fashion, a punt return. Palmer took the punt on Alabama's 48-yard line, ran through four Colorado defenders and scooted down the right side-line 52 yards for the score. Wethington's PAT gave Alabama a 7-0 lead.

A blocked Tank Williamson punt gave the Buffaloes the ball on the Alabama three-yard line and two plays later Scott Phillips ran it in from the one. Jim Harper kicked the extra point to tie the game.

Two possessions later, Alabama was trapped deep in its own territory and Colorado took the lead when Ted Johnson tackled Martin Houston in the endzone for a safety.

Neither team could generate much offense, but the Alabama defense provided the necessary boost when Mark McMillian intercepted a Darian Hagan pass on the 50-yard line and ran it back 49 yards to the one. The Tide lost seven yards in three plays and settled for a Wethington field goal. The Buffaloes used the final 43 seconds in the half and kicked a 33-yard field goal as time ran out.

In the second half, the Alabama offense woke up and drove the ball to Colorado's eight. An apparent David Palmer touchdown was called back because of an illegal substitution, but on the next play (third-and-13) Barker and Siran Stacy connected on a 13-yard pass for six points. The two-point conversion failed and Alabama led, 16-12.

A Colorado touchdown gave them a three point lead (19-16), but Alabama marched 75 yards its next possession and scored on a 12-yard toss from Barker to Kevin Lee. Wethington's PAT put the Tide up 23-19. A 15-play drive in the fourth quarter culminated with a 5-yard touchdown pass from Barker to Palmer and gave the Tide a 30-19 lead. Colorado got a quick fourth quarter score to bring them within five, but the Alabama defense held on in the final three and a half minutes to preserve the victory.

Alabama 34, Miami 13

NEW ORLEANS, La.—All week long Alabama coach Gene Stallings said he did not consider his Crimson Tide an underdog. In front of 76,789 in the Superdome and a national TV audience, Alabama proved the skeptics wrong as the Tide handily defeated the No. 1 ranked Miami Hurricanes 34-13, winning the national championship for the first time since 1979.

Alabama's defensive strategy stifled Miami's rushing game, only allowing the Hurricanes 48 yards on the ground. Gino Torretta did pass for another 278, but it would not matter.

With Alabama leading 13-6 at the half, the defense took control of the game early in the third quarter. On the 'Canes first play from scrimmage in the second half, Torretta was intercepted by Tommy Johnson, who returned the ball to the Miami 20-yard line. Six plays later, Derrick Lassic scored from a yard out to increase Bama's lead to 20-6.

Alabama's defense had been giving Torretta problems all day but the one play that virtually spelled the end for Miami came on their next possession. The Tide pulled all 11 players up to line with Torretta operating from the shotgun. His errant pass was snared by George Teague who high-stepped 31 yards for a second Tide touchdown in 16 seconds.

Trailing 27-6, the Hurricane offense took the field to mount a successful second-half drive. On Miami's second down and 10 play, Teague made one the biggest defensive plays of the season, although it was null and void because of a five-yard offside penalty called against Alabama.

Torretta hit his favorite receiver, Lamar Thomas, who was streaking down the sideline for an apparent six points. Teague streaked down the sideline, ran Thomas down, stripped the ball from him, and proceeded to advance the ball in the other direction for a short gain. The play may not be officially recorded in the records books but it will stand as one of the best defensive plays ever.

The Tide relied on a ground attack to move the ball on offense. Out of the 285 total yards gained, 267 of them came on the ground. Derrick Lassic controlled Alabama's ground game cutting, slicing and weaving his way to 135 yards rushing on 28 carries and two touchdowns. His efforts gained him the Miller-Digby Sugar Bowl Most Valuable Player Award.

ALABAMA	3	10	14	7	—	34
MIAMI	3	3	0	7	—	13

ALABAMA—Touchdowns: Williams (2-yard run), Lassic (1 and 4-yard runs), Teague (31-yard INT return). PATs: Proctor (4 of 4 kicks). Field Goals: Proctor (19, 23).

MIAMI—Touchdowns: Kevin Williams (78-yard punt return). PATs: Prewitt (1 of 1 kick). Field Goals: Prewitt (49, 42).

Alabama 24, North Carolina 10

JACKSONVILLE, Fla.—A key to this game for Alabama was to stop the Tar Heels' running attack led by 1,000-yard rushers Curtis and Leon Johnson. The Tide would also have to concern itself with the passing game, guided by Jason Stanicek (139-219-1,878 yards and 12 TDs) whose favorite receiver, Corey Holliday, finished the year with 867 yards and two TDs.

A key ingredient for Alabama to win would be the play of back-up quarterback Brian Burgdorf, who was starting for the injured Jay Barker. Also, the Tide defensive backs would be without the services of consensus All-American Antonio Langham, who lost his eligibility for the SEC Championship game and the Gator Bowl.

After a scoreless first quarter, Alabama got on the board with a Proctor 22-yard field goal with 11:01 in the second quarter. The Tar Heels answered Alabama's score with a one-yard touchdown carry by William Henderson on the next series giving them a 7-3 lead.

On Alabama's next series, Burgdorf hit three-of-four passing for 27 yard and picked up another 19 himself placing Alabama on the Tar Heels' 33-yard line. On first and 10, Burgdorf ran a draw up the middle for the distance and the touchdown. Proctor's PAT gave Alabama a 10-7 lead.

North Carolina tied the game with two seconds left on the clock before the half on a Tripp Pignetti 23-yard field goal.

In the third quarter, Alabama had the first possession and used its rushing attack to drive the length of the field. On second and goal from the UNC eight, Burgdorf threw his first pass of the drive to Tarrant Lynch in the middle of the endzone for six points.

Alabama's final score was Chad Key's first career touchdown. The Tide picked up three rushing first downs and then Burgdorf hit Key on a 10-yard reception. Proctor's PAT gave Alabama a 24-10 lead with 6:34 left, with neither team threatening again.

ALABAMA	0	10	7	7	—	24
NORTH CAROLINA	0	10	0	0	—	10

ALABAMA—Touchdowns: Brian Burgdorf (33-yard run), Tarrant Lynch (8-yard pass), Chad Key (10-yard pass). PATs (Michael Proctor 3 of 3 kicks). Field Goals: Proctor (22).

CITRUS BOWL—JANUARY 2, 1995

Alabama 24, Ohio State 17

ORLANDO, Fla.—The Crimson Tide and Ohio State Buckeyes met for only the third time in the two schools' storied histories at the 1995 CompUSA Florida Citrus Bowl. Alabama, winner of the previous two encounters with OSU, was making its first appearance in the Citrus Bowl, the school's 13th different bowl.

A scoreless first quarter was highlighted by a four-legged, unwanted visitor. Alabama took possession following a missed field goal and mounted an impressive drive, but the momentum seemed to escape when a stray dog found his way onto the field and caused a lengthy delay in play. After the curious canine was chased off the field and into a portal, the drive stalled and Michael Proctor's 49-yard field goal attempt was blocked.

The Crimson Tide started another drive on its 20-yard line with just over four minutes remaining in the first period. The 16-play, 80-yard drive ended early in the second period and was capped off by Tarrant Lynch's touchdown run from nine yards out.

The lead was short-lived, however, as 13 seconds later, Ohio State tied the game with a 69-yard bomb from Bobby Hoying to Joey Galloway. The Buckeyes then capitalized on a blocked punt deep in Tide territory, and Hoying hooked up with Galloway once again, this time from 11 yards out, to give Ohio State a 14-7 lead.

Alabama responded with an 11-play, 80-yard drive on the very next possession to tie the game. Sherman Williams finished the drive with a seven-yard scamper and both teams went to the locker room deadlocked at 14.

After a scoreless third quarter, Ohio State regained the lead at 17-14 as Josh Jackson connected on a 34-yard field goal with 8:41 to go in the game. Michael Proctor, who had missed a 25-yard field goal to start the fourth quarter, redeemed himself with a 27-yarder that tied the score, 17-17, with 4:29 left to play.

Then, as it had done all season long, Alabama came through with late-game heroics to pull out a win. With less than a minute to play, Jay Barker hit Sherman Williams over the middle, and 50 yards later, the talented tailback had given the Tide a 24-17 win. Alabama finished the season at 12-1-0, and with the victory, the senior class of 1994 (45-4-1) broke the record for most wins in a four-year period. Sherman Williams was given the Charles Y. McClendon Most Valuable Player Award after rushing for 166 yards, catching eight passes for 155 yards and scoring two touchdowns.

University of Alabama Football Lettermen—1892 To Present

The following is a list of all-time Alabama football lettermen. Information listed should include name, position, hometown (at that time), and years lettered. If a player earned first team All-America status, it is denoted with an * before his name. If he was All-Southern Conference (SC) or All-Southeastern Conference (SEC), it is listed after his name. The following information required many, many hours of research and digging, and the University is indebted to the late Mr. Jeff Coleman, the Alumni Office, the Gorgas Library and many individuals for providing assistance. We solicit corrections and additions, and please contact the Alabama Sports Information Office about any changes.

KEEP THE TRADITION ALIVE

When you purchase an officially licensed University of Alabama product, you play a part in perpetuating the Crimson Tide spirit. Revenues from officially licensed University merchandise are shared among the Paul W. Bryant Museum and two other great UA traditions — academic excellence and athletic success. Purchases of officially licensed products build on that heritage in many ways — not only do they show your support for the Tide, they make a valuable contribution to some of UA's proudest traditions:

- The University's Presidential Graduate Fellowship Support Fund receives royalties from each product sold with the "officially licensed collegiate product" seal on the hangtag or label — providing needed support to outstanding UA graduate students.
- The Bryant Museum on the University of Alabama campus brings history to life, preserving the past successes of Crimson Tide sports. Royalties from officially licensed UA merchandise help maintain and expand the museum — preserving UA's rich athletic heritage for future generations.
- Officially licensed products represent quality — the seal at right is your guarantee that the University will benefit from your purchase and that the Alabama product has met the approval of the University.

Show your pride in the Tide — support your favorite University by buying officially licensed products from Roll Tide Retailers. Support our tradition of excellence!

The Paul W. Bryant Museum

The University of Alabama's rich football tradition comes to life every day at the Paul W. Bryant Museum, which has been enjoyed by more than a quarter million people since opening in 1988.

Even if you've seen it before, you haven't seen it all, as the Museum is constantly changing and updating its exhibits to give a fresh look at the legendary history of University of Alabama athletics.

Located on Bryant Drive across from Coleman Coliseum, the Paul W. Bryant Museum offers more than 100 years of Alabama football history through exhibitions of photographs, memorabilia and videos.

"The Bryant Museum is a good place to spend a day just for fun," said Kenneth Gaddy, Museum director. "We also welcome sports scholars and students, who can take advantage of our historical resources."

Exhibits trace the history of UA football from its introduction by William Gray Little in 1892 to the present. Also featured are the careers of the University's football coaches and players, as well as highlights of Alabama's championships and honors.

Displays include a re-creation of Bryant's office and a press box with recordings of historic game highlights as they were announced by the Alabama Radio Network. The "Echoes of Heroes" exhibit incorporates new touch screen computer technology to honor the people behind the scenes who added to the tradition.

Prominent exhibits include a bronze bust of Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant by Blair Buswell, who sculpts busts of Pro Football Hall of Fame honorees, as well as "The Sack," the painting by renowned sports artist Daniel Moore portraying Cornelius Bennett's famous tackle of Notre Dame's quarterback in 1986.

The 16,000-square-foot Museum includes a sports research library with books, programs, media guides, articles, audio tapes and films on a variety of sports. The library contains books from the personal libraries of Coach Frank Thomas and Coach Bryant, as well as football scrapbooks compiled by former players. The library and archives are open to researchers and the general public.

Film footage dating as far back as the 1920's is repaired and transferred to video tape for public viewing at the sports research library. Video is made available to the media for use in broadcasts needing historical footage of Alabama sports.

People interested in Alabama sports history can benefit from joining the "Circle of Champions," a membership program which supports Museum activities. To receive a brochure about the Museum program or to inquire about group tours, after-hours tours or private receptions call the Museum at (205) 348-4668.
